THURSDAY. INTO THE SUBURBS.

A petition up before the county court for a new road is significant of the manner in which Albany's suburbs will now be cut up into streets and highways. W. K. Price and others want a road in extension of Hill street, same width, reaching out through the fields to the main road, parallel, with the road in extension of Jackson street. E. M. Mitchell, C. S. Mullen and Surveyor Geddes were appointed viewers and the road will undoubtedly be built as asked for.

This means that some of the splendid lots in that suburb will be put on the market, offering a fine suburban residence district.

The College Recital.

Another fine program was heard last night, at the Presbyterian church, in the annual conservatory recital, developing some excellent talent, and speaking for the splendid training of the conservatory. In very competent hands. Those taking part were: Ethel Cheever, Arthur Hodges, Mary Parker, George Strine, Hazel Pearce, Lulu Jacobs, Mrs. D. Davis, Madeline Rawlings, Della Johnson, Hazel Young, Mary Conter, Ruth Smith, Buena Becknell, Eunice Luper, Golda Yates, Ina Hansen, Gertrude Young and Louise Letherman, in solos, and Golda Yates and George S. Strine in a duet.

This afternoon at 4 o'clock the closing program was presented by the following: Margaret Gibson, Chas. Fortmiller, Miss Houck, Magnolia White, Hazel Young, Janet Dawson, Franklin Miller, Cora Webber, Nela Wheeler, Merle Briggs, Mary Coulter, Buena Becknell, Ruth Fisher, Ruth Smith and Anna Dawson.

H. M. Myer, of Scio, was in the city.

T. H. Goddard, of Mill City, was in the city.

H. V. Pendleton, of Stayton, has been in the city.

S. G. Irvine came over from the ocean this noon.

A. H. Eilers, the piano man, of Portland, has been in the city.

Silverton has just voted $75,000 for water and sewer bonds, about 4 to 1.

A man went along the street with a sign under his arm, reading Putman Restaurant.

Roy Newport returned this noon from Newport, where he had been on a short business trip.

Judge McFadden, the sage of the Benton county bar, arrived this noon on a short business trip.

William Frazier, the Portland horse buyer, and ex-sheriff of Multnomah county, has been in the city.

Mrs. Carsons, of Snonomish, Wash., left for home this morning after a visit at the home of L. O. Coates.

A bill in the state legislature provides for quarterly collection of taxes. It will probably fail to pass.

Some dynamite being transferred at Jersey City to a vessel exploded yesterday and seven men were killed.

Miss Florence Ellis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Ellis of Portland, is up on a visit with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Kiefer.

Fred Carlyle, who trained Albany students for several plays, is now in Medford preparing the Military girl, which he gave here.

Mrs. Fluelia Turner, after a visit at the home of her daughter, Mr. W. L. Marks left this noon for Marshfield, to resume mercantile life in the metropolis of Coos.

Rev. Geselbracht went to Lebanon this afternoon, accompanied by Dr. B. Wallace, to visit Rev. McCully of the Presbyterian church, who is reported seriously ill.

Portage beat Medford 41 to 17. Medford's defeat was due to the fact that when the ball struck the edge of the basket it rolled off, while the Portage throw rolled in.

The combination of Grand Opera and English Opera presented by the Grand Opera Sextette is a rich and varied musical treat. They will delight a very large audience tomorrow night.

William Butcher, a brother of Butch, of the Bruce and Anderson shop, arrived this week from the east and expects to make his home here. He likes the looks of things so far.

The fact should be emphasized that the Grand Opera Sextette are not beginners nor amateurs but are experienced artists in Grand Opera. They certainly look it in the cuts in their advertising.

This is ground hog day, and the hog has certainly been able to see his shadow numerous and almost any time during the day, which means that he will go back into his hole and hide for six weeks.

S. I. M'Daniel, the marble dealer, has just received the contract for a couple of fine monuments over the graves of the late Chas. Monteth and Mrs. Ina M. Neith, and another one for the late Mrs. E. C. Stratton, who died in California, and was cremated there.

M. S. Durbin, forestry warden, of Waldport, left for home this afternoon after spending several weeks in the valley. Mr. Durbin is a very efficient employee of Uncle Sam in the service and is greatly interested in the development of the work.

The Travel Club of the U. P. charch met last night with Rev. White and took a tip with Stoddard through Florence, the marvellous city of art. Pictures were shown direct on a canvas from the book, through a ingenious contrivance. Some refreshments were served and a pleasant time socially had.

At a mass meeting in Eugene last night almost unanimously a charter for a commission form of government was favored and the council requested to proceed and have it submitted to the people of the city in April; but the council at a session turned it down for the present, delaying action, and it will not be voted on this year.

POWER LINE STATION.

The power line of the Oregon Power Co. is now completed this side of Tangent, where a large force of about fifty men, and several teams, are pushing towards Albany along the road. At this city a sub-station is being prepared for the plant at the corner of Fourth and Vine streets, it being necessary to move the residence at that place for the purpose. Today big machinery is being hauled to the site.

This line is going to mean a good deal for the places it passes, and will eventually for the farms along the way, though it is said some of the farmers are alarmed lest it will affect their telephone lines, not at all probable.

News from Albany's Six Early Trains.

Hon. Thomas Kay, secretary of state, returned from Lebanon, where he delivered an address last night at the annual banquet of the Business Men's League. The affair, as usual was a good one, with a big crowd and much interest. Mr. Kay made a practical talk. He is not an orator, but he talks to the point.

Editor H. Y. Kirkpatrick came down for the day. He has taken the county agency for the Horticultural Fire Relief Association, of Salem, and will devote part of his time to looking after it, with headquarters at the office of J. M. Ralston, while in the city.

Judge C. H. Stewart went to Salem. He is a member of the special legislative committee of the Oregon State Horticultural Society. $5,000 is wanted appropriated by the state in the interest of better work, due because of the great development of horticultural conditions in Oregon.

Judge and Mrs. H. H. Hewitt left on a Portland trip.

Miss Hattie Burkhart went to Portland.

Lawyer E. E. Wilson, of Corvallis, went to Salem.

Wm. Ehlerst and Mr. Unke, of Lebanon, both interested in the famous Mexican mines, went to Salem.

Mrs. Peter Paulus went to Salem to consult an eye specialist.

Albany to the Front in Modern Merchandising.

Chambers & McCune are arranging for a busy day at "The Big Day Light Store," Saturday. It is the day they make some person a present of a beautiful $400 piano and it is the opening day of their 12th Semi-Annual Rummage Sale, which is always a most interesting sale. The new feature and the first time introduced in Albany, is the sending up of balloons from the roof of their store, each one carrying a cash prize of from $1.00 to $5.00 to be deposited in the Albany State Bank or the First Savings Bank to the credit of the person capturing the balloon.

A Lasting Play.

It is always difficult to judge the life of a play, and many of the most talked of successes rarely survive a second season. When "A Gentleman from Mississippi," which comes to Albany Saturday night was first produced three years its most ardent admirers could not have foretold its lasting popularity. The play is imbued with that lasting pathos which so strongly haunts the lives of men and women and is no less present in their joy than in their sorrow. Amid the peals of laughter one hears the old heart break and in this play it true to life as it has been lived upon the earth since the world began.

The Boy is a Genius.

Mabel Mansfield, a San Francisco critic on the Call, says of Arioli, who is to come here next Tuesday night: "Pepito Arioli, the first great Spanish artist, at least in a pianistic way, that has appeared among us, presented a program from the great composers in Christian Science hall last evening that was a musical triumph."

"Arioli is a genius. He is, perhaps, as great a genius as Liszt."

"Of the entire program, which comprised Beethoven, Chopin, Rachmaninoff, Schumann and Liszt, the Beethoven sonata and the Chopin polonaise were given with the artistic perfection usually found only in the mature development of great genius."

Returned After Eight Years.

Albert Thompson arrived in Albany this noon after an absence of eight years, during which he was entirely lost sight of by his relatives. He is a brother of D. I. Thompson, now of North Yakima, son of a former Albany poultry dealer. While gone he traveled extensively, being as far south as Chile, in South America, and has had many experiences.

The Senate passed three house bills, none providing that it shall be a crime to desert a band of sheep.

Among the senate bills passing were: Abraham, providing for the care of cemeteries.

Rainfall 20 inch.
The river is 75 feet.
Prediction: fair and colder tonight, Friday fair.

FRIDAY. HARRISBURG BRIDGE.

A Delegation Calls Upon the County Court About It.

A delegation of Harrisburg men were in the city yesterday afternoon conferring with the county court in reference to a bridge at Harrisburg, which the people there want in earnest. Only preliminary steps can now be taken. The delegation consisted of Dr. W. H. Dale, W. L. Wright, Ed. Jones, Damon Smith, Ed. Nixon, J. G. Kelsey, M. D. Morgan and C. L. Morris.

Harrisburg is undoubtedly the head of navigation and will not need an act of congress; but a bill has been drawn and will be presented to the state legislature, giving the county court the right to build the bridge. It is not thought there will be any opposition to it from any source, a bridge at the place being a logical one.
