DOINGS OF THE WORLD

Jas. A. Crabtree, an Oregon pioneer and a Mexican war veteran, died at Portland recently.

W. S. Risley will open a Tuesday law office at Jefferson, with headquarters at the Review office.

Medford is hustling for a one thousand membership in its commercial club. Everybody is pushed into it.

William J. Clark, editor of the Gervais Star for twenty years will dispose of his paper and move to Portland to reside

Washington, Oregon, O. A. C., Idaho, Pullman and Whitman, is the order of foot ball supremacy in the conference games.

Dec. 8 and 9 are the dates of the state dairymen's convention at Eugene. Eugene is ready for a thousand delegates if they go.

Born in Lebanon on Saturday morning Nov. 26, to Mr. and Mrs. Frank Saffley a girl, weight 10 pounds. This makes W. A. Bodine, of this city, a grandfather, his first experience as such.

Allen E. Eaton, a standpatter, wants to be speaker of the house of representatives, and reports having thirty votes already; but probably not.

The sentence of Abe Ruff for fourteen years in the pen has been affirmed and to jail he must go, an example that should have a good effect on the grafters of the country.

The Democrat today received a letter from Japan about twenty feet long. Some of the subjects covered are socialism, base ball, the national assembly, the political situation, the new tariff.

Dr. Paine and C. S. Williams, prominent Eugene men, on their way home from the Club were attacked by a burly stranger. They fought back, whipped the fellow into a pulp until it took a microscope to see what was left. The fellow was allowed to go without arrest.

The Mexican Revolution.

Douglas, Texas, Nov. 25.—Francisco Madero, leader of the Mexican revolutionist, is now reported not wounded, but instead marching on Mone ova with a well equipped army, said to number 6000 men. News that Madero was wounded, is said to have been inspired by Mexican officials, to discourage the revolutionist. This was the report sent by the revolutionists across the border today.

It is stated, both Madero's infantry and cavalry are excellently equipped.

Empire Photoplay

TONIGHT.

"A Tout's Remembrance."—Pictures dealing with racing are always interesting, and when it is not posed, but is made from actual scenes on the track, it is all the more so. The track here represented is Jaurrez, Mexico, actual occurrences being reproduced. The heart interest is worked out through a love story in which the revenge of a would-be sport plays a part.

"A Leap for Life."—A drama of unusual merit, thrilling to the extreme, with exciting situations throughout.

"A Cold Storage Romance."—A delightful comedy, in which an egg in cold storage plays a very prominent part.

"My Friend, the Doctor."—A snappy comedy in which the Selig players fully maintain their reputations as laugh producers. The Dr. is an interesting individual developing some amusing traits.

Illustrated Song—"Wait 'till we Gather in the Golden Corn." By Miss Crosno and Mr. Rolfe.

Admission 10 cents.

The Electric.

Pictures change Sunday, Tuesday and Friday.

Admission 5 cents.

PORTLAND'S APPLE SHOW

Will Be a Big Thing. Linn's Part.

An elaborate program has been prepared for the meeting of the Oregon State Horticultural Society, at Portland Nov. 30-Dec. 1 and 2. H. C. Atwell is president, F. W. Power, an Albany college man, secretary, and the exhibits committee consists of E. C. Armstrong, E. C. Roberts and J. O. Holt. There is to be a big apple show and contest with H. E. Van Deman of Philadelphia as the judge. Prominent speakers will be Prof. Thornburg of Washington State College, C. W. Wilmer of Medford, Consul H. B. Miller, Prof. Peck of the O. A. C., W. K. Newell, E. L. Smith of Hood River, Geo. H. Himes, J. H. Settlemier. In the 5 minute talks is C. H. Stewart. Linn county has a good display already there.

The Albany committee, C. H. Stewart, W. A. Eastburn and F. M. Frerch in charge of the exhibit from here have appointed E. C. Roberts to look after it, and it will be in his charge.

The Tramp Organist.

The plot of William B. Gray's famous pastoral play, "The Volunteer Organist," which is booked for Albany Monday night revolves around a broad minded young clergyman who falls in love with the tavern-keeper's daughter, and who is man enough to stand by the woman he loves in spite of all the petty annoyances and worries cast upon him by his congregation. The climax is reached when the organist and choir refuse to take part in the church services unless the young woman resigns from the choir. The minister calls for a volunteer organist, and a tramp, who has been hanging around the village for some time, responds to the invitation and plays. The tramp turns out to be a long lost brother of the clergyman and happiness is meted out to all deserving of it while the wicked are shown the error of their ways.
