Against Geo. J. Wilhelm, and The First Savings Bank of Albany, Oregon, and all whom it may concern, defendants.

To All Whom It May Concern: Take notice, that on the 3rd day of December, A. D. 1910, an application was filed by said Clara E. Warner in the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon for Linn county for initial registration of the title to the above described lands. Now, unless you appear on or before the 10th day of January, 1911, and show cause why such application shall not be granted, the same will be taken as confessed, and a decree will be entered according to the prayer of the application, and you will be forever barred from disputing the same.

Witness my hand and the seal of said Circuit Court, this 3rd day of December, A. D. 1910.

(Seal) J. W. MILLER, County Clerk and ex officio Clerk of the Circuit Court of Linn County, Oregon.

HEWITT & SOX, Applicant's Attorney.

NOTICE.

The annual meeting of the stockholders of the Vetch Growers' Union will meet at Tangent on Tuesday, Jan. 3rd, 1911, at one o'clock p. m., for the purpose of electing five directors to serve one year and changing of by-laws and transacting any business which may come before the meeting.

W. E. PARKER, Pres. J. E. JENKS, Sec.

(MONDAY.)

THE ELKS

Remember Those Who Have Died During the Year.

The Albany Elks yesterday afternoon held the annual lodge of sorrow in memory of not only those who have died during the year, but as well those who have heretofore departed.

Gale S. Hill, Exalted Ruler, presided, and the following program was rendered:

Music by the Elk's Orchestra. Remarks by the exalted ruler. Prayer by the chaplain, W. M. Parker.

Music by the orchestra. Address by Prof. J. B. Horner, of the O. A. C.

Music by the orchestra. Eulogies upon the departed brothers by Fred Dawson, Hon. J. K. Weatherford and W. C. Tweedale.

Basket Ball.

Albany will have the best basket ball teams yet, about as follows: Alco Club—Geo. Doolay and Park Stalnaker forwards; Eugene Dooley, captain, center; Hi Torbet manager, Penland, guards, with some good subs. High school—Beeson and Carson Bigbee forwards, perhaps Abraham center, Maurice and Lyle Bigbee guards, with a number of other good candidates.

May Have a Press Factory.

Arthur Meader, of Portland, the inventor of the Meader press, a two color machine all at one running, is in the city, and will meet with the Commercial Club at its session tonight, when the matter of making Albany the headquarters for the manufacture of the press will be considered as an important one for the city. Mr. Meader likes Albany and believes it a good manufacturing center.

City Election today.

Jack Alphin is down from Marcola for a couple months.

Mrs. Louis Lang, wife of the well known Portland wholesale grocer, has been granted a divorce.

Congress is now in session, meeting today. It is democratic. Tariff legislation is the great issue; but it is not likely there will be much done this session.

A convention is to be held in Portland to organize a cooperative selling agency for apples, a $500,000 concern, a big thing if properly organized and honestly conducted.

Mr. and Mrs. Edmund Way arrived Saturday night from Iowa, and are the guests of Mr. Way's brother, J. C. Way. They may conclude to make Albany their home.

Geo. Harris, the sage and sage hen of Eugene, authority on roosters and white owls, has been in the city today setting a monument at the city cemetery.

Governor-elect West and treasurer-elect Kay left Saturday night, with their wives for California, for an outing before taking their inning at the capitol at Salem.

Merwin McKinney, of this city, son of Mrs. Emma McKinney, left at the Democrat office a branch of Red June apples, the third growth this year, a remarkable record in apple growing.

Jack Johnson, the great pugilist has had his brain examined by experts to see if it is sound, which the doctors say it is, and Johnson is happy. He feared insanity. He certainly has acted crazy.

Chief of Police Munkers captured Vernon Grace, of Central Point, a boy who had run away to go to New York. He was moving picture crazy. His folks were notified and he was sent home.

All Albany should hear Dr. Foulkes at the U. P. church tomorrow night when he presents the Passion Play as he saw it at Omeramergau, and see the fine display of pictures thrown by the stereopticon.

Mary Baker Eddy, the mother of Christian Science died Saturday night at the age of 89 years, after a long and eventful career. Her death has been officially announced, leaving no question about it.

The W. O. W. have elected the following new officers: Julius Voss consul, W. J. Crane advisor, R. McKechnie banker, L. Viereck clerk, Henry Aus tin escort, E. K. Weaver watchman, T. F. Chance secretary, W. A. Eastburn manager.

The 13th Annual Convention of the Oregon Wool Growers' Association will be held at Portland, Oregon, Jan. 3rd, just one day before the opening of the great 47th Annual Convention of the National Association, and Mid-Winter Sheep Show.

Ralph Watson, with the Portland Journal for several years, has been appointed private secretary of Governor West, a splendid selection. Watson is an able young man, quite popular, and may be depended upon for good work in this important position.

Five splendid entertainments are yet to come in the Albany College Lecture Course. Be sure to buy a season ticket at reduced rate. Students and children at half price, about sixteen cents each. There is more education and uplift for the money in such a course than can be had otherwise.

Prof. Wiley's Trouble.

Prof. L. A. Wiley, principal of the -ontavilla school, at Portland, forming this county, well known in Albany, is accused of beating a boy in school, and the board of trade has passed a resolution asking for his removal. The boy was given a word to spell, but couldn't. Prof. Wiley says he was impertinent, but the boy says he merely said he was unable to spell the word. Mrs. DeVany, mother of the boy says there has never been any complaints of her children before.

OBSERVED

By the Man About Town.

C. G. Rawlings has just added a power cutter among other improvements to his well equipped job office. Albany is the job printing center of the valley.

Some people living in a tent down under the bridge have been ejected by Mr. Will Amette, now 14 feet tall.

Grant Pirtle has a far away look, evidently thinking of the Sandwich Islands, where he and his family expect to spend a year, with several Browns-ville people in the interest of a business scheme of importance, leaving here the 18th.

The boat houses have all taken to the Calapoosa. Too much water down the Willamette.

Some one says most of the carpenters of Albany are busy yet, though it is December.

News from Albans Six Early Trains.

The Springfield motor went out ahead of the new flyer, making the junction just as the flyer came skimming along.

The new agent now on duty has the same name as his predecessor, only it isn't, being spelled Mickell, with two A's before it. He is from Gervais, an athletic young man, former base ball player, highly spoken of as a railroad man.

Lawyer W. S. Risley left with his suit case for Salem on a short business trip.

W. B. Chance, the mill inspector, left for Salem to interview the chief, Salem being headquarters for the department.

J. B. Gentry returned to Salem, where he is doing special A. O. U. W. work.

Lawyer W. W. Bailey came down from Brownsville.

J. B. Cougle, after worshipping in Albany, returned to Lebanon.

U. O. Glee Club.

Something new and something doing "all the time," characterizes the University of Oregon Glee Club program this year. No old and worn out songs, but the latest hits will be given.

The people of Albany will be assured of an entertainment not soon to be forgotten, when this aggregation of college boys appear at the opera house December 8th.

The Glee Club is singing some catchy songs of an unusual nature. Several of the popular intermezzos of the day, such as Amina, Will Flower and Amo, have been arranged especially for a men's chorus club, and the way Oregon's bunch of songsters go at them is enough to stir the sense of rhythm in a stone.

A Chinese love song sung by the whole club is another unusual, but catchy number. "The South Wind Blows," a new lullaby, gives the club a chance to show what the can do in tone quality. In this song, the soft moaning of the wind can be distinctly heard as the twenty-four men soltly hum in the introduction.

The comedy end of the program will be held up by the Suffragette Trio, composed of Messrs. Curtis, Martin, and Geisler, and a skit entitled "The Glee Club in Dope Center," with Tom Burke, Melvin G. Center, and Vernon Vawter in the leading roles. In this act are introduced Messrs. Curtis and Geisler, the "Pretzel Twins," in song and dance, Frazier in solo and the "Hungry Six," a German band, which renders several familiar ditties in characteristic German style.

The Eugene Flyer.

The so-called Eugene flyer flew through the city yesterday morning for the first time, leaving here at 7:35 and arriving at Portland at 11 o'clock, making the trip fifteen minutes faster than the old No. 14. The new train will be known as No. 28 going north and 27 going south. It will arrive in Albany from Portland at 9:05, leaving Portland at 6 p. m. Will it always be on time to meet the demand for such a train. The train is the result of a persistent demand made by Eugene people. No. 14 has been canceled as such, but will now run as second section of No. 16, and will be along almost any time after 4:18. This morning it arrived at 7 o'clock.

One on Salem and Albany.

Guard— Eugene is to get back the streetcar that she loaned to Salem, also the one that is in use at Albany, according to Manager O'Connor, of the P. E. & E. The two cars will be shipped to Eugene within two weeks.

Albany and Salem will each be sent a car of the smaller type, similar to the smallest ones in use here. The track in both cities is short and the small cars take care of the business easily.

Apple Fair Prizes.

The Oregonian, with other views, gives one of the Albany apple display at Portland, which made a good showing at the show H. G. Rumbaugh took the first prize for the best Willamette Valley commercial packed apple, first for the best Vanderpool, second in Kings, and Henry Struckmier, of Thomas, first on Golden Grimes, with W. K. Newell second.

While Hood River carried off the honors the Willamette Valley displays showed that the valley is going to be heard from.

LINN'S

GROWTH.

Here is the way Linn county has grown, as shown by the census figures: 1850—394. 1860—672. 1870—8,717. 1880—12,776. 1890—16,265. 1900—18,603. 1910—22,682. Steady and sure without any fireworks.

The Y. M. C. A.

The Oregon-Idaho Y. M. C. A. convention closed its 10th anniversary meeting last evening at Eugene. Two hundred and four men were enrolled, of whom the oldest was Cyrus H. Walker of Albany aged 72. The next oldest was Rev. Lytle aged 70, librarian of the Willamette University at Salem.

Twenty-seven state committee men were elected. A. C. Schmitt, of Albany, is chairman of tee general committee.

It was decided that not less than $3000 be expended in carrying on the work the coming year. Of the sum $2,500 was pledged by the delegates present.

The stereopticon address Saturday night "Meeting the Educational needs of Men," by Geo. B. Hodge, was a masterly effort.

At 3:30 p. m. yesterday a men's meeting at the tabernacle was called the grandest event of the session. Fifteen hundred men were in attendance, and were addressed by Chas. R. Drum of New York, his subject being "An Honest Man." Men were moved as never before, under his impassioned appeals, and many for the first time declared their purpose to lead a Christian life.

The last meeting and closing exercises of the convention were held in the First Presbyterian church. E. L. Shuey, of Dayton, Ohio, gave the address of the evening. Two minute talks were made by Pres. Homan, Pres. Campbell, Senator Booth and others.

The last scene was when the delegates and officers formed a circle, singing "Blest Be the Tie that Binds." The Tacoma Association quartet furnished excellent music all through the sessions. Saturday evening from 6 to 8 a magnificent banquet was served in the Association building, with Pres. Homan as toastmaster.

Salem will probably get the convention next year.

That Has Been Organized 32 Years.

Saturday was a big day with Charity Grange of Rowland, Linn county's pioneer grange, when the anniversary of it was remembered with a large crowd present, including a number of visitors.

The principal speaker was former master of the state grange B. G. Leedy. Prof. Horner who accompanied him also made an appropriate talk.

The national grange was organized in 1874 and Charity Grange only four years later, in 1878. It is in a splendid section of the county, and has always remained staunch to the principles of the order.

At noon there was a great dinner, enjoyed by all. The Charity people cannot be beaten in this line.

The Weather.

Range of temperature 50-41. Rainfall .34 inch. The river has been rising and is 14.6 feet.

Prediction: rain tonight and Tuesday. One year ago today there was a snow fall of 12 inches, the snow of the winter coming then.

The coldest weather so far was 29 degrees above zero. Will White, of this city writes from Monmouth, Ill., that it was 10 degrees below zero there, and he had frozen his ears already.

Oregon Counties.

Linn county was the sixth in population in 1850 and is the sixth now. The order then was: Marion, Washington, Clackamas, Yamhill, Polk, Linn, Benton, and Clatsop, the only ones organized. The order now is: Multnomah, Marion, Lane, Clackamas, Jackson, Linn, Washington, Umatilla, Douglas, Yamhill, Baker, Coos, Wasco, Union, Clatsop, Polk, Benton, Columbia, Josephine, Crook, Malheur, Klamath, Wallowa, Hood River, Tillamook, Grant, Lincoln, Lake, Morrow, Sherman, Harney, Gilliam, Wheeler, Curry.

Dry and Wet Counties.

There has been some inquiry as to what counties went dry and what went wet in the recent election. The record is given like this: Dry—Linn by 596, Coos by 17, Douglas by 432, Hood River by 139, Wheeler by 29.

Wet—Crook by 271, Gilliam by 117, Grant by 217, Klamath by 395, Lake by 72, Lincoln by 132, Malheur by 56, Morrow by 117, Sherman by 29, Tillamook by 311, Union by 462, Polk by 189.

Burgomaster Coming.

One of the most handsomely costumed musical plays on the road this season is Wm. P. Cullen's production of Pixley and Luder's greatest musical comedies "The Burgomaster." The costumes are of the most modern style. The large presenting company will be headed by Gus C. Weinburg the original "Burgomaster." This large organization will be seen Friday night.

Eugene Register—E. D. Hopkins, a prominent fruit grower who lives near Spokane, and who has been visiting J. B. Hopkins of this city, started home yesterday. His brother accompanied him as far as Halsey and Albany, where they will visit relatives.

TUESDAY.

THE CITY

ELECTION.

Simpson, Chambers and Snell Elected Park Bonds De-feated.

The election yesterday was a quiet affair, only 530 votes being cast, indicating that about that number did not vote at all.

The vote below will tell the story: COUNCILMEN. 1st ward—J. H. Simpson 106, Wm. Bain 54. Simpson's majority 52. 2nd ward—J. N. Chambers 81, Geo. Taylor 78. Chamber's majority 3. 3rd ward—R. D. Snell 127, G. M. Missall 84. Snell's majority 43.

Mr. and Mrs. Marks Home.

County clerk-elect W. L. Marks and wife arrived home this noon after a trip around the circle, going from here to Oakland, Calif., for a week's visit at Mr. Marks folks, then to Hannibal, Mo., for a visit with Mrs. Marks folks, a treat for both sides of the family, and then up to Chicago, where Miss Floss Nutting showed them the sights for one day, and then home on the Northern Limited in the fast time of three days. It was Mr. Marks first visit east and an enjoyable experience for both of them. While gone they never had to open their umbrellas and only saw snow from the car windows.

Married.

At the home of the groom's parents, 627 East 5th St., Monday eve, Dec. 5th at 7 p. m., Arthur E. Allen of this city and Bertha E. Thomas of Terre Haute, Ind., Rev. W. S. Gordon officiating using the ring ceremony in the presence of a few relatives and friends. A sumptuous repast was served, and it is interesting to note that some of the silver ware used was over two hundred years old, and engraved with an ancient English coat of arms. The happy couple will make their home in this city as Mr. Allen has a position with Albany Iron Works Co.

Naccabee Election.

Commander A. C. Wilson, Lt. Commander J. A. Cresswell, Chaplain A. A. Smith, Sergeant Chas. Dannels, Master at Arms Dan Moivre, 1st Guard Henry Bergman, 2nd Guard G. W. Goff, Sentinel William Cook, Picket Chas. School, Trustee 3 years, J. S. Van Winkle, Record Keeper M. Senders.

A battle was due today between the army of Diaz, 800 strong, and that of the revolutionists, 600 strong.

Daniel Webster, who represents the pickle district in the drummer's congress, has been in the city today.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry, of Indianapolis, Iowa, are in the city the guests of Rev. W. P. White, their former Iowa pastor.

There is a strong rumor that the Oregon Electric passenger depot will be at the corner of Broadalbin and Fifth streets.

George Glover, a son of Mary Baker Eddy proposes to contest for his mother's estate. That will certainly be sinful.

Portland's annual henfellow is now in progress. The hen is entitled to make a display of itself, a great money maker and a good friend on Sunday.

Rev. S. A. Douglas returned this noon from Char ester, opposite Lewis-ton, where he assisted his brother in special meetings for a couple of weeks.

The annual convention of life insurance presidents will be held in Chicago this week, an aggregation of the highest paid officials in the world, paid in directly by the people.

On Dec 14 Ashland will vote on an initiative petition to pay the mayor a regular salary of $125, so he may devote all his time to the office, making it his business. Getting certified. But perhaps it won't carry.

Register.—Junction was all ablaze with the electricity sent down from Springfield on Sunday night. The lack of a full supply of transformers prevented a complete illumination of Harrisburg, out part of that city was well lighted.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Rowell, of Portland, are in the city on a few weeks' visit. They have traded their rooming house and hotel holdings in Portland for some alfalfa land near Twin Falls, Idaho, and are now out of business for awhile.

COM. CLUB

Had a Busy Session.

The executive board of the Albany Commercial Club met last night with Pres. E. H. McCune in the chair, Sec. J. S. Van Winkle, Treasurer Wm. Bain, Dr. W. H. Davis, Wm. Eagles, J. R. Hulbert, E. A. Johnson, W. H. Marvin, M. Senders, George Taylor, P. A. Young.

Miss Harkness filed report of work for the month of November, as follows: Inquiries received from Portland commercial club 562; Chapman advertising 178; postal folder 56. Total 796.

Letters written 294; community book-lets mailed 346; postal folders 825. Collections for November $455.50. Chapman adv. for two months: 695 in-voices costing $113.30.

The secretary submitted a list of delinquent subscribers, showing but small arrears.

Request was made that the Club secure lantern for the use of Mr. J. C. Cooper, who will address the Club on Monday night next, on Oregon walnut culture.

A letter was read from M. W. Dresser stating that there was no Albany literature on file for distribution in any of the San Francisco information bureaus, and the secretary was instructed to send a supply.

A letter was read from J. F. Hetzler concerning proposition to move the Abaqua Lumber Co's mill and the secretary was instructed to take up the matter with them.

Letters of acknowledgment were read from Senators Chamberlain and Bourne.

In the matter of the dedication of the armory, it was decided to hold a special meeting of the Board with Gen. Finsler, to make arrangements.

Wallace R. Struble, late Manager of the Commercial Club, dropped in and addressed the Board in a pleasant vein.

C. C. Page, of the Herald, being present, spoke on the advisability of the Club taking energetically hold of the Meader-Cochran Press Factory proposition.

News from Albany's Six Early Trains.

Big Bill Walker arrived home from Tennessee, sometime after his brother, stopping on the way to visit friends. He failed to get a sight of the log house he was born in; but he saw many sights, the famous battlefield of Chancellorsville, where
