The Home Rule Bill,

The Democrat's guess is that the home rule bill has been deteated. Returns are only beginning to be given or the vote, decidedly arraisat it outside of Portland. For instance in Lane count on a partial vote it was $90 against it while the vote for prohibition was lending by only 155. It will take the official vote to decide it. Little is known about it in this county, but depend upon a vote of over 1,000 against it.

THE SHOW A SUCCESS. Mr. and Mrs. Harold Rumbaugh.

The Alco gym was packed last night at the apple show, the large' audience being delighted with the presentation. Over 250 boxes of big red and other colored apples were seen, some of them hard to beat anywhere, but there are some fillers on the west side that have no business in any kind of a show. Altogether it is a splendid exhibition of fruit. The plate display is extra, every one a hummer.

On account of the lateness in starting it was announced the show would be continued all day Saturday.

The programs were good ones, the talks just the kinds nucded listened to with intense interest by our apple men warm after pointers.

In the evening C. W. Wilmeroth, a big apple grower of Medford, spoke on marketing apples, giving some points need here, a few suggestions being decided ripe ones. The great need now is not community unity alone but for the entire state, in fact coast, necessary to secure profit in selling. We bent the east, not in flayor but in size and color, he said, and we must keep up the standard.

That Home Rule Law.

Even if the bome rule law passes it transpires that a botch has been made of it, and that it will take the supreme court to settle what it means, if it means anything. The last provision practically makes it inoperative in a county that has carried local option.

It risds, but such municipality shall be wass within its limits he subject to the local street option law of the state of Oregon. So long as this law operates and Linn county votes yes on it the home rule law governments of it from hearsay.
