MEISER & MEISER

GREAT ANNUAL CLEARANCE SALE

Continued One More Week. Ending Saturday, January 28th

Before taking stock we expect to close out every odd lot and broken line in this store if low prices will do it. Stop and think if there is anything in this Big Store that you ought to have now or will need before long. Figure out just how much you can save by taking advantage of these opportunities.

We buy when prices are lowest—you should do the same. There is only one more week to buy at these prices, but that doesn't necessarily mean that all the special lots will last until the last day. The best bargains are here now.

IN THE CLOAK AND SUIT DEPARTMENT.

It is unnecessary for us to explain the class of suits and coats sold here for the reputation of this department is known all over this section of Oregon.

We have no old suits to offer you, every suit new this season and the only difference between them and the spring suit, is that the coat is a little longer. You can buy suits worth up to $17.00 for $8.95, suits worth up to $19.50 for $9.85, suits worth up to $22.00 for $12.65, and suits worth up to $24.00 for $13.95.

DOINGS OF THE WORLD

The Lane county levy has been placed at 10 mills.

Vancouver, Wash., has an apple tree that has borne apples for eighty years, it is claimed.

A band of mad coyotes rushed into Durkee in eastern Oregon yesterday biting and snapping.

Ashland is advertising for bids for a new high school building. A Reno, Nev., architect furnished the plans.

Springfield last night defeated Cottage Grove on the labor union question, having the affirmative.

Theodore Roosevelt, the great lion hunter and statesman, will be in Portland in April, spending a day there.

Congress will appropriate about $28,000,000 under the rivers and harbor bill and the N. W. will be provided for.

J. O. Anderson and Edith Alexander, of Polk county, were married this week. The bride is a niece of H. W. McMurry of this city.

W. S. Holcomb, city recorder and justice of the peace, has opened a job office in Brownsville, and will soon be another Rockefeller.

Among the mid-winter graduates of the Lincoln high school, Portland, Feb. 1 will be Miss Medora Welch Steele, formerly of this city.

At Eugene last night Lebanon lost in the debate on the educational test for immigrants, having the negative. The question was too one sided for a fair debate, in every instance the affirmative winning.

Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Morse, of Eugene, have returned from a trip in which they were in every state in the union but three, N. H., Mass., and R. I. Now we wonder how they got to Me. without Mass.

President Campbell of the U. O., who graduated from Harvard University just 25 years ago this year, is to be grand marshal of the commencement exercises next June, in full charge of the ceremonies, a great honor.

The Mitchell-Lewis & Staver Co., not being able to secure the livery stable building have rented the old armory building and will establish a branch house here with J. C. Hessel as manager, for the sale of implements and hardware.

Jack the Grabber, of Eugene, has written the Guard a letter saying that all he was after was to show young ladies that they should keep off the streets nights, what a dark place Eugene is and what a poor police force the city has.

One of the debaters on the Lebanon team last night was Lurline Brown. In the morning in going to the train to see the Lebanon team start for Eugene she fell and broke one of her arms. It was set and the plucky girl appeared and made a good debate anyway.

Mr. and Mrs. William Kerby on Woods Creek, in Benton county, had a thrilling experience about 1 o'clock Thursday morning. A dam gave away and the flood rushed directly into their house sweeping through it, and them out of bed. They managed to keep above the water, though, and were rescued by neighbors.

At Harrisburg.

Rex W. Davis, a former commercial traveller, has been elected foreman of the fire company at Harrisburg. Blain Colburn assistant, M. D. Morgan secretary, Dick Wright treasurer, C. L. Morris chief and Glen Holt assistant.

The city council has put a license of $15 quarterly on picture shows.

F. W. Blomberg has sufficiently recovered from his recent illness to be at his home again.

LEGISLATIVE DOINGS.

The insane asylum committee after investigation has made some strenuous recommendations for reduction of the estimates of Dr. Steiner, the superintendent, and a war is on.

A committee has been appointed to investigate the Eastern Oregon asylum site.

$140,000 is asked for the state fair, mostly for new buildings. That will have to be knifed a little.

Benton county has a salary bill up, making numerous changes.

A bill by Malarky provides for abolishing the office of state dairy and food commissioner, a bone of contention.

Senator Barrett has a bill for licensing itinerant drug vendors at $100 a month.

The house committee recommends $150,000 for improvements on the capitol building and grounds.

Hollis has a bill providing for a new office, a fire marshal at a salary of $2,000, with several deputies. Perhaps it will get the knife.

Last night adjournment was had to Monday, to enable the printer to catch up on what the legislature has not done.

A Good One from Alberta.

A letter received at the Commercial Club rooms today from Stavely, Alberta, is a good one. After studying the booklets from fourteen Commercial Clubs all over Oregon he selected Albany as the place he wants to go and will be here with his wife and seven children, as law abiding as any in the world, in June. He is tired of 52 degrees below zero and frozen grain.

Harrisburg's Proposed Bridge

In a letter in the Harrisburg Bulletin Commissioner Butler favors a bridge across the Willamette at that city.

Albany has a $48,000 bridge, Jefferson a $42,000 one, Stayton a $35,000 bridge, Lebanon one costing $20,000, Brownsville $15,000 and Scio a steel bridge, hence Harrisburg is entitled to be heard.

"The Climax,"

By Edward Locke, will be offered by a splendid company at the opera house on Jan. 26. This play tells an interesting story in three powerful acts. The company is one that is made up from the best talent available in New York, in other words neither money nor expense have been spared in making this attraction one of the best traveling.

If You Delight in Song; If You enjoy the Inspiration of Music; If You Appreciate the Art of the Masters; If You Seek Entertainment DON'T FAIL TO ATTEND

THE RECITAL

To be Given under the Auspices of the Albany Military Club. Postponed from Wednesday, January 18, to Thursday, January 26.

Pauline Miller-Chapman, Mr. M. L. Bowman, Mr. William R. Boone, will appear.

These artists will afford an unusual opportunity to musicians and music lovers, a brilliant, satisfactory and delightful entertainment for all classes of amusement seekers, to hear a superb recital at the Armory.

On account of the usual church service of this evening the opening of "Recital" will be at 8:30 P. M. and Mrs. Chapman and Mr. Bowman will render a sacred number in addition to the regular program.

Doors open 7:45. Admission $1.00. Recital 8:30. Remember the Date, Jan. 26.

TONIGHT

"The Attack on Fort Ridgley."—A good reproduction of what occurred during an unexpected uprising of the Sioux Indians. A pretty romance running through.

"The Woman of Samaria."—A colored reproduction of the Bible story of Jesus and the Woman of Samaria at the well. A beautiful conception of the old story portrayed as vividly as life itself, and as correctly presented as imagination can make it.

"Right in Front of Father."—A snappy comedy which represents the serious obstructions to the course of true love, in the strenuous objection of both fathers. "Love finds a way," and the laugh is on "father." Something unusual.
