Christmas Photos

Now is the time to have Christmas photos made. Call and see the fancy styles on display at Burkhart's Studio, next to P. O. Both phones.

MISFITS.

Christmas next, and it is coming running.

Congress will soon meet with some decent speakership rules.

The Albany stores are well stocked this year for the holidays. They lead

An open season for moss-backs is to be a subject at the development league.

Just straight, clean business methods on merit are what count in the long run.

Remember during the holiday season it is more blessed to give than to receive.

They certainly made a mountain out of a mole hill in that U. O.-O. A. C. squabble.

The Albany boys had Chemawa going about three touchdowns to nothing; but are not in the slugging business.

Oregon is to build the most miles of railroad of any state in the union the coming five years, and Albany will remain the hub.

A Portland bar tender was fined $35 for serving liquor to a man already drunk. If all the liquor servers who did that in Portland were fined the city would soon be rich.

The shortest editorial on record, was that of a big Chicago paper, after a crushing political defeat; "Hell." It meant something. Most editorials are long, padded affairs, just fillers.

Under the new county tax law each county can run its own system, even using the single tax method; but it is doubtful if there is a county in the state that will do so at this time.

Willamette has the champion foot ball team of Oregon. It is easily figured out. Willamette defeated Multnomah, Multnomah defeated U. O., U. O. defeated O. A. C. and there you are.

Corvallis G. T.—Albany with its claim of 7000 people has just ordered an increase of arc lights to 50, at $5.50 each per month. Corvallis with its 4500 people has had 52 arcs for some time.

Buy your wife a new hat for a present, is the heading of an advertisement in a Corvallis paper. That might do in Corvallis, but in Albany the women buy their own hats. Think of an Albany man selecting a hat for his wife. Gee!

Corvallis G. T.—The Gazette-Times will not be issued Thanksgiving day. There are fourteen people connected with this office in one capacity or another who want a Thanksgiving holiday. This day, Christmas and July 4 always will be holidays for the Gazette-Times.

That home rule does not apply to dry counties. It distinctly says it shall not interfere with the local option law. Local option makes all of Linn dry.—Albany Democrat.

It's a good thing that the Democrat has rendered its decision and settled the matter.—Bulletin.

Thanks for the authority; but, as a matter of fact, when the lawyers and courts get through with it the probability is that it will be construed about the way the saloons want it.

WHEN DOWN IN THE MOUTH think of Jonah; "he came out all right." When in need of a good, clean Tooth Brush think of Burkhart & Lee. They have them all right, the finest line in the city. Prices right. BURKHART & LEE.
