DIFFERENT KINDS OF VICTORY.

President Campbell in a talk at the depot in this city advised the students to be gentlemen under trying circumstances when they went to Corvallis for the big football game. President Kerr, a man who stands for much in morals, no doubt gave the O. A. C. students just as good advice. Nevertheless, rampant rowdyism prevailed at the depot, perhaps not by O. A. C. students, though it is declared the man who knocked a U. O. man down was an O. A. C. man, but some kind of students, high schools or others. The moral is that the greatest defeat of the day for Corvallis was when this rowdyism was permitted, showing a spite that was small and vicious. There have been times when it has been seen in Albany. The body of college students who control themselves and show the gentlemen under defeat in a great contest have a greater victory than those who defeat a strong team. One of the best things a great college or university does is the upbuilding of character.

George Lewis, of Portland, returned home today with two Chinese pdasants and 125 turkeys, a pretty good hunt.

Mr. and Mrs. Claire Baker returned last night from Portland. Mrs. Baker's mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Churchill Boudens, died there Monday. The remains will be taken to Cottage Grove, for burial tomorrow. She was a woman highly esteemed and leaves many friends, as well as relatives to mourn her death.

Mr. and Mrs. Willard L. Marks left on the 4:18 train this morning for Oakland, Calif., where they will visit with Mr. Marks' folks for a week, and then leave for Missouri for a visit with Mrs. Marks' folks. Before returning to Oregon they will go up to Chicago for a day's visit with Miss Flo Nutting, coming home by a northern route.

An Unusual Program.

The big home talent Thursday night under the auspices of the ladies of the First Presbyterian church, benefit of their fund for the new church, has every ear mark of great success. A splendid cast—best of costumes—entertaining stage settings, assures an evening of real entertainment aside from the fact you are helping forward a matter that appeals to all people of Albany. Men as old maids! children in wedding.

About Tobacco.

Albany, Nov. 16.—To the Democrat: "The former Albany woman" in last Monday's Daily Democrat, is courageously right, on the tobacco habit, none too strong. There is a former Albany man in south Portland that never sells it in his store, and would no sooner do so than he would sell liquor. The Free Methodists are right, no lodge or tobacco man can get membership in their church. Glad Albany has one church at least that is not speckled that way. "A word to the wise is sufficient."
A. J. Carothers

Thanksgiving and Holiday Suggestions of Interest

Right now is the time to begin making the Christmas Gifts and nothing is more acceptable than the gift made by loving hands

Christmas Gifts of Cretonne

There is probably no material that lends itself so well to the making of gifts as cretonne. We are showing a most beautiful line of imported cretonnes in those exquisite soft colorings on cream grounds that have become so popular among gift makers.

Some of the designs are small with the daintiest coloring of pink and green and yellow that harmonize perfectly with the cream ground. Others are in larger designs and wonderfully attractive. For button bags, handkerchief, laundry and shoe bags it is excellent. Used also for covering boxes, window seats, dresses, dressing tables and chairs.

A whole page of suggestions in the Ladies' Home Journal.

Cretonnes at per yd., 18c to $1.00.

See window display.
