THE KIND OF MEN WHO SHOULD BE SENT TO THE STATE LEGISLATURE.

No man should be sent to the state legislature who is in favor of the assembly, the object of which is undoubtedly the overthrow of the direct primary. Mr. Beatty, republican nominee for senator, was an assembly delegate, Mr. Bean was nominated by the assembly for joint senator and Mr. Train has come out in favor of the assembly in the Oregonian. In the next legislature an effort will undoubtedly be made to make such a body legal, and the voters should see that the majority stand right on the subject. No candidate for the legislature should be voted for who does not make himself plain on the subject.

In the last legislature the effort was made in House bill No. 344, which passed that body, but was defeated in the senate by a vote of 17 to 12. Senator Miller was one of the most active in opposing it, and was quoted by the Portland papers as follows: "The people of Oregon want the direct primary law and they will resist every attempt to weaken or destroy it. If this bill is passed the people will referendum it and kill it by a vote of 6 to 1."

Statement number one was passed by the people by a majority of over 48,000 and Linn county should see that no one is elected to the legislature who is not outspoken for it. Don't send any man to the legislature who straddles the fence on any subject. Oregon needs men at Salem you can put your fingers on, whatever the subject. Senator Miller is such a man. So are Messrs. Tussing, Shaw and Denney, nominees for the lower house. You can find out where they are on any subject, and there won't be any equivocation. Try it on the republican legislative ticket.
