THIS MORNING A WET MONTH.

News from Albanys Six Early Trains.

Prof. Lewis, of the O. A. C. and fifteen or twenty horticultural students passed through for Portland to attend the apple show, with a view of getting a practical demonstration in judging fruit.

D. W. Rumbaugh, county fruit inspector, went to Portland to attend the apple show. His son Harold is there with a large display of apples, and Albany is otherwise well represented by E. C. Roberts, C. H. Stewart and F. M. French, with a large display, packed by an expert from the O. A. C.

Judge G. H. Burnett, soon to be on the supreme bench, and wife, returned to Salem after spending the night at the home of the Judge's sister, Mrs. Snelling.

Harold Jackson went down to Millers to look after his fruit orchard. He has a man there helping him who speaks four languages fluently.

Editor Morgan of the Harrisburg Bulletin, with a few others, went to Salem to represent Harrisburg in the development convention and get a place on the map. Morgan has proven a good booster for the city and is doing good work there.

Hon. C. L. Shaw left for Portland to attend a session of the executive board of the state grange. A state officer for several years in the coming legislature he will undoubtedly be of value to the agricultural element.

W. H. Marvin left for Salem and Portland.

Dr. Collins left on a short Jefferson trip.

Jos. Hume, of Brownsville, went to Portland.

E. E. Kinney, the marble dealer, came down from Foster and went up to Detroit.

Father Lane left on a Portland visit with the Bishop.

E. H. Rhoades went to Jefferson.

Some Coming Meetings.

Dr. Riley, of Minneapolis, will be the evangelist at a series of meetings to be held in this city probably in February, and if possible in the new armory. Dr. Riley was here right after the Johnson meetings, making a splendid impression, an able man and deep thinker. It is proposed to work not merely for numbers, but for genuine conversions, not to herd people upon the front bench, but to do a genuine service. People are realizing that there isn't much in long lists of so-called conversions that only stick a month or two. When a person is really converted the church is first every time.

Dr. Riley is not a sensationalist after a big record, but is the kind of man needed here.

A Park Benefit Ball.

Invitations are out for a park benefit dance at the Alco Gym, on New Years' eve, Saturday night, Dec. 31, beginning at 8 o'clock. The tickets will be $2, with $1 for extra ladies and 50 cents for spectators. The patronesses are: Meses J. M. Hawkins, D. O. Woodworth, S. S. Train, E. W. Langdon, F. M. Wilson, Wm. Fortmiller, J. K. Weatherford, Wm. Bain, H. H. Hewitt and Chas. Cusick.

I. O. O. F. Notice.—There will be work this evening in the initiatory degree, also election of officers for the ensuing term. All Odd fellows are requested to be present. John H. Goins, N. G.

Nightwatch Catlin last night had a tussle with a couple tourists, and says he knocked several teeth out for one of them, finally getting them in the city jail.
