RURAL LIFE

Discussed at Commonwealth Convention.

Eugene, Or., Jan. 13.—The third annual commonwealth conference began this morning at 9 o'clock in Villard Hall. The first speaker introduced by President Campbell was Clara H. Waldo, of Portland, member of the board of Regents at O. A. C., ex-Lecturer State Grange. Mrs. Waldo took for her subject "Steps in the Development of an Ideal Rural Community in Oregon." She began her discussion by stating the fact the proportion of people living in cities had increased from 3 to 35 per cent in the last hundred years in U. S. This fact has caused such men as Roosevelt and Hill to raise the cry "Back to the land."

The speaker divided the farmers into two general classes: the first, young people, men especially, who were leaving the farm for the cities where greater possibilities were afforded. The second, retired farmers who were moving to town to end the rest of their days in "restless content." "that country life must be reorganized," she said that the farmer did not need reorganization, for he had never been organized. What he needed was organization. Here Mrs. Waldo brought forth the community plan as followed in Europe, where the farmers live in country villages. She spoke at length defending her stand on the rural community question then gave up the floor to H. A. Darnall, of Gresham, Lecturer State Grange, who led the discussion opened by her address.

Mr. Darnall favored the plan as regards to roads and highways stating that he believed in fewer and better roads than was now the custom. He opposed the community system generally, however.

L. R. Alderman, state school supt., followed Mr. Darnell. Mr. Alderman favored rural organization, saying that he believed that the ruin of country people would only be stopped by better conditions being offered in the country. Mr. Alderman said that there was at present thirty dollars spent for each pupil in the city where there was thirteen dollars spent for each pupil in the country.

"More money for the rural schools is what is needed," stated Mr. Alderman in concluding.

Principal J. B. V. Butler, of Monmouth, concluded the morning session by a paper on "Responsibility of the Normal School for Rural Life Uplift."

The Washington legislature is trying to do away with the death penalty.

DOINGS OF THE WORLD

Great Falls, Mon., went backwards a thousand in ten years.

St. Johns has 4872. It is about time Portland gobbled it up.

Portland has now gotten ahead of Seattle in clearances, with a record in gains.

The receipts of the Ashland P. O. last year were $13,174, which is $6,500 less than those of the Hub.

Reno, the famous prize city arena has more than doubled in population in ten years and now has 10,867.

The high school basket ball team was to play Mt. Angel this afternoon and tonight will play the strong Woodburn team.

The city council at Stayton has granted saloon licenses to Stephen Polreis, Thomas Riggs, Andrew Cornish, and E. T. Matthieu.

An Albany man at Harrisburg reports 11 inches of snow on the level there, while at Albany about four was the most at one time, showing a somewhat peculiar freak of the snow king.

William Lai, the Chinese singer of the U. O. recently refused a vaudeville offer, has reconsidered and with Harry Ding, the other Celestial, may go on the stage.

A test vote in the senate on direct vote for U. S. senators resulted in favor of the proposition yesterday. Perhaps the plutocrats see the handwriting on the wall set in motion through the Oregon plan.

During the year 1910 there were 216 cases of typhoid fever in Portland and 47 deaths, 368 cases of diphtheria and 44 deaths, 631 cases of scarlet fever and 23 deaths, 889 cases of measles and 3 deaths, 40 cases of small pox and no deaths, 152 cases of chicken pox and no deaths.

PECULIAR JUVENILE CASE.

A Peculiar case was started before Judge Duncan, sitting as a Juvenile court, this afternoon. Four children of Mary E. Sharp, of Brownsville, Edna Purdy, aged 12, Darrell Sharp, aged 4, Delforen Sharp, aged 3 and Baby Watkins aged 7 months. Sheriff Smith served the papers last evening and Deputy Sheriff Henry Blakely, brought them here this afternoon, together with the mother, who last night, after being subpoenaed, escaped to Halsey, where she was held until today. The children were barefooted and ragged, though the mother had over $500 in the bank.

The first husband died several years ago and she was married to Richard Sharp, from whom she separated according to a complaint for divorce filed June 1908, in Jan. 1907. The case is pending yet. The children will probably be sent to the boys and girls home.

A Peculiar Portland Fact.

A very striking fact in reference to Portland is that during 1910 there were only 203 building permits for residences on the west side, and 3125 on the east side, and of these over fifty per cent were in three additions, Holladay, Irvington and Rose City Park, all restricted. $7,227,840 was spent on new residences, an average of about $2,000, indicating that with the fine homes a good many cheap ones are built.

Mrs. Mary Ann Denny, wife of the founder of Seattle recently died in that city. She left property valued at a million.
