DOINGS OF THE WORLD

Jack Johnson is reported to have broken down. The same old story.

The Northwestern Corporation is to build a $20,000 brick for its offices in Eugene.

209,000 is to be Portland's population. Pretty good. 13,000 was taken off by the investigator.

Douglas county has a right to gobble. More than 7,000 turkeys have been shipped from there this season, the turkey county of the state.

100 people were killed yesterday in a riot at Puebla, Mexico, over a meeting of anti-revolutionists. Mexico is considerable of a despotism after all.

Lafayette Young, the new U. S. senator of Iowa, and Tip Humphrey, editor of the Jefferson Review, were boys together and schoolmates in Albia, Iowa.

The three Ashland precincts went 615 to 234 for prohibition, a fact that speaks for the people of that prosperous city. Medford went as much the other way.

The new Hotel Marion at Salem, the evolution of the Chemeketa and Willamette, has now been duly advertised free by the press of the state, and all it cost was $5 a plate.

Yesterday at Portland a divorce was granted Ircia Cantwell from her husband, Jas. Cantwell. They were married at Albany in Aug. 1903, and lived together five years, desertion being charged from Nov. 1906.

Charley A. Cundiff, of Armstrong county, Pennsylvania, musical director, is in the city for a few days and is at the Smeede.—Eugene Guard. The same Charley Cundiff who used to live in Albany and play the piano.

Albany has not been represented at the Spokane apple show, but will be at the Portland show. 67 boxes, prize winners at the recent show here, are now in cold storage in Portland awaiting the show there Nov. 29.

An interesting feature of Mrs. Bess Gearhart Morrison's readings in Oregon was her experience at Lebanon, where E. B. Day, who played at her first recital, twelve years ago in Nebraska, again played for her.

Jefferson Review: Fred Hooper ar. was operated on at the Albany hospital Monday for an internal trouble resulting from a kick from a horse received several years ago. At last accounts he was progressing as well as could be expected.

Miss Finn in Portland.

Journal:—Miss Anna Flinn of Albany, who has taken apartments at the Nortonia for the winter, was hostess at luncheon at the Hotel Portland Wednesday. Following luncheon, her guests were entertained at a matinee party at the Hellig theatre to see De Wolf Hopper in "A Matinee Idol."

Empire Photoplay

TONIGHT

"The Banker's Daughter."—A Biograph drama, an exceptional story of a banker's daughter, who, though ill, saves the lives and riches of her family, by her energy, and thoughtfulness. A beautiful story, well told.

"A Life for a Life."—The Vitagraph Company has surpassed any and all pictures in this story of a convict. It appeals to all the better instincts of mankind, and is a sermon of wonderful value.

"The Easy Winner."—A drama with a comedy in which a man with powerful voice turns everything topsy-turvy. It will make you laugh.

Illustrated Song—"You stole my Gal." Miss Crossno. Complete change tomorrow. Admission 10 cents.

The Electric.

Pictures change Sunday, Tuesday and Friday.

For the Sunday Edition, one of the well known Imp's dramas.

A GUN ACCIDENT.

At Newport, With Probably Fatal Results.

Thomas Cale, a young man about 18 years of age, was brought from Newport this forenoon and placed in St. Mary's Hospital in a critical condition, the result of a gun accident. Young Cale was walking near the jetty with a friend, who was on the jetty, when the former who was carrying a gun, slipped and fell and the gun was discharged, the bullet striking Cale in the rectum, going through the body. It is very doubtful if he recovers.

Raincoats and cravenettes $15, at W. F. Pfeiffer's.

WOULD YOU

Would you give 60c or 75c for good U. S. Gold Dollars—???

It amounts to practically the same thing when you buy good clean up-to-date dependable footwear at a saving of from 25 to 40 per cent. And that's exactly what you can do if you take advantage of Stoltenberg's Closing Out Sale—All shoes are selling at wholesale prices and you can buy the newest styles in high class footwear for less money than you would pay for shoes of the commonest so elsewhere.
