LINN APPLES IN MINN.

T. A. Roberts, of this city, a student in the O. A. C. left this afternoon for Minneapolis, where he will look after the display of apples of the Albany Commercial Club, 92 boxes of as fine fruit as the sun ever shone on, to be shown at the big Donaldson Exposition of Fruit, a great fruit show. This collection has been secured in a painstaking way and is very creditable, as well as scientifically packed. It consists of Spitznberg, Kings, Yellow Newtons, Jonathan, Spies, Baldwins, Ben Davis, Grimes Golden, Mackintosh, Waxens, and Missouri Pippins.

Another fine display of Linn county apples has been placed on exhibition in a prominent show window in St. Paul by the Linnhaven Company.

These exhibits promise to be a stroke for Linn county apples.

M. A. Miller Should be Re-elected.

Lebanon, Oct. 18.—It would be difficult to urge any good reason why M. A. Miller should not be re-elected to the state senate; but there are many good reasons for his re-election. When we consider the important committees upon which he has served, and also that he has twice been his party's candidate for the presidency of the senate, we know he is in a position to render the state much valuable service. Having had this legislative experience, he is ready now to begin actual heavy work. Mr. Miller voted right on the questions of corporations, railroads, schools, taxation, direct primary, and salary, and voted for economy in all legislation. He served on the following committees: assessment and taxation, education, elections, public lands, banking, enrolled bills and other important committees, besides many special appointments.

Max Weiss of Roseburg yesterday was fined $400 and ordered sent to jail for 30 days by Judge Coke, for violation of the local option law. Weiss has been doing a cold storage business.

TALK TO CORVALLIS

The Pacific Telephone & Telegraph Co. announces the introduction of its new two number service in effect from today by which you call Corvallis subscribers the same as you would your neighbor except that the prefix "Corvallis" is used. It will not be necessary to call Long Distance. For instance, when the local operator answers you will say "Corvallis Main 200 for 122-J" hold the receiver to your ear and your Corvallis party will answer immediately.

Four direct lines have been built to handle the new service. This is another innovation of the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Co. which its many Corvallis and Albany subscribers will appreciate.

CUBA DEVASTATED

Havana, Oct. 17.—Reports tonight indicate that the island of Cuba has probably sustained the greatest material damage in all her history from the practically continuous hurricane which began with light rains Thursday morning, developing into torrential floods and hurricanes and continued until this evening. Damage will doubtless aggregate several million dollars. Many thousands of peasants in the three western provinces are rendered homeless and it seems possible that the republic may be compelled to request international aid.

Oakville.

Mr. E. A. Cone, of Corvallis, made a short visit to this place Saturday.

Dr. J. N. Smith and family were visitors Friday afternoon and Saturday.

Capt. Galbraith made a hurried visit to Portland last week.

Samuel Bullis and family moved into the R. L. Smith house. Mr. B. has rented the Smith farm for one year.

Farmers are busy putting in their fall crops. The rain didn't penetrate deep enough for easy plowing.

The Smith family have moved into their new residence on Riverside Avenue. The building contains nine rooms and a basement. It is heated by a furnace. The house is supplied with water by a wind mill. The carpenters were Porter, Baldwin and Rose, the cement workers Smith Bros. and Al Carey, the plasterers Guyer and Bier and the painters Dawson and Martin of Corvallis. They all did good work and the Smiths in appreciation of it will give an oyster supper on the evening of the 20th, the house will be open for visitors at 2 p. m.

LITTLE ROSE BUD.

Fight Pictures at the Electric.

The original Jeffries-Johnson fight pictures, drawing packed houses where ever exhibited. These slides show the contest from start to finish, together with the motion pictures of the famous Gans-Nelson fight at Colma, California. That the ladies are admirers of the many art of self defense has been demonstrated by the eagerness with which they flock to the theatres where these pictures have been put on. By the way it takes the ladies to show us a thing or two after all. Over in Westport, Conn., the ladies town improvement association in order to give an added attraction to a lawn fete and far advertised the Reno fight, resulting in a large crowd.

Married Fifty Years.

The golden wedding of Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Royal, of Salem, was celebrated yesterday. A remarkable thing about the event was that Rev. Nelson Clark, of Spokane, who performed the ceremony fifty years ago, was present, also Mrs. Alderson, of Portland, who attended the first wedding, mother of Mrs. R. L. Burkhardt of this city, who was at the golden wedding.

J. S. VAN WINKLE, P. M.

I. H. Van Winkle, Republican candidate for Circuit Judge. He has been defeated in all the courts and has had seven years judicial experience as Assistant Attorney General, Circuit Court, and in the U. S. District Court. (Paid advertisement.)

SOME MODERN RECIPROCIITY.

The democrats have certainly shown a liberality that is striking, nominating in this county three republicans for office, making no opposition to them because of their excellent records as men and officials. W. L. Marks for clerk, A. L. Geddes for surveyor and Wm. Fortmiller for coroner are men deserving of office because of their fitness and personal reputation. Republican voters who put a ballot in for competent democrats like Messrs. Miller, Tussing, Snow, Denney, Kinsey, Smith, Devaney and Ellswick, will be doing a neat act of reciprocity and as well voting for clean men who deserve recognition.

A STRONG REPRESENTATIVE TICKET.

The democrats have a strong legislative ticket in the field, Messrs. Tussing, Shaw and Denney, all old residents of Linn county, successful in business and absolutely trustworthy. They are men who stand for the people, and if elected may be depended upon to represent the people of Linn county without fear or favor. They stand right on the questions of state ment number one providing for the election of U. S. senators by the people, and the direct primary, providing for nomination of candidates for office by the people instead of by the old boss caucus system, which some are trying to have restored under the name of the assembly.

ARE OREGON VOTERS LIBERAL

Editor Democrat: It has been said that Oregon voters are hide-bound in their party affiliations. This was true 25 years ago, and they have continued to slacken ever since, and now Oregon voters are pronounced liberal in the matter of voting. This is true of both republicans and democrats. But it must be admitted that much of the liberality on the part of both parties sprang from the superiority in the fitness of candidates; but this is just what should call for liberality. Republicans are entitled to the credit of electing Pennoyer twice, Thayer once and Chamberlain twice as governor of the state. It is now generally conceded these governors made good and justified the republicans in casting their votes for these men. Many other cases of liberality might be mentioned, but these will suffice. Two years ago the democrats named Judge Bean as their candidate for supreme judge, the republicans having made him their candidate for that office. Quite a number of republican candidates for state offices were supported by the democrats two years ago.

This liberality of voting among both democrats and republicans will show itself more extensively the eighth of next month than ever before. For this reason the democrats refused to put up a party candidate for state treasurer, attorney general and several other state offices but will vote for T. B. Kay for state treasurer and A. M. Crawford for attorney general and some other candidates on the republican state ticket all of whom they have made their own candidates by nominating them at the primary election by writing in their names on their ballots. The democrats also refused to nominate a candidate of their own party for joint senator for Linn and Lane but nominated Mr. Bingham, an anti-assembly republican with the hope that anti-assembly republicans in both counties would join in and assist in defeating Mr. Bean, the assembly candidate, who, two years ago, introduced a bill making it a felony for any candidate to sign statement Number One. Democrats this year, by writing in names, have made Mr. Marks their candidate for county clerk and several other republican candidates for county offices likewise. In return for this liberality on the part of the democrats anti-assembly republicans will vote by the hundreds and thousands for Mr. West for governor and thus elect a man of the people instead of Bowerman who is the bosses' candidate. Republicans on two occasions have helped elect M. A. Miller to the state senate on account of his superior fitness for the place. Mr. Miller has abundantly made good and this year the republicans will elect him again. His opponent, Mr. Baty, is an assembly man and this renders him very distasteful to anti-assembly republicans. ANTI-ASSEMBLY.

ABUSE OF THE INITIATIVE.

It is a gross abuse of the rights guaranteed by the Initiative and Referendum Amendment to the Oregon Constitution to bring up women suffrage at every general election. This measure was submitted in 1900 and beaten by a plurality of 1237. In 1906 it was again proposed and was beaten by 10173. In 1908 it was again on the ballot and it was beaten by a majority of 21,649. Notwithstanding these repeated defeats more decisive at each election, the same measure is again on the ballot this year. The ballot title is misleading and indicates a proposal to give votes to taxpaying women only, but the measure to be voted on is the same proposition which the people have so often and so recently condemned. It should be voted down this year by an increased majority, especially because of the fraud undertaken to be perpetrated on the people by the use of a false and misleading title on the ballot.

OREGON ASSOCIATION OPPOSED TO WOMAN SUFFRAGE. Mrs. Francis James Bailey, Pres.

MISFITS

For real fakery the Home Rule people take the bakery.

An exchange says there are fifty-seven varieties of republicans.

Neither the saloon or theft should be licensed. The saloon robs the home.

A real vote for Albany homes will be one against the so-called home rule bill.

The Oregonian has been as great an enemy to righteousness in Oregon as the saloon.

Oregon has a good law against theft, but there is lots of stealing that goes unpunished.

Now when Col. Roosevelt swims over Niagara falls without drowning he will be IT for a fact.

What fool things these schools of journalism are. Anybody knows how to run a newspaper.

O. A. C. and U. O. will fight it out on the gridiron instead of between Horner and Aldermann.

The yellow journals are supreme, y happy when wealthy people sue for divorce. It means a scandal.

The liquor men precipitated the prohibition fight at this time by their persistent shipment of whiskey into dry territory.

The mills take wheat and make flour of it, the saloon takes the boy and makes a drunkard of him, the finished product. What are you for.

A new fad is for ultra-fashionable women to carry 18 inch bisque dolls, dressed in the very latest Parisian styles, the outfit costing as high as $125. Wouldn't that jar true womanhood.

The Examiner says most men are just as lazy as they dare to be. A good many are industrious, had rather work than not, and would keep at it even if they did not have to. The hardest of all lives is the idle one.

A walk through the streets of Albany, Eugene or Corvallis and then through whiskey Salem with its open saloon every few steps will show the difference between a saloonless city and one with the wide open doors, with their stench and evil influence.

Senator Ruth, making addresses in the interest of the saloon, says he is opposed to the liquor traffic, but is convinced that prohibition encourages drunkenness, and other vices and crimes. What childishness. Then why is the saloon fighting prohibition if it helps business. It would be just as sensible to say that prohibition of theft encourages theft.

Pretending to be opposed to the saloon, but wishing to regulate it in a model way, the so-called home rule association has been well unmasked all over the state, respectable newspapers generally showing up the affair, the only institution fighting for the saloon, and undoubtedly backed by the whole sale liquor dealers and breweries, regardless of the cute provision that no liquor dealer can belong to it.

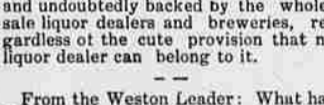

From the Weston Leader: What has Bowerman ever done for Oregon? The most the Leader knows is that he endeavored to establish the assembly plan by law at the last session of the legislature and failed; and that he endeavored to kill the normals, and succeeded. Also, he used to swamp his office stove at Condon with tobacco juice while fondly dreaming dreams of political conquest. Beyond this, his record is nil. He has a bulldog aggressiveness and vaunting ambition, but these qualities should not be mistaken for statesmanship.

EXECUTRIX NOTICE OF FINAL SETTLEMENT.

In the matter of the estate of Sarah E. Ball, deceased. Notice is hereby given that the undersigned executrix of the last will and testament of said deceased, has filed in the county court of Linn county, Oregon, her final account as such executrix, and that Monday the 7th day of November, 1910, at nine o'clock in the forenoon has been set as the day for said report and hearing of objections to said report and the settlement thereof. KATHERINE E. BALL, Executrix. C. G. BRYANT, Attorney for executrix.

SUDDEN DEATH.

Mrs. Victor Edholm, residing on the Corvallis road in this county, died suddenly yesterday afternoon, under peculiar circumstances. After dinner her husband came to the city leaving her and their young child alone. During the afternoon Mrs. Edholm, mother in law, telephoned several times, but received no answer, and knowing that she was at home, went to the home of her son between 3 and 4 o'clock and was startled to find her lying on the floor dead.

Dr. Kavanagh was called and with Fred Fortmiller went out to the Edholm home. It was plainly heart disease and an investigation by a coroner's jury was not considered necessary. The deceased was about 23 years of age, a worthy young woman, and her husband and family have the sympathy of many friends in their misfortune.

FLORIDA IN A STORM.

Jacksonville, Fla., Oct. 18.—The storms last night and tonight swept the entire Florida peninsula, doing damage estimated at several million dollars. Forty thousand square miles of territory south of Jacksonville have been left without communication with the outside world over 24 hours. Last reports told of the hurricane were high winds and rapidly falling barometers. The orange crop in that territory and the vast trucking interests are probably ruined. Along the eastern coast many lives are believed to be lost and the property damage is believed to be great.

Circuit Court.

Department one of the circuit court will convene Monday in Judge Burnett's last term, with 29 cases on the docket, 20 are for recovery of money, the old Buchanan rape case, one for recovery of award, two to recover recover realty with damages, the Fred Senders local option case, the larceny case of J. E. Willoughby, forgery case of Earl Blair, the right of way case of the Or. Electric agt. Moench and a replevin suit.

A year or two ago the Oregonian called Clarence Darrow an anarchist and all manner of names; but it swallows everything that smears the saloon and is now lauding him to the skies.
