THIS MORNING

News from Albany Six Early Trains.

Herman Hecker went to Portland to attend the convention of National Wool Growers. His brother, B. J., went yesterday. This one is the best and most important national convention Portland has secured, a great gathering of men engaged in a great industry. Last year Hecker Brothers handled about eight thousand blooded bucks in Colorado, and are in close touch with the big industry.

Lawyers Weatherford and Sox went to Salem to argue the Calapooia Lumber Co's case, appealed from the circuit court, representing the two sides.

Lawyer Carl left on a legal trip to Dallas, where Judge Galloway is holding court, while Judge Kelley is looking after department one of the court at Salem.

Mayor Reeves, of Lebanon, left on a Portland business trip. Father Lane went to Portland. W. B. Blanchard came down from Brownsville.

Lawyer E. E. Wilson came over from Corvallis on a short morning legal trip. Mrs. Bates and daughter and niece, of Corvallis, left for Portland, on a visit at the home of Mrs. Bates father, Rev. Morrison. Her sister, Miss Maud, formerly of this city, is now with the O. R. & N. Co.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Sanders went to Lebanon. John Barrett went to Lebanon. Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Simpson left on a Portland trip.

Miss Edna Knotts, of the Ashland schools, left on a visit at Lebanon, where she formerly taught. She likes Ashland and her people, a healthy city and a fine place socially.

THE COLLEGE.

Albany College resumed work again after the holiday vacation of two weeks on yesterday morning at eight o'clock with nearly all of the students on hand.

Miss Laura Anderson, professor of German and presessor at Tremont Hall, returned Monday evening from a week's vacation in Seattle with friends of former student days.

Among the students returned from holiday visits to distant homes may be mentioned Amy Olmsted, Enterioria; Mary Coulter, South Bend; Wash; Gertrude and Hazel Young, Oakland; Ruth Smith, Wolf Creek; Arthur Jones, Myrtle Point; Harold Hoosier, Stanfield.

Three new pupils for the musical kindergarten class greeted Miss Houck on her return from her home in McMinnville.

Prof. and Mrs. Flo were bride and groom at the regular meeting of the Monday Club, Jan. 2. Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Winn entertained the club in their honor with a magnificent dinner of at least six courses and two big turkeys. Later occurred the club program and the presentation of the club's wedding gift.

The Coos and Curry County Club held a very enjoyable social meeting in Tremont Hall Dec. 28, and served light refreshments to a number of invited friends.

A unique series of Y. M. C. A. meetings was held in Harrisburg last Friday, Saturday, and Sunday, by a number of students from the Y. M. C. A.'s of the University of Oregon and Albany College, led by State Student Y. M. C. A. Secretary Dalzell and Secretary Brown of U. of O. The religious series was preceded by a basket ball game Thursday evening, in which a local team defeated the Y. M. C. A. men 20 to 13. The Sunday meetings were a morning union service in the M. E. church, South, a boys' meeting 3 p. m. and a men's meeting in the theater at 3:30, and a very large union meeting in the Methodist church in the evening. Arthur Dodge and Louis Jones were U. of O. A. C. and Willamette University, led by State Secretary Rhodes.

ARMORY DEDICATION TO-NIGHT.

Albany has a military aspect today. Capt. Hammell, Maj. Ellis, Maj. Winn and others are out in uniform, meeting those coming to the convention this afternoon, and the dedication services tonight. Ten or twelve Eugene men, headed by Captains Hammond and Williams, arrived this morning. This noon a good sized crowd arrived from the north, and, as well Mrs. Hinges, who is to sing.

The program will be informal. Mayor Wallace will preside and welcome the crowd. The splendid O. A. C. band, which has patriotically tendered its services will play. Mrs. Hinges will sing and there will be remarks from prominent men present, prominent military men being Col. Whistler, Capt. Lacey of the regular army, Col. Jackson, Col. Williams, Maj. Settlementier, Capt. Welch, Capt. Knapp, Capt. Hammond, Lieut. Buchanan and others from outside points. Albany people should be there and fill the seats.

Basket Ball on Skates.

An interesting game was played last night between the Albany and the Scrubs, at the rink, fast and snappy, something doing all the time, showing some decidedly expert skating, as well as basket throwing.

The former won easily 31 to 5. The lineups were:
Albany—L. W. Miller, C. H. H. Bee son capt., and C. Conn forwards, E. Horskay and T. Gilchrist guards. Scrubs—V. Engstrom c. M. Marshall and W. Anderson forwards, Metzger and Eklund capt., F. Horskay referee.
Thursday night at Corvallis the Albany will play Corvallis and on Tuesday night of next week Junction a return game at this city.

Interesting Meetings

Evangelist Violet is attracting attention at the Christian church where he is conducting nightly meetings. The audience is constantly increasing in size and the interest is becoming more intense. Mr. Violet is a fluent and forceful speaker and a decided success as a leader of song. Nine persons have already entered the fellowship of the congregation and others have declared their intention to do so. The church feels that no series of meetings it has ever conducted has started with better promise of satisfactory results. Service every evening at 7:30. Everybody welcome.

The Power Line.

Albany is now the headquarters for work on the new Springfield-Albany power line. The line has reached Halsey and will be here in thirty days. About the fifteenth, though work will be carried on from this end south. When completed the line will be used as a reserve power until the permanent power plant on the McKenzie is erected, and there will be no more steam, water operating when running properly.

Another Junius.

A poem of a somewhat striking character appeared this morning on the doorsteps and under the front doors of business places. It recites the transformation of the corner at 4th and Lyon streets from a church building, where peace and love ruled to an armory in the interest of war, man and man. As a matter of fact the National Guard is a protection, the members of it never going to war except as a protection to their country, a safe guard and a very patriotic institution.

A Little Girl's Accident.

Josephine Ralston, the little daughter of J. H. Ralston, met with a bad accident yesterday afternoon at Mr. Ralston's electric supply store. She was playing around when she got her arm into an electric wringer, into which it was hauled up to the elbow, bruising it in a serious manner. In order to get the arm out the wringer had to be broken to pieces.

Born

On Jan. 2, 1911, at St. Mary's Hospital, to Mr. and Mrs. William Eagles, a girl, weight 11 pounds, their second daughter and third child. All doing well.

At the end of another busy and successful year, we take advantage of the opportunity to send you our most cordial greetings. We are more than ever grateful for the many valued favors you have so kindly entrusted to us, and wish to take this means of thanking you. The closing year has been a prosperous one generally, in this as well as other lines of business. We have done all in our power, through hard work and conscientious dealings, to get our share, and hope that you have not been slighted. Wishing you prosperity, health and happiness.

TO-NIGHT.

The Time, The Place and the Girl

This popular comedy, with music, will appear at the opera house tonight, positively beginning at 8:30 o'clock. The company is already in the city ready for their program. They were in Corvallis last night and made a hit before a large audience.

Besides being full of humor and song, with bright costumes and good scenery, there is a plot running through the play that keeps one's interest.

Another Uncle Sam Man.

L. F. Smith, Tangent, was an Albany visitor today. He has been in charge of Tangent R. F. D. No. 1 for nine years, since it started, and is next to David Shearer, in the county in the time of service. Mr. Smith has also the distinction of having been a subscriber to the Democrat for over forty years. He deserves continued prosperity and happiness.

Four Generations.

The Oregonian gives a fine picture of four generations of the Schultz family of this city. R. Schultz, aged 80 heads it. His son H. R. Schultz is 51, his son I. R. Schultz is 25 and his son Herman is now 9 months old. The record of this prosperous family is a good one.
