THURSDAY.
A BOY'S ACCIDENT.
Claud Morgan, son of Leighton Morgan, residing in the third ward, had a thrilling experience last evening. He was riding a horse along First street eastward, followed by another boy on a bicycle, with a rope fastened to the saddle, drawing the boy and the bicycle. This frightened the horse and he threw his rider the boy's leg being caught in a loop in the rope, the other boy falling from the bicycle, uninjured. The horse ran eastward dragging the boy, bumping along the ground, across Pennywinkle, where he was stopped, and the boy extricated from the rope and taken into the house of Mrs. Steel and Dr. Davis sent for. He was badly bruised and his condition is considered critical.

The College Library.
Albany College Library will collect magazines, pamphlets and books that the people of Albany care to give to it on Saturday, Oct. 29. Please have ready promptly what you wish us to take, and notify us if you are overlooked. Advance notice may help us also.
ALBANY COLLEGE LIBRARY.

During the entire eighteen years of Judge Burnett's judgeship W. C. Tweedale served as bailiff, and W. H. Warner every term but the first one, a rather remarkable record.
Eugene will have a monster temperance parade next Saturday. Mrs. Armor will speak there Friday night and Mr. Fanning Saturday night. Things are humming there for the cause of righteousness.
Instead of Newberg high the second team of Willamette University will play Albany high Saturday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, and a live contest may be expected. Yesterday afternoon Newberg telephoned that the team could not come.

At the Monday evening get-together meeting at the Com. Club three practical subjects will be considered: practical orcharding, what can be done with ten acres, and marketing, by men who know. Go and get some up-to-date pointers.
A Galesburg farmer, near Forest Grove, has had considerable wild animal experience right at home. A wild-cat interfering with his chickens was shot, also a bear that came down into his barn yard and this week a deer ran into his barbed wire fence and broke his neck.
Gene Simpson, champion pheasant raiser of the world last year paid about $100 for three wild turkeys from Virginia and was branching out in the wild turkey business. One of the birds was recently bagged by a hunter, and Simpson would give a good deal to get his name.

Mr. and Mrs. George Wyt have arrived from Centralia to make their home in Albany, and Albert Wyatt has returned from Juneau, where he has been residing. The young men, with their father, will soon have an up-to-date laundry running at the new fruit cannery, on a long lease. B. C. Wyatt has sold his Benton county place and will make Albany his home.

The matter of compelling the S. P. to build street crossings was discussed, and upon motion of Councilman Miller, Hewitt & Sox were ordered employed to see what can be done.
Attention was called to the failure of the electric light company to move light from 1st and Ellsworth Sts. to 2nd and Ellsworth St.

News From Albany's Six Early Trains.

Three cars of a freight train went off the track near Montgomery street, tangling up the trains some, requiring number 14 to come in on track number one, a good one for it.

John Roberts, residing near Foster, returned home accompanied by G. W. Wright and B. M. Payne, who went up to do some cruising. They took along their guns and expected to land a deer or two and perhaps more fierce game.

There were drummers galore leaving. They filled the town last night, and all the rooming houses roundabout were run full. Perhaps Albany doesn't need a big, modern hotel.

F. M. French returned from a watch inspection trip up the Springfield road. George Rolfe went to Brownsville for a visit with his mother.
Father Van Navel left on a Mt. Angel trip.
Roy Wood, acting manager of the Albany Iron Works went to Portland on a short business trip.

Another Parents Meeting.

The second of the series of Parents' Meetings being held at the High School will occur at four o'clock tomorrow afternoon. The teachers are especially anxious to meet the parents of the high school pupils, but every one is invited to be present. The special topic for this meeting is "Domestic Science in the Schools." If however, any one wishes to bring up any other matter, an opportunity will be given him to do so. The business men of the city ought to take an hour or two from their business and give the school the benefit of their presence. A general interest in the schools of any community is necessary for the highest efficiency and no other interest in our city is of as great importance.
Dr. Schaefer of the Chair of Histor in the University of Oregon, is to address the high school at three o'clock. The public is cordially invited to hear Doctor Schaefer and to remain for the Parents' meeting.
Principal E. P. BRADLEY.

Alco's Annual Meeting.

The annual meeting of the Alco Club has been set for Nov. 15. The date is Nov. 8, but election is on that day. The meeting will be an important one, as there is need of placing it on a more solid financial basis. Several things have been suggested. One is that the Alco Club and Commercial Club be merged, with one management for both, and the club be made headquarters for visitors in Albany, offering a place for them socially, which would not interfere with the privileges of the regular members. Anyway at the annual meeting the future of the club will be earnestly considered, according to reports.

The Electric Improved.

Mr. Anderson, the new proprietor of the Electric, has been greatly improving his show house. The very latest machine has been set up, a perfect one in its working, the curtain has been painted, aisle carpets laid, ventilation looked after, and arrangements made for the exclusive use of films from a big San Francisco house, offering some rare programs in the future. The house which has been closed for a few days during the work will be open again tonight. Go and see for yourself.

Senator George E. Chamberlain will speak at the opera house tomorrow night in the interest of the democratic candidates. He has been making a splendid campaign, with large houses and great interest. People like to hear him because he has something to say. In upholding the Oregon system, which has attracted national attention, Mr. Chamberlain presents a theme of vital interest and he is entitled to a hearing.
A former Albany man our people have always given him a large hearing and will undoubtedly do so this time.

Leave Clackamas Alone.

Clackamas county makes this appeal: Don't rob old Clackamas of nearly half her territory and taxable property and give it to Multnomah, already over-rich in wealth and political power. Last, it increases the political power of Multnomah, already too great, 2nd the great cost of transcribing and certifying of the records, estimated at not less than $200,000; 3rd, it robs Clackamas county of nearly one half of her richest territory, leaving the court house in one corner of the county, 4th, there is a measure before the people to leave the matter of county division to the decision of the territory interested. Vote no on all county divisions and let the people most interested decide these questions for themselves.
Put an X before No. 323.

An Enjoyable Concert.

The Woodworth Drug Company held the first of a series of concerts, last night, that was greatly enjoyed by about three hundred people. The music lovers were given an opportunity to hear the world's famous artists on the victrola. Mr. L. L. Breed of Portland, gave some beautiful numbers which were appreciated. Mrs. P. A. Young accompanying him on the piano. Miss Emma Sox contributed two selections and was greatly enjoyed as she always is. Mr. Norton, manager of the Piano Department, rendered a number of beautiful pieces on the player piano.

In the City.

From Portland:—Geo. Fletcher, T. E. Wallace, C. Schiel, C. G. Adams, A. L. Gordon, A. Jackson Detsch, A. W. Arnold, C. B. Nicolls and wife, C. C. Wintermute, L. W. Santler, R. D. Cruikshank, R. A. Douglas, Myrtle Pease, E. B. Schonenschach, A. C. Alton and wife, J. Bauvaie, R. C. Dorcas, C. L. McKirroy.
Scio.—A. E. Randall.
Tucumseh, Mich.—A. Hanham.
Alsea.—Geo. O. Mason.
Kan. City.—C. L. Loueks and wife.
Crawfordsville, Ind.—S. M. Schultz.

Rotten Methods.

An Oregon man secured some choice apples of a Portland firm and sent them east for display. The top layer was all right, but underneath were the poorest kind of cullings. This was infamous, and a poor way to build up our fruit interests. The Portland firm should be sued for damages. Right at this city some apples for eastern shipment were unpacked and three kinds of apples found underneath. That's trickery of a rotten kind and must be stopped if Linn county is to be an apple section. You can't fool apple buyers.

Letter List.

The following letters remain in the Albany, Ore., postoffice uncalled for Oct. 26, 1910. Persons desiring any of these letters should call for advertised letters, giving the dates: Mrs. S. P. Adams, Mrs. Ellen Doris, W. J. Disher, C. E. Foster, Col. C. A. McCoubough, John McGee, Mrs. Martha Mitchell, Mrs. Laura More, F. F. Miller, Louis Rinard, A. L. Rinard, A. L. Snyder, John Turish.
J. S. VAN WINKLE, P. M.

We Can Raise Apples.

You don't have to go out of Linn county to get some apple records. M. C. Jenks, of Tangent, has an up-to-date apple orchard of several acres that is doing great things this year, $1400 an acre. There are eighty trees to the acre in it, and they have yielded an average of 7 bushels to the tree. Mr. Jenks belongs to the new association and is making large shipments. Mr. Jenks sprays as well as prays.

A Shedd Meeting.

There was a lively rally for the home against the saloon and for a voice in the prohibition of the liquor traffic in the cities as well as in the country, at Shedd, last night, with a good crowd out. The speakers were Rev. W. P. White, A. C. Schmitt, W. H. Marvin and W. A. Eastburn, of this city, to the point and there with both feet. The Hammer quartet furnished the music. Shedd people are thoroughly acquainted with the so-called home-rule Mrs. S. P. Adams, Mrs. W. A. Eastburn, which will be the program all through the country.

Bought Six Mules.

While here C. M. Redfield, of the big Deschutes Irrigation Company, bought six large mules for use by the Company, and this morning Van Riley left with them by way of the Lebanon wagon road for Redmond, where he will deliver them. The wagon road is said to be clear now.

The Weather.

Range of temperature 64-33. The river is 9 of a foot. Prediction: fair tonight and Friday.

BIG FIRE AT VICTORIA

Victoria, B. C., Oct. 27.—The fire which started at 10:30 tonight, escaped from fire fighters, who were unable to prevent spread and before the flames were finally under control, the Five Sisters block and the Times building, as well as several yachts in the harbor, were burned. Soldiers from Fort Esquimalt aided the firemen. The loss is estimated at $2,000,000.

An Odd Accident.

Lebanon E. A.—Joseph Mayer, a blacksmith of this city, was shoeing a horse for E. V. Bloomfield, a farmer who lives about six miles east of Lebanon, Saturday, when the horse acted ugly and Mr. Mayer attempted to put a rope on one of his feet when the horse threw himself, breaking one of his legs, and had to be shot. Mr. Mayer promptly paid Mr. Bloomfield $185 for the horse. Mr. Mayer has been in the blacksmith business in Lebanon for about twenty-eight years and in that time has shod thousands of horses, and this is the first accident of the kind that has ever happened in his shop.

Grange at Toledo.

Toledo, Oct. 26. Toledo Grange was organized yesterday with a good charter list. The principal officers are: E. S. Erntson master, Martha Goin lecturer, J. F. Stewart secretary. The latter is independent candidate for county judge, a splendid man.
My next point of attack will be Eddyville for my 6th grange in Lincoln county, then home for election.
Lincoln county and Oregon are going dry is my "tum tum."
CYRUS H. WALKER.

FRIDAY.

Scott Hart came over from Corvallis this noon.
F. B. Tinkle, a former Albany photographer, and wife are in the city.
Mr. and Mrs. Geo. E. Warner went to Lebanon this afternoon.
Miss Zona Haight went to Eugene this afternoon for a visit with Miss Lucille Dunn.
The district convention of Lady Macabees began this afternoon with thirty or forty delegates present.
T. L. Dugger and several other Scio men came over this afternoon to hear Senator Chamberlain tonight.
Eugene Register:—Kenneth Fox and H. L. Smith were up from Albany on Thursday on a short visit.
Mrs. W. W. Davis arrived from Mon mouth this afternoon for a visit at the home of her sister, Mrs. L. Viereck.
Carl and Ray Huston expect to have their barbershop in the Cusick Block open tomorrow morning, a neat place, well located.
R. S. Wilkins, ill with Bright's disease, not consumption, is gradually failing. His son, Rev. R. B. Wilkins, of Gobles, Calif., will arrive tonight.
J. A. Warner reports the sight of a fine meteor, about 5 o'clock one morning this week, going West to North East, 20 seconds in sight, and looking nearly as big as the moon.
Eugene Guard:—Harry Shen, of the Albany tannery, is in the city to attend a Catholic library social. It is rumored that in the near future he will take one of Eugene's fair young ladies back to Albany as a bride.
The Albany Sand and Gravel Co. have bought a 40 H. P. gasoline launch to run the gravel barge. The Company cannot meet the demand for the sand a splendid quality and there are good orders for clean gravel.
P. A. Young and F. B. Wire returned this morning from the West Fork country, down in Southern Oregon, where they secured a couple deer. This is not a very good deer season. Besides down there no Greeks have routed the entire Persian army.

BEFORE THE RECORDER

Charged With Disorderly Conduct

K. O. Merrill, painter, was arrested today charged with disorderly conduct. Last evening at 7:45 Monroe Ward returned from Portland, where he had been called by the critical illness of his brother Otho. Later during the evening he went up stairs over the Royal Restaurant, when some trouble ensued between him and Merrill, the latter of whom followed him part of the way down the stairs and then knocking him the rest of the way, some say with a bottle, but that is not certain. Mr. Ward was taken home and Dr. Davis called, and he is getting along all right. It was reported on the street that his skull was crushed, but this was not true. The men are said to have been intoxicated, and there are numerous stories about how it happened, but this is the principal one.
Merrill was taken before Recorder Redfield, plead not guilty, and will be tried this evening.

News from Albany's Six Early Trains.

S. H. Moses came over from Corvallis. He reported a great West sentiment in Benton county, and Victor Moses is pretty sure of being elected county judge.
Henry Blakely and Jos. Hume, arrived from Brownsville, both former candidates for sheriff, one a democrat, the other a republican. Mr. Blakely remained at Albany, Mr. Hume going to Salem.
Rev. Jamison, of Brownsville went to Stayton to preach the funeral sermon of Mr. Cox, who died there this week.
Ray Roberts, taking a post-graduate course at O.A.C. went to Clackamas county, and tomorrow will see the big O.A.C.-Pullman game.
Dan Hurley went to Salem, where he has been receiving special treatment for his eyes for some time.
P. R. Kelley, nominee for circuit judge, left on a trip north.
I. H. Bingham, independent candidate for joint senator, arrived from Eugene, to look after his interests here.

Scott Ward left on the motor for home. Last evening he returned from Portland, called there by the critical illness of his brother Otho, dying from a cancer. He reported a great sentiment in Portland for West for governor, and there is a general belief that he will be elected.
A revolution has broken out at Athens, Greece, not the first time either.
President Taft, a unitarian, lauding Methodist missions, was a feature of white house life yesterday.
Three Salem high school students have been suspended for hazing some fellow students. They attempted to shear their heads.
Henry Myers a wealthy farmer, was killed at the Dalles Wednesday night by an automobile accident, the auto running into a rock pile.
Bob, the well known bull-dog of the Gould stables, died this forenoon from poison, the end of a career with many battles in it.
Scio News:—Mrs. Edward J. Kimball will appear in original readings at the Devaney school house, Thursday, Oct. 27 at 8 p. m. and at the Oakview school house on Saturday, Oct. 29, at 8 p. m.
On the day of the game between O. A. C. and U. O. Nov. 12 there will be a cross-country run between five men from each college, with a cup as the reward. It will be an interesting event, pulled off before the big game.
Scio will have a temperance rally next Monday evening, with Judge McFadden of Corvallis as the principal speaker and the Hammer quartet furnishing music, accompanied by several Albany business men.
