THURSDAY.
LIVE DANCE AT CRABTREE

A dance was given at Crabtree last night in honor of the marriage of Jas. Kinzer and Maud Paul. There is said to have been considerable booze around during the evening. Kinzer and Willie Foren had a quarrel, and decided to go out doors and settle it starting for the door with their revolvers, when Henry Kinzer, father of the young man, grabbed his arm and jerked it downward. The revolver was discharged and the bullet hit Kinzer in the thigh, going down into and through the calf of the leg, causing a long-scattering wound.

No arrests have been made yet.

Another Good One.
The May Roberts Co. excelled themselves in The 8th Commandment last night, for it called for the efforts of roadwork right acting as May Roberts and her husband Victor Gillard demonstrated in the intensity of the second act, that held the audience completely under control through the entire scene. It was a most difficult and consummate piece of acting. The Company were equal to the principals and worthy to support such artists, in fact, this is one factor in the May Roberts Co., the support is excellent.

Tonight a comedy comes up full of laughs namely Gloriana.
Mr. Girard made a timely curtain speech that made good with the audience, speaking of only giving plays worthy of his Company.

For Good Roads.
At the good roads convention in Portland $2,040,000 was recommended appropriated for roads, the state to pay $1 for every $2 spent by the different counties for roads, of the amount $630,000 to be taken from the state treasury. In order to get the appropriation, though, a county will have to spend $49,000, and the road to be selected by the county shall be a main road to the principal market center of the county. What will the legislature do?

I. R. Schults was in Eugene yesterday on insurance business.
A Benton county sale was Myrtle M. way to William D. Brown, 25 acres near Albany, $1.

There is not a telephone in the bank of Eugene. Messenger boys are used for everything.
A good Christmas present would be a volume of Sam Simmon's poems, which have arrived in town.

Dennison & McLaren, of Salem, have been let the contract for a new school house at Toledo, at $7,950.
The infant son of Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Blackburn died at Lebanon this week and was buried at this city.

J. J. Hill reached Portland last night and tells of the things people already know, railroad building in the N. W.
Prof. Jos. Shafer, of the U. O. left yesterday for Indianapolis to attend a meeting of the National Historical Society.

Mr. Sol. Baum, a native of Albany, has been in the city in the interest of the Portland Amusement Co. in charge of Dreamland.
The two boats that sunk up Alaska way are ones Franc Wood and family of this city, have been riding on for several years.

Benton county has an auto club with Walter H. Kline as president, Floyd Bogue secretary, and Grover Avery and Mark Rickard vice presidents.
Mrs. W. H. Worrell last night tendered a very enjoyable shower in honor of Miss Dora Worrell, who is soon to change her name to Flood, a fine affair.

$10.15 damage suit was tried before a jury of women at Olympia yesterday, causing a good deal of amusement. Every one tried to get out of the new duty imposed by their suffrage.
Centralia's increase in population is 356.9 for ten years, due it is said to promoting a railroad to the coast, which Centralia refused to take up. Chehalis, formerly larger, is now half the size of Centralia.

The Tuesday Club yesterday afternoon held a pleasant session at the beautiful home of Mrs. J. H. Simpson, a pioneer member of the Club. A fine time was had and the spread was particularly a good one.
Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Chambers have gone to California on an extended trip. They will stop off at San Francisco and then go to Los Angeles and other southern California cities, and if the insurgents will keep out of the way go over into Mexico.

R. B. Miller, a competent man, has been named traffic manager of the new Harriman merger covering Oregon and Washington. F. W. Robinson general freight agent, H. E. Lounsbury assistant, Wm. McMurry general passenger agent, J. M. Scott assistant, with headquarters at Portland, an enlargement of their field.

The travel Club met last night at the United Presbyterian parsonage and spent a pleasant evening in a trip with Stoddard to Rome, with Mrs. L. E. Hamilton as the reader and some pictures from Stoddard on the canvas. A lunch was served and a pleasant time socially had. Another trip will be taken a month later.

Mr. Alex Rennie, of Spokane, has been in the city today, on a visit with his brother-in-law, Byron Taylor, of the O. T. Co. He had been called to Minnville by the death of his father. Alex is a former Albany man, an old-time base ball player, afterwards residing several years in Corvallis, then going to Spokane, where he has been traveling for a big wholesale house for four or five years. He noted with interest Albany's decided improvement.

CITY COUNCIL
Makes Appropriation for a Carnegie Library

Present—Mayor, recorder, street superintendent, Councilmen Marshall, Chambers, Snell and Curf.
Bills allowed: The N. W. Co., $211.33; coke, $318; freight on coke, $55.78; hauling it, $30; J. A. Warner, $31.00; Woods Bros., $150; Herald, $4.50; John Catlin, $2; F. M. Supt. Ries reported several improvements ordered not made. Resolutions were ordered for enforcing the orders of the council.

Reports of the city and firemen's election were read, with the proclamation of the Mayor on the amendments adopted.

Notification of the county clerk of the city assessment exclusive of public utilities, at $3,188,975.

The report of the directors of the Albany Public Library was read. It showed total receipts of $1702.08 besides $297.03 received from the chrysanthemum show. There are 1108 books in the library and 260 more ordered. The average daily attendance at the library has been 78 on the days when opened, that a fine site worth $5,000 or $6,000 had been presented and that a Carnegie library costing $20,000 can be had upon an annual appropriation by the city council of a tenth, which can be met by a levy of 1-2 tenth of a mill.

Upon resolution a levy was ordered for 8 mills for general purposes, 6 1/2-10 of a mill for public library, and 2 mills for the armory.

The recorder was directed to make application to Mr. Carnegie for a library in conjunction with the board. Judge Hewitt, Dr. Ellis and Lucy Gard were reappointed directors by the Mayor and confirmed by the council.

The matter of location of lights and water hydrants was presented in a resolution and continued pending a few changes in locations.

News from Albany Six Early Trains.
Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Moyer and the mother of the former, arrived from Brownsville, on their way with Grant Pirle and family, to the Sandwich Islands, where they will spend the coming year, under the tropics.

W. H. Buoy, after spending the night with B. H. Boles and family, went to Brownsville on a business trip. Buoy and Boles were boys together at Philomath, both going into service for the Corvallis and Eastern, Buoy while ahead of Boles. He has now quit railroading and is making his home in Southern California.

Jack Latourette, now a Portland lawyer, after spending the night with Albany friends, on his way home from Eugene, left on the local. This year he was captain of the Multnomah, a born foot ball general.

S. S. Shupp left on a Portland trip. Distinguished Lebanon men arriving were S. P. Bach, L. P. Hubbs and S. M. Garland.
Mr. and Mrs. Collins, parents of Mrs. Ed. Wiles left for Southern California, where they expect to spend the winter. Tom Young went out to Lebanon.

Premiums Given Away Yesterday at the Sound to the Gong.
People are just beginning to appreciate the importance of the merchandise gifts at Chambers & McCune's store. It's the most interesting, exciting, and pleasing thing, ever presented by this or any other store. Every few minutes the gong rings and some lucky person gets a merchandise gift free. No scheme to hunt for it, the premium is simply handed to you. The lucky people yesterday were Mrs. Engle, Mrs. S. J. Lee, Mrs. Peacock, Mrs. Wilson, and Mrs. J. J. Collins, of Albany; Mrs. K. Merrill, Monroe; Mrs. Carter, Corvallis; Mrs. Booth, Turner.

Broken Idol Coming.
The Original Whitney production of "A Broken Idol" combines everything that goes to make a successful musical comedy. It will be at Albany, Wednesday, Dec. 21. A big company of fifty pretty girls that can sing and dance, wear fetching costumes and are really good looking. Principals that have gained a reputation in musical comedy, staged and produced by Gus Schick, who has staged more successful shows than all the other producers combined. The above is a hard combination to beat and spells success.

The river is 5.5 feet.
Prediction: occasional rain tonight and Friday.

A PORTLAND TRAGEDY

Portland, Dec. 14.—Surprising his wife and Andrew Mason, so he alleges, in a room in his home, George E. Chamberlain, proprietor of a moving picture show, tonight stabbed Mason to death. Chamberlain surrendered to the police and was held to answer on the charge of murder. According to a statement Chamberlain is alleged to have made to the police, he suspected his wife had an engagement with Mason for tonight. Instead of going to his place of business after supper, Chamberlain says he secreted himself, and after hearing Mason enter the house, followed him. Chamberlain claims to have found Mason in his wife's room, and when Mason drew a revolver, he attacked the intruder with a knife, inflicting the fatal injuries.

Benson's Duality.
Portland, Or., Dec. 14.—Governor Benson, of Oregon, had that honor thrust upon him by the election of former Governor Chamberlain to the United States Senate and he acts in the dual capacity of Governor and Secretary of State his former position. He has just been re-elected Secretary of State and his certificate of election was quite a document.

It showed that he had been elected over his opponent by a handsome majority, as duty counted by himself as Secretary, in the presence of himself as Governor, as provided by law. It showed further that the certificate was issued to himself by himself, and signed by himself as Governor and that signature attested by another signature signed by himself as Secretary of State. Truly his opponent has no chance at all.

A Great Peace Fund.
Andrew Carnegie now proposes to make an endowment of $11,500,000 to a peace commission to work for peace at all times between all nations, a great gift for a great purpose. He has already given away $179,500,000, money made through the policy of the U. S. congress, which has protected industries in the interest of trusts. The people are getting back from Carnegie and Rockefeller, who has given away $120,000,000, what belongs to them in a sense.

Woodmen of America.
There was the biggest attendance ever at a meeting of Woodmen of America last night, 105 members. A splendid banquet was served. The following officers were elected:
F. M. Powell, Consul.
J. C. Way, Adviser.
Wm. Bain, Banker.
Grant Froman, Clerk.
R. L. Burkhardt, Manager.
Robert King, Watchman.
Wm. Morgan, SENTRY.
Dr. Joseph Myers and Dr. W. R. Shinn, Physicians.

Death of Mrs. Miller.
Mrs. Catherine Miller died at 12:40 p. m. Wednesday, Dec. 14, at the age of 69 years.
She leaves six children: Mrs. A. Stewart and Mrs. C. Eisenbrandt of Superior, Wis., Mrs. L. Arnauld of Tacoma, John Miller of Hibbing, Minn., and Michael and Edward Miller of Albany.
The funeral will be held tomorrow morning at 10 a. m. from the Catholic church.

Bond Interest Rates.
Some Oregon bonds now on the market are: Springfield, at 6 per cent; $62,000 dist. 1 Clatsop county, 5 per cent; $10,000 dist. 2 Polk county, 5 per cent; $37,000 dist. 7 Josephine county, 5 per cent; $15,000 St. Helens, 6 per cent; $31,000 Forest Grove, 5 per cent; $5,000 Weston 5 1/2 per cent; $50,000 Port Sualaw, 5 per cent. These are mentioned to show the prevailing bond interest rate.

A Wreck at Portland.
There was a bad wreck yesterday just this side of the steel bridge at Portland. The airbrakes refused to work on the Spokane flyer and it crashed into the last two cars of a freight at the crossing, causing a terrific mix-up, wrecking the engine and a good many cars, but no one was seriously hurt, the engineer getting a small scalp wound.

The Furniture Hospital of L. T. Borin was closed in Justice Swan's court today by creditors, four asking attachments for sums amounting to $400 or $500, one the Stayton Excelsior Co., another the chair factory, and others. Mr. Borin says he has property to meet the claims.

There was also a charge against Mr. Borin by a Salem firm, on account of a check without funds in the bank, which was settled.

FRIDAY.
The Weather.
Range of temperature 48-36.
The rainfall last night was .30 inch, coming in a bunch.
The river is down to 5.1 feet. Not much snow in the mts. yet to keep it up.
Prediction: rain tonight and Saturday.

Another Implement house.
The large livery stable building, occupied by Al Peacock, at Second and Washington streets, has been rented by the Mitchell Staver Co. of Portland, dealers in implements and hardware. It will be entirely rearranged for the large business of this city concern.

FIRST B. B.

There were two interesting games of basket ball at the gym last night, enjoyed by a good crowd of young people. The first was between the sophomores and freshmen of the high school, and brought out some good talent. The sophomores had their own way and won easily 19 to 6. The lineups were:
Freshmen—Ellis C. Huston and Kidder forwards, Wickizer and Carnegie guards.

Sophomores—Looney and Abraham center, Bigbee, Holt and Parker for wards, Bruce and Birtchet guards.

The game between the Aco team and the college boys showed the former to be the making of a crack team when in training, well handed at every point. Practice for wind and team work is now needed. The score was Aco 48, college 16. The lineups:
College—Douglas and Dowlin forwards, Birten center, Hodgin and Hodge guards.

Aco—Stalnaker and Dooley forwards, Eugene Dooley center, Thrasher and Torbet guards.
W. L. Marks referee, Prof. Marquam time keeper. Anderson score.

A Balloon Effect.
Mystery of the deepest dye shrouds the working of the balloon effect in the musical comedy success, "A Broken Idol," which will be seen here next Wednesday night.

This effect which is said to be a great novelty, the best of its kind, is most carefully guarded. The audience sees a complete balloon leave the stage carrying Miss Perle Barti, far out over the audience in an aerial flight which lasts for over five minutes, but so far no one has been able to fathom its mechanism. It is said that no one excepting the men who operate it knows the secret, for the whole thing is accomplished in complete darkness, the only light being in the balloon itself.

Mrs. J. M. Ellison went to Shedd this afternoon for a few days visit.
C. N. McKey is building a cement tank at Granger on the C. & E.

The First Savings Bank of this city has applied for lost savings deposits.
Mrs. George Wilson, of Norton, left for home this afternoon after a visit at A. D. Barker's.

V. W. Robinett, John Davis and wife, and Miss Davis, were among Shedd people in town today.
Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Morgan and Mrs. Dr. Kitchin will leave tomorrow for Sandiego to spend the winter.

Lawrence McBride, an O.A.C. athlete, formerly of the Albany high school, came over this noon for a short visit.
Miss Nellie Morris yesterday lost her gold watch, which was fortunately found by an honest man, W. W. Green, and today she received it.

At a special election in Ashland the scheme to bond the city for $170,000 to rebuild the water plant was beaten, and also the one to put the mayor and councilmen on large salaries.

The picture of the Albany high school foot ball team has been published in the Oregonian after a tedious delay. They are the champion foot ball high school team of Oregon, the best in the state.

The members of the city council, with the mayor, today made a trip over the city, and agreed upon the location of the new lights and hydrants, which will be formally ordered at the next session, probably as agreed upon.

Mr. and Mrs. E. N. Beach, of Spokane, arrived this noon on a visit at the home of Mr. Beach's sister, Mrs. George, and with other relatives, here, while on their way to Los Angeles, for a winter's outing.

Geo. C. Ernst, of Aberdeen, Dak. arrived last night, with a view of buying property and locating. He is a friend of Wm. Bain, another former Aberdeen man, one of several splendid people who have come here from there.

Portland has another murder case that will be decided by the unwritten law. That of Andrew Massin, caught with the wife of George Chamberlain. Chamberlain will be cleared. These home wreckers deserve strenuous treatment.

Mr. Hill would not say when the Oregon Electric would be extended. He said it depended upon the people. That means if the people treat the company right it will go ahead. Perhaps he is waiting for the state legislature to meet.

Prof. L. R. Aldermann and family left Eugene last night for their new home in Salem, where Prof. Aldermann will soon begin his duties as state school superintendent, with prospects of making good, a clean man and an able educator.

A big Corvallis wedding this week was that of Ralph Reynolds of La Grands, an O.A.C. graduate, and Miss Vesta, daughter of President Kerr of the O.A.C., at the home of President Kerr. It was a swell affair, with a large number of guests.

The city council of Eugene last night let the contract to the Oregon Power Co. for 95 arc lights at $6 each, and $38 a month for incandescent lights in use in the city hall and other places. The contract is for one year, which accounts for the higher price per light.

Harrisburg had a city election Monday, the wets winning. Dr. Dole was elected mayor, T. J. Anderson recorder, Damon Smith treasurer, T. J. Stephens marshal, R. K. Burton, H. K. Sherrill, G. L. Scott, J. T. McMahan, J. G. Kelsey and R. W. Wright councilmen.
The transmission line builders of the Oregon Power Company are now working between Harrisburg and Halsey, pushing on towards Albany. The power has been turned on at Harrisburg, and the people are pleased with the service and the modern form of lighting their homes.

A family at Switzerland, near Suvereto, on the Woodburn-Springfield road is down with black small-pox, causing a good deal of concern along the road, as it is the most malignant of the numerous species of smallpox. Four have already died quickly. It was brought by the family from Mexico.

This is the chief requisite for making Perfect Bake Day Foods.

News from Albany's Six Early Trains.

Prof. J. G. Swan, superintendent of schools of Klamath county, a former deputy postmaster of this city, Albany college graduate, arrived on the early train and went to Lebanon, previous to attending the convention of superintendents on the 20th and the state teachers association, the following day, at Portland. He reported a better depot at Klamath Falls than here. Harriman spread himself down there on account of his lodge near that city. Klamath Falls has had fifteen inches of snow, but it was about gone when he left.

Prof. Kendall, the educationist left for Springfield, where he will give readings in an entertainment tonight. He is in demand all through the valley.

A. F. Zimmerman and family, residents of this county for a good many years, left for Vancouver, Wash., where they will run a ten acre garden tract out on R. F. D. 6. They are good people, and it is Vancouver's gain.

Hon. J. K. Weatherford went to Portland.
A. B. Banta went to Salem.
T. Wigram, the commercial traveler, once a resident of Albany for a few years, left for points north.

Mrs. Dr. Kavanagh and sister, Miss Minnie left for Portland on a visit with their sister, Mrs. Neal Murry, and to see the Christmas display.
Clyde Ward went to Salem.

Hon. L. H. Montanye, after a week's visit in Eugene, returned to Mill City, where he is residing with his daughter, Mrs. McLeod.

The May Roberts Co.

There was fun last night in the presentation of Gloriana at the Opera house. The May Roberts Company are good in whatever you see them.
But the great treat of the week is their presentation of 'Aid in Full', to be seen again tonight. Nothing better ever seen here.
