ACCIDENTS TO R. R. MEN

A couple of railroad mea met with accidence last night and this morning:
Joe Bowers of the S. P. last evening was helping to unload some bir timbers, when in falling one of them hit a cinch bar and threw it up into his face. One tooth was broken out and a set of teeth broken into several pieces, cutting his face up some.

Early this morning C. E. Sharp, firef man on No. 15, the freight going east on the C. & E., was going down Lyon street at a pretty fast gait when he met Judd Ross in his new mail cart coming down street from the depot, both near the curb. In some way Mr.
Sharp but control of his wheel and run tirectly into the horse, tumbling off under his heels, the rig running over him. His face was badly bruised, as well as his body. Mr. Ross took him home and a physician was sent for. A cut in his nose was sewed up and he is getting along all right.

A Warm Foot Ball Team.

A city foot ball team is being organized under the name of the Albany Athletic Association, which promises to be a fast aggregation. A meeting will be held at the Opera house tomorrow night, with Dennis Merrill in view as captain of the aggregation. Alvin Coates, once a member of the Multnomahs, and Paul Driver, one of the best in the state, are down for half backs. Eugene Dooley, former full back of the Columbias will probably fill that position. Krats Cronise, a former O.A.C. full back, in the railroad business here, will probably be quarter here. Then there are Mr. Merrill, Cilyde Ward, Joe Barry, Geo. Miller, Thrasher and Gould, all old players, forming a heavy team, only needing team work to win some good games. good games. It is probable a game with the high school team will occur at an early date.

CONSUL MILLER TO RETURN.

Consul H. B. Miller, of Beltast, Iraland, a brether of Senator F. J. Miller of this city, has resigned his consulship and will sail for home on the 20th of this month, remaining permanently at home, residing in Eugene. His daughters, Laura and Winnie, will remain on the continent several months before coming home. This will end a long and splendid service for the government in the consular department Mr. Miller's most notable experience was while in Manchuria during the Russo Japanese war. He was president of the Imperial Red Cross Society, and in expression and acknowledgement of the part he took in the amelioration of the lot of Chinese residents there in distress, he has just been awarded a gold medal by the society.

Mr. Miller has made a clean record in the service, but, it is said, his health ne ds the Oregon climate and hereafter the Willamette Valley will be his stopping place.

Three Wild Boys.

Last night two boys broke into the Madison street school building, and also broke cut three or four windows; then they broke up several desks and scattered school books. They were Harold Rhodes and Louey Daniels, residing in the third ward. They were joined then by Joe Moench, and going to old Mr. Hughes place killed several rabbits. Afterwards they went out to the saw mill, took some wires from the pipe, let some saw dust out, broke into a place and got some eggs, and numer ous other little acts of cussedness. Chief of Police Munkers took charge of the boys this morning, put them in a sweat boys this morning, put them in a sweat box, and they all confessed. Tomorrow morning they will be up before Judge Duncan, with a view of sending them to the referm school.

FI IDAY.

News From Albany's Six Early Trains.

Prof. Edward Coursen, of Portland, came over from Corvellis, accompanie by J. A. Warner, of this city, a relitive of Mrs. Coursen, and returned home. Prof. Coursen played the new pipe organ in a booster concert at the new church last night, a great success. The church was well filled, the receipts being over $700. Tickets were $1, but a few of the first were sold for $10. Mr. Coursen was greatly pleased with the organ and church. He is Portland's most distinguished pipe organ player, for twenty $\mathbf{y}$ ars the organist at the Presbyterian church, 29 years in all in Portland as an organist. His wife was an Albany girl, where Prof. Coursen captured her. Her father Dr. Griffin, resides with them and is now $1$ years of age. Dr. Griffin was an old-time Albany dentist, residing in the first ward.

Distinguished men arround were Congressman Hawley going to Salem for the day, Jay Bowerman, who is trying to ride into the governor's chair on Bourne's scalp, and Park Beattie, nominee for state senator in this county, whom the indications are Senator A. A. Miller will beat by a good majority.

Lawyer J. R. Wyatt returned to Portland after several hunts around Albany. He may eventually open an office in Portland.

Hon, L. H. Montanye went up to Mill City for a visit of several weeks at the home of his daughter, Mrs. McLeod. Yesterday he shipped a car load of ap-ples to Huston, Tex. He will come down to vote.

Victor Moses, Democratic nominee for Judge of Benton county, went down the road on a short trip. He will probably be elected, a very competent man as well as popular among the people. The Gazette-Times, republican, is supporting him because of his fitness for the position.

L. T. Berry came down from his Leb-anon farm, Herbert Stevens, of Walla Walla, left for home after a visit with his brother W. B. Stevens.

ALL BOURNE

Trying to Ride in on his Scalp. A Cool Evening.

According to the Oregonian this morning there was a packed house at the opera house last night, and many had to stand in the back. As a matter of fact the house was about a fourth full, less than half, and instead of being enthusiastic it came about as near being a frost as occurs in Oregon.

ing a frost as occurs in Oregon.

The actual attendance was 157.

After the band played Mr. Curl, chairman of the central committee, called the meeting to order and the resulting a constant of the contral committee, called the meeting to order and the recandicates were given a chance to be heard.
L. E. Bean, candidate for joint sena-

L. E. Bean, candidate for joint senator, one of the authors of the infamous Brooks Exan bill making it a crime for the people to vote for U. S. senator in Oregon, spoke, and evidently thought Bourne was running for something, for Bourne was the target.

Toen Mr. Bowerman was introduced and whacked it to Bourne until the atmosphere looked black. Bourne is the originator of the direct primary and statement number one and because he is consistent in advising the voters of Oregon to go against all assembly candidates he is fought from the shoulder, showing the real animous of the whole business, anti-oirect primary, antishowing the real animous of the whole husiness, anti-offect primity, anti-statement number one, and yet Mr. Bowerman pretended to be the friend of the direct primary. He charged that West was a creature of Bourne, which people with an ounce of brains knows is not a fact. West is his own reature, rising through his own energies

Grant Dimmick joined the crowd here and also spoke, landing Bowerman, an entirely different tune being played from that in the primary campaign.

Congressman Hawley closed the program, trying to speak as the crowd was leaving.

leaving.

In the report in the Oregonian the silly claim is made that Howerman not only will carry the entire republican vote but get many democratic votes, with a majority of a thousand in Linn. Instead the indications are that West will carry the county. All over the county the report comes that the insurgent vote will go for him.
