

Exhibition and Demonstration of La Grecque Corsets

Beginning Monday an expert Corsetiere direct from New York will be here to exhibit the latest styles of this corset. This is an opportunity to receive expert advice on how to improve and bring out the shapeliest lines of your figure, as well as giving you perfect bodily comfort. A fitting at her hands entails no obligation to buy.

You are invited to avail yourself of this opportunity

THIS MORNING LAST DAY OF INSTITUTE.

News from Albany's Six Early Trains.

Mrs. Geo. Willis left for Portland for a visit with her daughter, Mrs. Gray, and sister, Mrs. Dandies, who recently returned from a trip to Europe, taking Thanksgiving dinner with them.

Mrs. E. C. Anderson and Mrs. E. F. Anderson and daughter went to Brownsville for their Thanksgiving dinner at the home of Mrs. Coppock, once an eastern schoolmate of Mrs. E. F. Anderson.

Mrs. Tohi, Mrs. Small and Mrs. Howe went out to Lebanon for some Thanksgiving turkey.

Mrs. H. A. Nelson went to Portland for a Thanksgiving dinner with Miss Anna Finn and a visit with other friends.

Mrs. Virgil Parker and daughter Mary left for Mollala for a visit at Aunt Betty's and a taste of Clackamas turkey.

Thanksgiving Services at St. Mary's.

Special services will be held tomorrow at 9 a. m. in observance of Thanksgiving day. Father Lane will officiate and deliver the sermon.

Exercises were held at the Academy yesterday afternoon in observance of the Parish jubilee. About 70 children participated and the splendid program they rendered was very much enjoyed and reflected credit upon their instructors. This evening the choir will be entertained at the rectory and Father Datin and Father Servais will be present with the Rev. Fathers of Jordan.

The Fire-Bell Rang.

F. G. Will, the popular jeweler last evening built a rousing fire in his fire place in the Will Block, and sat down for a good time. Some one back of the block through the windows, with curtains far up, saw the ruddy blaze and jumped at the conclusion there was a fire, and turned in an alarm at box 45. There was a loud laugh on somebody when the real situation was discovered.

Father Lane's Birthday.

Yesterday was Father Lane's birthday, and he was kindly remembered in some of the talks at the jubilee. The students of the academy also did so in a manner greatly appreciated, by presenting him with a fine overcoat. He got even with them by giving them a generous treat.
