U. O. vs. O. A. C.

The U. O. fast ball team arrived last night, spent the night and this forenoon here and went to Corvallis this afternoon, with the prospects of winning against O. A. C. this afternoon. An excursion train of twelve cars of roster arrived this forenoon at 11 o'clock, and after Yell Leader Robinson had put the boys through some stunts and President Campbell had made a speech full of good advice to the gentlemen under all circumstances the crowd rushed to see the big game. A large crowd of Albany people went this afternoon on the regular train.
