HARRISBURG.

From the Bulletin:
The new Masonic officers are: Arthur Carroll, W. M.; Orbin Lowell, S. W.; R. L. Weatherford, J. W.; Damon Smith, treasurer; Rex Davis, sec.; J. A. Bosserman, S. D.; B. S. Norwood, J. O.; T. W. Sommerville, S. S.; J. L. Norwood, J. S.; J. E. Bosserman, T. Mrs. S. A. Williams is the new W. M. of the Eastern Star.

Mr. and Mrs. F. O. Ensor of Albany spent Christmas with her sisters Mrs. Johnson, and Mrs. Wiley at the Harrisburg hotel. They departed for their home Monday accompanied by Master Leroy Wiley.

Mrs. Ben Williams has sold 265 acres of her large farm to Henry McVay of Nebraska who has taken possession. He has a family of seven children and is a wide awake tiller of the soil. The consideration was $55.00 per acre.

There is no longer any excuse of the people of Harrisburg holding back in their demands for a bridge across the Willamette river at this place. The cry of the enormous expense, not only of building, but of operating, has been relegated to the background. Harrisburg is the real head of navigation on the Willamette and has been for some time according to the official records of the War Department of the United States.

Got 18 Months.

A. L. Williams, the man arrested for using the U. S. mails for fraudulent purposes, sending fake orders to the Albany Nurseries, was tried and sent to the pen for 18 months. Today Mr. Pennebaker had nine or ten letters returned from the fake names furnished.

Acting-governor Jay Bowerman has appointed a superintendent of the branch asylum at Pendleton, which will not need a superintendent for a year or two, a sample of the Bowerman politics.

A DRY YEAR

Only 37.66 Inches of Rain at Albany During 1910.

The reliable record of F. M. French, displayman, for 1910, shows the following rainfall at this city, for the year, in inches:

January	6.54
February	6.82
March	1.83
April	1.89
May	1.75
June	1.16
July	.00
August	.08
September	1.22
October	2.64
November	10.04
December	3.89
Total	37.66

This is slightly below the average, and shows a dry year, with moisture at the right time and in the right quantity. The range of temperature for 24 hours was 42-85.

The river is now 5.4 feet. The prediction is: fair tonight and Sunday.

Reception to Young Clergyman

A reception was tendered yesterday evening at St. Mary's church to the Rev. Charles M. Smith, who has been assigned as assistant to Father Lane in the work of the local parish. The library rooms, which have been recently enlarged and neatly fitted up, were filled with members and friends of the church to wish well to the new minister in his work.

Father Smith is a native of Chicago and made his studies at the Jesuit University of Kansas City, later following a course of theology at Montreal. He has just been ordained.

Father Van Nevel remains in the service, making three here in charge of the work, over this church and organizations at Corvallis, Lebanon, Brownsville, Shelburn, Scio, Lyons and Jefferson.

Some Good Ones,

About as entertaining a moving picture program as Albany people have ever seen is on at the Empire, the famous Marconis in their wonderful aerial feats; a very fast and exciting cowboy story; Simple Charity, a biographical, with faces people like as well; the doings of a famous trick horse, full of comedy as well as horse intelligence, and a dog staturary posing scene, the cutest and best yet of its kind ever shown here.

The Best

Is none too good for you. We have the best all feature film for tonight and Saturday. Extra Big educational Feature. MEXICAN CENTENNIAL, Selig's. Special comedy. The Other Way, Pathe. High class drama: The Stolen Claim, Edison. MANAGER DREAMLAND.

Empire Photoplay

TONIGHT

"Simple Charity."—A beautiful Biograph drama. An old cigar maker, who becomes too old to work, his gray haired wife, and a charitably inclined (but as poor as the old people), young girl, make a story that brings tears to your eyes. The act of charity, though simple, is dramatic in its human appeal.

"The Facori Family."—A reproduction of acrobatic work which seems almost impossible. As one act after another is performed one is almost disposed to hold one's breath, it is so real, though only a picture.

"Cowboy Justice."—A sensational subject produced by the American Pathe Company. Thrilling in the extreme are the scenes of the lively chase that follows the holdup of a depot agent.

"A Four-Footed Pest."—The horse in this beautiful Vitagraph comedy is "Don Fulanda," the best educated horse in the world. A laugh all the time, by the tricks of this horse.

"The Statue Dog."—A dog posing is entirely out of the ordinary, and this wonderful Vitagraph dog makes you all laugh at his conceptions of human life.
