

Last Call

THIS IS THE LAST CALL ON LOW PRICES. THEY ARE NOW AT THE VERY LOWEST EBB. THIS WEEK WILL SEE THE LAST OF OUR WINTER'S STOCK GO. WHAT NOW REMAINS WE SHALL SELL AT SUCH LOW PRICES THAT IT WILL PAY YOU TO BUY AND CARRY OVER UNTIL NEXT YEAR, YET, THERE IS MUCH OF WINTER TO COME. AND YOU CAN STILL GET HOME WEAR OUT OF THINGS YOU NOW BUY FOR SHORT PRICES. LAST CALL!

ALL SUITS, GOWNS and COATS at SEASON END PRICES

Some very choice values are still to be found in the TAILORED SUITS.

That we can fit you well and please you greatly even at this time of the year is almost an assured fact.

But the best part of all is THE SAVING that you will effect.

You are certain when buying a garment here marked down to HALF PRICE that that is EXACTLY what you are getting.

NO FICTITIOUS PRICES—NO EXAGGERATED VALUES—NO EXORBITANT CLAIMS do we permit. We have previously explained to you why we must clean them all at HALF PRICE—Yes, HALF PRICE brings them down to less than we paid for them but this much obtained from these suits and reinvested we think means more to us than to keep the SUITS.

We must keep our MONEY WORKING and the STOCK MOVING.

There is not a SUIT or COAT or GOWN in these reduced price garments but what will be worth to you much more than we now ask you to pay for them.

Lots of time yet to wear them. Naturally those coming first get the best selection.

SPECIAL MILLINERY PRICES

The majority of all HATS that remain have been placed under TWO PRICES. You know what that means.

These especially are we desirous of moving. These low prices will do it.

TWO GROUPS—SPECIAL AT—

98c and $1.48

A DOSE OF MODERN POLITICS.

A sample of the methods resorted to down at Salem by the gang recently defeated in the election, is reported in an interesting story about how Dr. Steiner gave a champagne banquet in honor of Gov. West soon after his election, at the expense of the state. When the facts were learned it transpired that there had indeed been a feast, that there were ladies and gentlemen present, that the men paid for the banquet themselves out of their own pockets and that absolutely no liquor of any kind was drunk, both in deference to Gov. West, who is a total abstainer, and the ladies present. This gang is gradually cutting its own throat and hanging itself with a rope made by itself. And Oregonians are being given a dose of modern politics.

SENATOR MILLER FOR THE PEOPLE.

Senator M. A. Miller, of this county, as in the past state legislatures, continues to land on both feet. In rapid succession he whacked the secretary of state for filling an office he cannot attend to, opposed bills adding more officials, when we already have too many, and declared a $75 clerk could do all the work of the tax commission for which the state pays five men. It is the business of a member of the legislature to look after the interests of the people the same as he would the interests of a business man he was working for, and it is gratifying to know that Senator Miller is doing his best with the odds against him.

BREEZES.

By a Washington Man.

A Utah woman says polygamy is the only remedy for divorce. The general public then will prefer the disease to the remedy.

We hope the "Houston Post" will not throw a fit when it hears that the battleship Texas is to be used as a target.

Chauncey Depew says "the country needs more statesmen and fewer carpenters." Also fewer joke-smiths. New York seems to have decided.

Watch for the millionaire twenty years hence who will tell you he got his first start by depositing his savings in the U. S. postal savings bank as a little boy.

Mr. Harriman left a daughter who is occupied now in raising sheep. This is a great improvement over the usual millionaire's son, who as often raises—well, other things besides sheep.

The prospective reduction in the senate of the Republican majority from twenty-seven in the present congress to eight in the next congress indicates the probability of complete control of the United States senate and government by the Democratic party after the election of 1912.

FOR SALE.—One lot third from the corner of Cottage and W Ninth, tent house and well on it and bushes. Inquire at the place. J. R. Morgan 13

PERSONAL

Chas. Childs, of Brownsville, was in the city today.

C. E. Kestler, of Breckenridge, Colo., has been in the city.

Kenton Merrill is in Portland on a visit with his mother.

Frank Davidson, of Portland, is up on a visit at Mr. Bending's.

Mrs. Waldo, of the O. A. C. board of regents, went to Corvallis this afternoon.

Del Miller, who has been under care at the hospital several months, has been taken down with scarlet fever.

The Bible club of the M. E. church met with Mr. Tom Young last night in a pleasant social session.

Frank W. Woodmansee, of San Francisco, is in the city on a visit at the home of his cousin, Mrs. L. A. Munkers. Miss Vesta Eastburn will remain in the store of Ragan & Laughhead, successors to W. A. Eastburn, as clerk. She is quite popular and a very efficient clerk.

Eugene will have a mass meeting tonight to consider the commission form of government. It will be submitted to a vote of the people at the election in April.

J. C. Hammel returned last night from Crook county, accompanied by his son. He was eighty miles below Prineville, and formed a good impression of the dry farming prospects there, believing there is a big future in it for the country.

Miss Belle Chance, of the Portland schools, arrived home this noon for a visit during the mid-winter vacation. She finished the work of the old term this morning, caught the Salem through Oregon Electric at 9:15, 45 minutes after the noon S. P. train, got into Salem in time to catch it, reaching here at 12:05.

The Coming Grand Opera

A great deal of interest has already been aroused in the coming high class musical entertainment by the American Troubadours. We are also called the Grand Opera Sextette. Mr. Scott Woutton of Quebec is the Director of the company. Mr. and Mrs. Clark Mounts of Washington, D. C., are the tenor and soprano. The other members of the company are Elsie Claverone, mezzo-soprano; Lloyd A. Carpenter, baritone; Gertrude L. Corey, contralto and Henri Lambert, bass. Part one will consist of selections from "Aust", and will include dower song, the flower song, and the prison scene. Part three will be the sextette from Lucia. These are the best of Grand Opera. The second part will consist of scenes from famous English operas, such as The Chimes of Normandy, The Pirates from Penzance, &c. The sale of seats began today at Woodworth's. More than half of all the seats available in the opera house will be taken by holders of season tickets. The five hundred others in Albany who are fond of good music will engage their seats early or to the chance of standing.

Try our hot noon luncheon, at the Mission Parlors.
