MISFTS.

The mud of the Oregonian spatters back.

Mr. Bowerman's whole campaign has been a defensive one.

Put a pin in the fact that Os. West is going to carry Linn county.

Roosevelt is now instructing the cultured bean eaters how to conduct them selves.

Those lies about the Bowerman crowds and enthusiasm ought to make Annanias turn over in his grave.

These reports about voters being solidly for Bowerman regardless of the assemblies are the worst kind of fakes.

The same old cut and dried story in the Oregonian about the McMinnville Bowerman meeting, made up according to orders by a servile reporter, willing to lie for the party.

Bowerman whacked it to Jonathan Bourne good and hard, and then it was learned that Hawley did the same thing charged against Bourne, who deserved to be hit. Bowerman stopped suddenly along the lines taken up.

About the size of this whole home rule proposition is that the breweries and wholesale liquor dealers want to run the incorporated cities of the state, and make them joints for booze, tin horns and the many other things that go with the licensed saloon, gilded or plain.

John Bayne, the democratic nominee for circuit judge is 46 years of age, a resident of Oregon for 19 years. He graduated from the law department of Willamette University in 1893 and has since practiced in Salem, an upright practitioner, with a clean personal record, a man of good judgment.

A wholesale vote against new counties is not a reasonable position, nor a just one. As Oregon grows some of these counties larger than some of the eastern states are bound to be properly divided in time. Each case should be investigated as much as possible. But there should, as a rule, be no division until circumstances justify it.

The Oregonian told about how Nashville, Tenn., had increased its saloons under Prohibition in Tennessee, showing the lawlessness of that city, and as the saloons increased the number of murders also greatly increased, of course, and that is the only point to it except the slum on the officers in Nashville elected to enforce the laws of the state.

The Oregonian published a sensational item about how J. S. Medley, a Cottage Grove lawyer, a democrat all his life, was going to support Bowerman as a protest against the Bourne interference in Oregon politics. The real reason is given by the Guard. Medley is the attorney of the Oregon and South Eastern R. R. running between Cottage Grove and Bohemia. The railroad commission helped in securing judgment against the road for about $9000 on account of an accident to two men, and Medley resented the part taken by West. Cheap politics.

All overcoats just $15 at W. F. Pfeiffer's.
