(MONDAY.) DRUMMER TO PREACHER.

R. P. Clark has been in the city, assisting in services at the Mission on First street, opposite the Russ House, and as well on the streets evenings. His case is a decidedly interesting one. Several years ago he was the valley drummer for the cash register, doing a big business, one of the best men on the road, a hustler, and one of the boys. While attending a tent meeting in Portland in June last year, which he went into out of curiosity, he was converted good and hard, and since then he has been giving his time to preaching the gospel to others, dead in earnest, making that a business.

He is a fine talker and holds his audiences in close attention. He will probably be out tonight and is worth hearing.

Bought the Taylor Residence.

T. A. Farmer, the real estate man, has bought the residence of George Taylor, on Washington street, well located in a neighborhood the Democrat man is prepared to vouch for. Mr. Farmer's mother will occupy the basement rooms, while the upper floor of six rooms will be rented, a fine home for some one.

There will be an open meeting at Fairmont Grange hall Wednesday at 1:30, with Mr. Nickerson of near Salem as the speaker.

Battling Nelson failed to come back and was knocked out by a common English pugilist. Dissipation takes the snap out of all of them.

The total resources of the First National Bank of Prineville are $700,110.32, about the most of any bank in the state in a city the size of Prineville.

At last the figures arrived. Portland, 207,214, Seattle 237,194, Portland gain 130 per cent. Seattle's 194 per cent. Both make a wonderful showing.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Irvine left Saturday night for Phoenix, Arizona, on a vacation trip, during the quiet season in automobile, and will be gone a few weeks.

The foot ball season has not been a satisfactory one. U. O. and Washington could certainly have played, and Williamette should have been given a show with U. O.

C. H. Stewart went to Portland this morning to look after the Albany exhibit at the apple fair, and F. M. French and W. A. Eastburn, the other members of the committee will go in the morning. E. C. Roberts, who will have charge of it on the grounds.

A Lebanon Affair. Lebanon had an exciting case, as told, about like this: Marshal Richard arrested Harry Devine for being drunk and locked him up. Charles Devine, a brother, took the marshal to task for locking his brother, whereupon he was also locked up. In the jail he began searching Charles when he was attacked by Harry with a chair and knocked against the door. The marshal finally got out alive and locked the door. During the night the door was unlocked by some one from the outside and the men escaped, but only Harry left town.

For a Y. M. C. A. A meeting is to be held tonight to talk over a Y. M. C. A. for Albany, one of the great needs of the city. It should be a $50,000 one, modern and up-to-date. Is Albany equal to the occasion?

OBSERVED

By the Man About Town.

C. H. Burggraf in his new offices in his own block at Second and Lyon streets, among the most complete for the business in the valley. They embrace a suite of four rooms for the different departments of the business, well arranged and neatly furnished, with an attractive finish in special designs for the business.

Some striking show windows, those of the Woodworth Drug Company, one of the most attractive places in our valley. But Woodworth is in a sharp window neighborhood, the Chambers & McCune windows always being extra, works of art and good taste.

Fine displays of holiday goods all along the line. Albany leads in fitting people out for Christmas giving, and it is well to begin early.

Albany has done well to provide for forty-two hydrants for fire purposes. The engines are pretty well played out and both will have to be thoroughly repaired for reliable service.

Rev. Mochel, of the Grace Presbyterian church probably has the finest lot of doves in the valley, his specialty. Some of them could not be bought for less than $50. They have pedigrees reaching back fifty years and are as high toned as a Vanderbilt.

Married.

Whitlatch-Carmichael. — A pleasant home wedding occurred at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Carmichael, residing about ten miles southwest of Albany, Thanksgiving day, when their youngest daughter, Nellie, was united in marriage to Mr. Jesse Whitlatch, Rev. Franklin H. Geselbracht officiating. Only the immediate relatives and intimate friends of the family were in attendance. The bride was becomingly attired in a handsome gown of Champagne silk trimmed with gold lace and carried white carnations. After a hearty Thanksgiving dinner the happy couple departed for Portland where they spent a short honeymoon as guests of Mr. and Mrs. James McNeil. The bride is a young lady possessed of sterling qualities of heart and mind, that have endeared her to a large circle of friends, and the groom is a young man endowed with plenty of the progressive spirit which is such a telling asset in Oregon, the possessor of a fine farm near Klamath Falls, where they will make their home.

Lebanon had an exciting case, as told, about like this: Marshal Richard arrested Harry Devine for being drunk and locked him up. Charles Devine, a brother, took the marshal to task for locking his brother, whereupon he was also locked up. In the jail he began searching Charles when he was attacked by Harry with a chair and knocked against the door. The marshal finally got out alive and locked the door. For a Y. M. C. A.

A meeting is to be held tonight to talk over a Y. M. C. A. for Albany, one of the great needs of the city. It should be a $50,000 one, modern and up-to-date. Is Albany equal to the occasion?

SHOULD BE SPENT HERE.

The records at the clerk's office show over $3000 paid this year for hunters and anglers licenses. Of this amount it is estimated only $400 or $500 is spent in this county. Where does the rest go. A game garden should be appointed at the fair here. We need it ourselves, and that is fair besides.

It would be better to have the state put into four districts, if not make each county separate, but at least four, with a separate warden for each. This will take by the state legislature.

The best warden the state has had was J. W. Baker, and his friends are urging him for the place again. The Democrat is reliably informed that if Mr. Baker should be appointed he will agree that the bulk of the receipts from the different counties shall be spent there. That's the kind of a man wanted for the place.

North Benton.

Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Tomlinson of Albany took Thanksgiving dinner with the former's parents Mr. and Mrs. John Tomlinson of Wells.

Jessie Delaney is spending a few days with Linn county relatives.

Lewis Wentz, who returned home from Spokane Sunday, said he didn't like the weather in Washington, too much snow.

The Benton county assessment roll shows that the valuation of property in school district No. 4, is placed at $142,260. The valuation for the year 1909 was $153,880.

E. B. Williamson came down Wednesday evening and spent the remainder of the week with home folks.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Adkison and Mr. and Mrs. Caldwell of River Side were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Claud Anthony Sunday.

Some of the finest turkey that ever reached the Albany market hailed from North Benton, and they were taken by the wagon load, team after team.

Mrs. John Hyatt and daughter, Helma, returned home Sunday from a two weeks sojourn in Northern California.

The Next Speaker.

Among those mentioned as candidate for the speaker of the next house are Allen H. Eaton of Eugene, Brooke of the infamous Brooke-Bean bill, W. Lair Thompson of Lakeview, Henry McKinney, once a famous foot ball man, now of Baker, T. J. Mahoney of Morrow and Jerry Ruak of Wallowa. Several having probably escaped. The Democrats will do well to assist in putting in a good anti assembly man, an insurgent, and not waste their ballots at home.

The Boys Club Conference.

Albany boys and men attending the conference of boys clubs at Hillsboro report a big time. The boys from here were Fish, Howard and Cummings, the men Messrs. Schmitt and Howard. One of the papers, a good one, was by Henry Fish, of this city. The Club's Influence in Scholarship and the Student Body. The new president and Secretary will be Portland boys, the vice president a Eugene man. The next convention city is to be selected by the executive committee.

Famous Baritone Coming.

Henry N. Wagner, the famous baritone, will be at the Electric theatre Wednesday and Thursday nights of this week, singing at each performance, a treat for lovers of good music. The press generally speaks in high terms of the singing of Mr. Wagner. The admission fee will be 10 cents during his stay here.

The Weather.

The range of temperature was 47-41. The rainfall for 24 hours was .92 inch, for 48 hours just an inch and a half. The river is only 6 feet, but is due to rise some. Prediction: rain tonight and Tuesday.

TUESDAY.

Horace Steel is here from Portland on a few days business trip.

B. F. Troutman, of Portland, was in the city last night while on his way home from a turkey dinner at Shedd.

Clarence Gaylord, now a farmer near Baker City, is in the city the guest of Hugh Fisher and family. Thirty five years ago he was a printer on the Democrat, under General M. V. Brown.

In mentioning the name of Win. Bain, nominee for congressman in the first ward, the Democrat through a typographical error put it Mm. Bain. It is the well known president of the Albany State Bank.

McCourt and Prettyman have established coal bunkers at the foot of Railroad street, adjoining the track, and under the name of the Albany Coal & Fuel Co. will sell coal to Albany people, getting to be large concerns.

According to the Oregonian J. J. Collins and E. D. Cusick are in the case as witnesses for the government in a timber land case. A dispatch from Collins yesterday stated that he has reached his old home in Michigan tonight.

Albany has the prospect of a deal against the city for damages. Wm. Anderson, son of P. C. Anderson, while riding a pony was thrown at Second and R. B. streets, receiving numerous bruises on his body and face. The accident is claimed was due to the condition of the street there. The street superintendent states that there were lights at the place.

A Y. M. C. A. SOMETIME.

Last night a conference was had at the residence of A. C. Schmitt, with I. B. Rhodes, travelling secretary of the state association, in reference to the establishment of a Y. M. C. A. here, the sentiment being in favor of it, though there was a doubt of the time being ripe until several church improvements have been disposed of, and it may be a year or two before an actual beginning on the important work but it is proposed to eventually push the splendid project, and the following committee, or board, was selected to take charge of it: A. C. Schmitt and Geo. H. Crowell, of the Presbyterian church; C. E. Sox, L. E. Hamilton and J. C. Irvine, of the U. P. church; Dr. C. V. Littler, Jos. H. Kalston and J. A. Eastburn, of the M. E. church; W. A. Eastburn and J. C. Holbrook, of the Christian church; J. L. Tomlinson and H. F. Merrill, of the Baptist church; C. C. Bryant, of the Grace Presbyterian church.

News from Albany's Six Early Trains.

Messrs. Tassing, Tripp and Stratton, three good Brownsville hustlers, went to Salem to the development league convention. From Corvallis came Mayor Johnson, one of the four great Johnsons that rule that city, and Dr. Withycombe, also bound for Salem.

W. F. Holman, of North Albany, and S. S. Shupp, of Albany, were among those going to Portland to the big apple show, one of the best things of the year. Hood River, Medford and the other sections are all represented after the big prizes and the glory.

Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Weatherford left for Corvallis to attend court.

Father Van Nevel returned from Lebanon.

John A. Heinrich, and bride, of Kimball, South Dakota, arrived on a visit at the home of Mr. Heinrich's father, W. H. Heinrich, and may spend the winter here.

Father Servais came over from Corvallis.

A Heart Play.

Plays that appeal to the heart and plays that heads of families can bring their children to see are the plays that thrive. Such a play is "Along the Kennebec," which will be presented in this city next Monday night, with its wealth of beautiful scenery and a company of actors unexcelled by any in their respective lines. The play is said to be full of bright, sparkling comedy and a splendid band is carried to advertise it.

The Commercial Club.

On account of the absence of a quorum, several members being in Salem and otherwise engaged last night there was no meeting of the Commercial Club. A special meeting of the Club, though, has been called for 4:30 this afternoon to consider the matter of freight rates from a local standpoint, conferring with Dr. Cousi's, an attorney willing to represent the interests of Albany shippers.

Fast Traveling.

The program at the Electric is an extra one. The pictures of the speed demons in one of the greatest automobile races of the age, were intensely interesting, and large audiences accompanied the exciting scenes presented. They will be shown again tonight, and no one can afford to miss them.

In the City.

O. A. Centure and wf. S. Norwalk, Ct. Loyd Riches, the Journal R. C. Walters, Cedar Rapids J. M. Gilkinson, Portland D. Clifford, Seio Dan J. Fry, Salem E. J. Hunt, Eugene L. M. Archibeam and wf. Stayton H. J. Seek and wf. Halsey Judge J. P. Stewart, Toledo

The Weather

The rainfall for 24 hours was .94 inch, a long drizzle. The river is raising rapidly and is 12.5 feet.

The condition of Governor Benson is said to be serious, and it is doubtful if he can hold office any more.

The Volunteer Orchestra drew a large and pleased audience last night. The two first boys were particularly good and made a hit.

The city council met last night as a committee, of the whole and placed the twenty-two new city lights. The ordinance has not yet been signed, and there are threats of referendum, which will probably not be carried out.

For the 24 hours previous to 8 p. m. Monday about two inches of rain fell at Eugene, 2.62 inches in 26 hours. At Albany it was .92 inch for twenty-four hours, and 1.41 for two days, about half the Eugene rainfall, a peculiar fact.

Efforts are being made to secure the attendance of Secretary Ballinger of the Interior Department and Secretary Wilson of the Department of Agriculture at the annual convention of the National Woolgrowers' Association at Corvallis, January 4, 5, 6 and 7.

Sutherland Suni—A deal was closed the first of the week whereby M. W. Valerius transferred his entire stock of business to O. B. DeMoss, of Albany, who has leased the building to Mr. Valerius and taken charge of the business. Mr. Valerius is to be paid here, and will embark in another line of business.

SINGLE TAX IN OREGON.

Eugene Palmer, of Portland, formerly of this county, a prominent grower, according to the Oregonian, was the farmers of the state against the U'Ren schemes to foist the single tax on the people of Oregon through the county system. It is said that $50,000 has been raised in the east to secure an experiment of the system in Oregon. Palmer declares that in the end it would mean confiscation of the property of the farmer. Whatever the truth of that it is not probable that Oregonians as liberal as they have shown themselves in the matter of advanced legislation will anywhere in the state permit of this system.

Boosting Oregon.

The great development league opened in Salem yesterday with a large attendance and more going all the time. It has created wide interest in Oregon. Theodore Wilcox presided and sounded the note for advancement.

On behalf of the new governor C. L. McNary announced that an appropriation of $20,000 will be recommended for the exploitation of Oregon with an annual booklet for distribution east, covering the entire state, county by county.

The centennial celebration of the establishing of the first Oregon city at Astoria is to be endorsed.

Astoria and Medford are candidates for the next meeting place and a warm contest is on.

The speeches of the afternoon were made by C. C. Chapman, the Portland booster, Tom Richardson, once the prince of boosters, and J. E. Barnes, a Washington booster.

The success of the great land show at Chicago, in which Oregon is taking a warm part, was announced.

At today's session prominent speakers were O. C. Leiter of the Oregonian, E. H. Shepherd of Better Fruit, Fred Lockley of Pacific Monthly, R. J. Hendricks of the Statesman, E. C. Eubanks of the Ashland Commercial Club, J. S. Van Winkle of the Albany Club, F. E. Morrison of Success, Park West of the Chicago Record Herald, W. A. Whitney of Springfield, Mass., G. P. Schlosser, A. F. Hofer, D. C. Freeman, and other Oregon boosters. Tonight Howard Elliot is the main speaker.

Lost Boys.

The Eugene Register recently republished the editorial from the Democrat about the young man killed at Millers. Since then a couple of letters have been received from Lane county asking about the man, and for a description, one from a father whose son had disappeared, the other from a sister whose brother had been gone a year and a half without a single word from him. Neither answered the description. This man was nearly 30, weighing about 175, was nearly 6 feet tall, had somewhat of a foreign look, was dressed like a laboring man not like a hobo, was clean shaven, and had a gold watch and a locket picture probably of him when a boy.

Basket Ball.

According to the Salem Statesman Albany is to have three crack basket ball teams, high school, Phi Alpha Pi and the college. That Hi Torbet, a former O. A. C. sprinter, is coach and manager of the Alico team, and that the Phi Alpha Pi's have a game with the Baracas of Salem, one of whom is Elbert Warford, of this city, and that the Albany high is trying to get a game with Washington high for the championship of the state, long before it has gotten down to the championship period.

Anyway there will be some good basket ball this winter with prospect of another crack high school team, also an Alico team even if Torbet never was an O. A. C. sprinter.

Were at Salem.

Three Albany men actually attended the Oregon Development League convention at Salem, J. S. Van Winkle, Dr. Davis and M. Sanders. They report a live session yesterday. Wilcox's address was significant of the intentions of the Hall people to do extensive railroad building in Oregon and the Oregon men think will mean a good deal. Albany instead of three men should have had fifteen or twenty. Too much business here to get away.

The City Election.

City election one week from today. Only councilmen are to be elected, with a contest in every ward. In the first ward are J. H. Simpson and Min. Bain, in the second J. N. Chambers and George Taylor, the latter to be written in if voted; in the third R. D. Snell and G. M. Missall. The contests are all friendly ones, and the indications are the vote will be a light one.
