REAPPOINTED POSTMASTER.

J. S. Van Winkle has been reappointed postmaster of this city, by the president. He has now served Albany with splendid ability for almost four years, and his reappointment will give universal satisfaction. These four years have seen a wonderful growth in the receipts of the office. The next four years will see Mr. Van Winkle officiating in a new and modern post office building at the corner of Second and Broadalbin, in securing which he has taken an active interest.

Albany Beat Silverton.

The Albany high school boys last night defeated the crack Silverton basketball team 30 to 29 in a sensational game, one of the hardest the team has had this season. Silverton has claimed to be champion, hence the victory is a striking one. Two minutes before the end of the game the score was 29 to 24 in favor of Silverton, when the Albany boys, with cyclonic speed made three baskets in rapid succession and landed the victory by a margin of one point.

The New Sub Station.

The Oregon Power Co. has just received three transformers for the new substation. Each weighs 5,000, and all will furnish a 2000 horse power, sufficient for a city of 10,000 people. It will take three days to move one of them to the station. The station will be working by April 1 and will mean a good deal for the lighting business here.

Another Alarm at Lebanon.

Another alarm of fire frightened Lebanon people this morning. Between 4 and 5 o'clock fire was discovered in the floor of the concrete building next to the site of the Lebanon Hotel, having caught, and an alarm was turned in, the flames soon being extinguished.

Empire Photoplay Theatre TONIGHT

"The Lad from Old Ireland."—The much heralded production of the Kalem house, which sent its stock company to Ireland last summer to obtain the Irish scenes. The chief interest lies in the beautiful scenery, but the story is one that fills your heart with sympathy and tenderness. One of the successes of this famous company.
"Gratitude."—A story of the red man and a miner in which gratitude for favors plays an important part. The scenes are perfect, and the story a good one.
"The Rival Barons."—A story of the Middle Ages, when swashbuckling barons stole women whenever they chose and carried them away to be prisoners in their castles. An immensely good picture.
"An Alpine Retreat."—An unusually attractive panorama of mountain and lake scenery, showing Gersaw and the Lake of Uri, Switzerland.
Miss Crosno, singing, "The Longer We're Together, dear, the harder it is to part."
Complete change tomorrow.
Don't forget "Il Trovatore," coming soon.
Admission 10 cents.

DREAMLAND THEATRE

TONIGHT

The Vampire.—A society drama, this is exceptionally fine film, holding your attention from start to finish.

Liabon.—Before and during the late revolution, a picture showing the actual maneuvers during the strife, also King Alfonso and Queen Victoria of Spain. Scenes in Norway.

Francisco Di Remini.—A love story of the Medieval times, produced by the famous Vitagraph company.

Mr. Woods singing, "I can feel your kisses now."

Matinee each afternoon at 2:30.

100 MILES OF HILL ROAD.

Portland, Feb. 3.—This evening rails on the Oregon Trunk line will have been laid to the 100 mile post, at a point near Kilner station. Twelve more miles and the track will beat Madras. Thirty-five miles from Madras is Bend and it is expected to have the rails to that town by the middle of May or the first of June.

Excellent progress has been made all winter by the tracklaying crews, the average distance covered each day having been two miles. It was hoped to cover one and a half miles, so that the progress exceeded expectations.

Traffic will be opened to Madras early in the spring, connections with the North Bank road to be made by means of the ferry.

THE SCHOOL MASTERS.

A meeting of the Linn County Schoolmaster's Club was held at the court house today with President Briggs in the chair, and among the principals are Prof. Bradley, of the Albany schools, Miss Anna Young of Plainview, H. L. Robe of Brownsville, Prof. Stotter of Lebanon, D. G. Crow of near Lebanon, J. N. Bilyeu and J. N. Green of Crhbtree, Rev. Gilchrist of Oakville, Superintendent Jackson, Dr. Sheburn of the U. O., Dr. Franklin and Prof. Finnerty.

Supt. Jackson conducted a round table on legislation, the teachers favoring certificate bill 101 of the senate, and the supervision bill, which has passed the house.

Prof. Stotter spoke on giving credit to the blackboard student for the work he really does. Prof. Bradley on a revision of the course of study, and the question of making book contracts for eight years, reducing the number of holidays, eighth grade examinations and school libraries, were up for discussion.

The Oregonian

The fiftieth anniversary number of the Daily Oregonian appeared this morning, a creditable production speaking for the splendid progress of the paper, and as well the field in which it is published. The Oregonian's morning edition was established April 4, 1861 at a momentous period in the history of the country. For many years it was just a small folio of six columns. The Democrat has a year's file of the paper of 1883, when it had not yet grown beyond the folio age, and Portland was then a city of 20,000, but the coming years saw great strides. It has always covered the news field with faithfulness and efficiency. Harvey Scott put great editorial life into the paper, but it was materialistic, and the paper in matters moral has always failed to come up to the standard called for; but as a news paper it ranks among the best in the country.

COLUMBIA FLOUR, hard wheat made, makes splendid bread and more of it. At all the leading stores.
