TOMORROW'S DOINGS.

Christian.—The series of meetings conducted by Evangelist Violet are proving a decided success. Mr. Violet is a success as a singer as well as a preacher. Fine audiences and deep interest characterize the meetings. Thirty-two persons have so far united with the church. These meetings will continue until Jan. 25th at least. Mr. Violet will preach tonight on "The Value of a Soul," and Sunday night on "The Old Time Religion." Bible school begins Sunday morning at 10:15. The church earnestly invites the public to hear this gifted evangelist while he is in our midst.

Only Seven Over 5,000.

According to the census figures there are only seven cities in Oregon with over 5,000 population. They are: Portland 207,214, Salem 14,094, Astoria 9,599, Eugene 9,009, Medford 8,840, Baker 6,742, Ashland 5,620. This means that Albany with its 6,129, Pendleton, Corvallis and Roseburg are all below 5,000 under the government census.

FOR SALE, REAL ESTATE.

80 acres, situated 3 miles from Albany, good house and barn, nice young orchard, 2 acres of oak timber, balance of land in cultivation, 40 acres of which is the best apple land in Oregon. This is a bargain and is a desirable home.

Good 7-room house, and 4 acres of land, situated in the suburbs of Albany, just the place to have your own garden and keep your cows and chickens. 20 minutes walk from First St. If you would like a home like this look this up and be quick about it.

Good new 8-room house, one lot, telephone and electric lights. West Albany. A snap.

I would say to investors, I am not promoting any land schemes, but do a straight real estate business, and if you wish to buy it will pay you to investigate what I have to offer. Call personally at my office and consult the old Reliable Real Estate dealer, J. V. PIPE, 203 West Second Street. No information by phone.

MISFITS.

Oh, Mr. Chinook, please come a whooping.

The Eddy estate is now the center of a fierce series of law suits.

Friday was the thirteenth of the month, and it has been figured out that it ought to be a lucky day, because two negatives make a positive.

The people watch our state legislature very closely, and there will be something doing if it doesn't attend to business.

A few days of cold with fine days, isn't much like months of it, with the mercury hiding at the bottom of the thermometer.

Carrie Nation is reported very ill at her home in Arkansas. She has nervous prostration. You don't have to hunt around to find how Carrie stands on the temperance question.

A couple business men slipping along First street this morning were heard to sing: "In the good old summer time, walking along the shady lane, with the roses all around." No arrests.

A Chicago man has been discovered with a harem of thirteen girls. He had a cult of his own. The Absolute Temple was the name of his place. The police have made an absolute wreck of the Temple.

Jay Bowerman, it is said, is preparing to express his opinion about President Selling and his remark about machine politics. Oregonians have already expressed their opinion about Bowerman in the most scathing manner, through the ballot. He should shut up.

The Albany Democrat says: "Eaton, of Eugene, has been pretty well eaten up by the house already." If a newspaper would get off a pun like that at our expense there would surely be a libel suit for a million dollar damages filed in a hurry.—Eugene Register. If Editor Fisher will drop the er on his name we will see how much our digestion can stand.
