

IMPOSSIBLE.

It is an undeniable fact that you cannot get a pleasing fit over a corset that is not properly constructed and fitted.

There are many shape-giving corsets on the market but few that combine features of health and comfort as well.

The wide endorsement of the Gossard by physicians is a quick proof.

The Gossard is built with the idea of giving the best possible shape to the figure and also to protect one's health.

THE GOSSARD CORSET LACES IN FRONT

That does away with the two heavy stays that press upon the stomach and cause stomach trouble and many other discomforts that one need not bear. To know about the Gossard Corset is to be a wearer and a wearer is a continuous booster.

End your corset troubles now—be fitted at our store with a Gossard. The price is $3.50, $5.00 and $6.00—and always money well invested.

We also carry the Grecque Aluminum Stay Corset and the Warner's Rust-Proof, both excellent corsets, ranging in price from $1.00 to $3.50.

THIS MORNING OBSERVED

News From Albany's Six Early Trains.

W. V. Merrill returned from Brownsville, where he completed arrangements for connecting a rural line to the Pacific's extensive exchange. A big factor in telephone extension has been the rural line, established by the farmers.

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Palmer, of Portland, returned home after an Albany visit. Mr. Palmer is now in the real estate business with an office on Killingsworth street. A couple years ago he obtained quite a celebrity by taking the lead in the referendum of the U. O. appropriation bill.

D. W. Rumbaugh, county fruit inspector, left on a trip beyond Lebanon, going out to the Lacomb country, fast becoming the fruit center of the county. An issue will be made hereafter of keeping Linn county fruit trees in the proper shape.

J. L. Underwood and son left on a Corvallis trip.

Mrs. Labbe, of Portland, left for home after a visit with Mrs. Christensen.

J. F. Peebler came down from Lebanon.

Miss Emma Croeno left on a short Jefferson trip.

Judge and Mrs. W. S. McFadden, of Corvallis left on a Portland trip.

Mr. Dohell, a Corvallis banker, left for Portland.

Superintendent Briggs and E. A. Johnson went to Salem to appear before the ways and means committee on normal school back pay.

John Shea, of Portland, returned to that city, after being here to attend the funeral of his brother Ed.

Tozier Was Here

Albert Tozier, former president of the national press association, was in the city today on his way to his home near Hood River, after a trip to Corvallis. He is now connected with the Farmer of Portland. For several years he was the state printer expert, doing the measuring of the great jobs of the state printer. He has been mayor of Tentville, at the state fair for a number of years, and knows every avenue in the business, and where every cent was located the year before.

A sure relief from that corn, and cure, at Burns Shoe Store.

REAL ESTATE NOTICE

We hear of two suits being pressed against farmers that gave exclusive rights on their farms to a certain real estate firm in this town (Why give exclusive rights), if a firm will not sell your place without an exclusive right, they are not up to date, nor progressive. We have sold more real estate in the last few months than any three firms combined.

We don't ask for an exclusive right.
Yours for Business,

List your farms with T. W. Hors back of the Hub Land Co., 10th and Lyon Sts., near S. P. Depot, for quick sales, for when your farm is listed here with me it is also listed in Portland, as I have an office there also. When in town call and talk the proposition over with me. Phone

Washington street is being surveyed for pavement, under an order made last August. Under the red tape requirements it will be nearly July before actual work can be begun on the paving of the street. It takes nearly three months from the original resolution to secure pavement of a street.

Sears & Son at their planing mill have been making extensive improvements. One is a large addition, more room being needed. Another are a new boiler and engine, costing a couple thousand dollars. A large electric motor has been discarded, the cost of the juice being too much. Besides the mill needs the steam and heat from the boiler. Even during the winter the mill is kept busy. A big spring rush is expected and will make things hum.

In the place recently vacated by the Herald office a family are now residing, using the offices for a home, and the composing room for laundry.

Jas. A. Hoag's new henry, is a fine one, well fitted with a fine lot of chickens. The chicken business is a good one, with 14 cents on foot being paid for the fowls for eating. Mr. Hoag is right down in the center of business at Water and Ellsworth.

There is no excuse for the ground hog to stay burrowed up, not if he has any regard for the good weather observed by the man about town.

Some Pioneers Will Be Shown.

A special feature of the meeting for organization of the Linn County Historical Society Friday night, at the U. P. church, will be some pictures of prominent pioneers, that will be thrown on the canvas by Rev. White and J. C. Irvine, with a machine of their invention, a projectoscope, patterned after some toy machines, found to work on a large scale. With this machine any picture, a photograph or picture clipped from a newspaper may be shown distinctly, with the coloring.
Geo. H. Himes will do the talking. Though a resident of Portland he knows Linn county history better than Linn county men.

Alcos Won.

Albany high and the Alco team had a warm game of basket ball last night, the Alco winning 27 to 24. The first half ended 15 to 10 in favor of Alco. The second half 14 to 12 in favor of the high school. The high schools old stars Geo. Dooley and Park Stalaker did splendid work for the Alco team, and Beeson and Kennard were the stars for the high in basket throwing.

The lineups were:
Alco—Dooley, Stalaker forwards, Eugene Dooley center, Torbet and Penland guards.
The high school—Beeson and Kennard forwards, M. Bigbee center, Abraham, L. Bigbee, Crowell and C. Bigbee guards.
