EMBROIDERY SHOW

Continues All This Week

A visit here at the present time will disclose the fact that the atmosphere of the place has undergone a great change.

Not long ago it was a Winter store. Now it's the where the loveliest of the new Spring White Goods are gathered.

Now is the time for inspection — no such a display of EMBROIDERIES and MUSLIN UNDERWEAR was ever made by this or any other store in Albany. We are ready to meet every requirement with the largest and most complete showing of Table Linens, Napkins, Towels, Lace Curtains, Curtain Nets, Bed Spreads, Sheets, Pillow Cases and other White goods of every description that we have ever gathered for your consideration.—Now don't delay your visit, for we're anxious to have you pass judgment on our selections when we are looking our best.

SPRING MILLINERY

The "Gage" Hats are here in all their new, original styles and shapes for early Spring Wear.—Ingenuity and skill combined have worked wonders for these new Hats, and they will certainly appeal to all women fond of the beautiful in head-dress. Come, and get the first look at the new Spring styles.

NEW SPRING SUITS

Our Mr. Kragen, who has been in New York for weeks planning our first Showing of Spring Suits and Coats has sent hundreds of new garments by express making our stock most complete. Women are buying Suits every day for they realize from experience that to get the beautiful imported materials their Suits must be bought early.

WOMEN'S AND MISSES' SUITS $15.00 TO $40.00.

It will be to your advantage to inspect these Suits and compare styles, quality, make and prices with others. Better values at such popular prices are not to be found.

Don't Fail to Visit this Store During the White Fair and See the Most Beautiful Display of White Goods ever offered the Shopping Public of Albany.

DIED.

Myer.—On Friday afternoon at 4 o'clock, at St. Mary's Hospital, Mrs. Eva Hackleman Myer, passed away after an illness of some time.

She was born near this city Aug. 5, 1855 and spent her life here, a young woman of splendid character and attainments. She was a member of the Grace Presbyterian church. She was married about two years ago to W. G. Myer, of the postoffice. She was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Denver Hackleman. The husband, parents and other relatives have the sympathy of all in their loss.

The funeral will be held at the home of Mr. Myer on East Sixth street, tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock, to which all friends are invited.

Akin.—Saturday morning March 4, at his home on Jefferson street, Dr. J. L. Akin, at the age of 73 years. He was born in Iowa and came to Oregon many years ago. He leaves a wife, son, John Akin of Toledo, and two daughters, Mrs. Will Hoflein of the C. & E., and Miss Alice Akin.

The remains will be buried at Bell fountain, Benton county, probably Monday, with the funeral there.

Easton.—Miss Gladys Easton, a graduate of Albany College, class of 1909, died at the home of her parents in Canby, Oregon, on Thursday, of tuberculosis. She has been teaching since her graduation until the present winter when she was compelled by the state of her health to give up her work in the Seio high school and enter a sanitarium. Miss Easton was a very bright, attractive and capable young woman. As a student she won both warm friends and the highest honors. She was active in Y. W. C. A., Christian Endeavor and church work.

The Evangelistic Meetings.

At this season, when throughout the world Christian men and women of all denominations turn their thoughts and aspirations toward the spiritual rather than the carnal the members of the Albany Protestant Evangelical churches are called together in great union services during the mission of Dr. W. B. Riley of Minneapolis, and lay aside these things of worldly or social nature when they reflect on the contemplation of the life and death and resurrection of our Lord Jesus Christ. Special evangelistic meetings from Mar. 16 to Apr. 9 in the Armory.

Albany Ministerial Association.

Empire Photoplay Theatre

TONIGHT

"Eldora, the Fruit Girl."—One of Edison's best stories, admirably portrayed by the clever company. Full of heart interest.

"The Golden Supper."—Adapted from the poem by Lord Tennyson, and very beautifully and carefully produced by the Biograph Company. An exceptional picture in every detail.

"Amenities."—A drama showing the effects of wrong-doing, and how young men atone for the wrong done others, by a most unselfish act. A pretty story, well told.

"The Bowling Fiend."—This man gets into all kinds of ridiculous positions, by bowling with everything and at every thing. Laugh!

Miss Crosno, singing "My Country Has First Call."

Complete change tomorrow.
Ly Trovatore, 7th, 8th, 9th.
Admission 10 cents.

DREAMLAND THEATRE

TONIGHT

1. Making a Man of Him.—A drama of virile interest, in which the butterfly son of a self-made millionaire is redeemed from his gay life by means of a clever ruse, conceived and carried out by his father. There is solid, absorbing human interest here and it is set forth by clever stage work.

2. Scenes of Germany.

3. Get Rick Quick.—A story that causes you to "sit up and take notice." It is by the American Pathe Company and is a good one too.

"One of the Finest" is Clancy.—A Policeman's Life is Not Always a Happy One. But This is a Happy Hit.

5. Illustrated Song.—The Soul Kites.

6. Hunting Sea Lions in Tasmania. A magnificent scenic picture full of interest as it portrays a sport which few have partaken.

Monstrous sea lions are seen in their native haunts but fall before the expert marksmen.

Coming.—Lassoing Wild Animals in Africa. The big feature.
Admission 10 cents.

A Home Coming.

Grand Home-Coming and Reunion of States, a brilliant affair is scheduled Wednesday evening, March 8. One of the most unique entertainments ever given in Albany is being planned by the ladies of the First Presbyterian church. This entertainment will be in the form of a States' Reunion and will be held in the Woodmen's Hall, in the fine new Schmitt Block, which hall which has already donned gala attire for the occasion. A captain has been appointed for each state and each captain is rustling to secure the largest delegation. Everybody is invited to come and help his native state win the prize offered by the ladies to the state having the largest registered attendance. If, like Topsy, "you" never was bo'n but just growed, come anyhow, and you'll be given a place in the grand March. Strains of martial music will greet the guests at the foot of the stairs and Columbia, with Colonial Dames, will form the reception committee. There will be something doing every minute as the program will consist of the Parliament of States, music and refreshments.

A registration fee of 25 cents secures your state badge and pays the bill for evening. The proceeds will be applied to the organ fund for the new church. Everyone is invited, especially strangers in Albany.

The Weather.

Range of temperature 65-43. Considerably warmer after being cold a week or two.

The rainfall was 22 inch, and people will now feel better.

Prediction: Rain tonight and Sunday.

Fresh smelt, 4 pounds for 25 cents at Holt's. Have some again.

CHAMPIONS OF W. OR.

Albany Beat Columbia 22 to 12.

Before an audience packing the Alco gym to the door Albany high school last night defeated the unbeaten Columbia team of Portland 22 to 12. Splendid team work and superior training did it. Columbia looked like a foot ball aggregation, weighing fifteen or twenty pounds to the man more than Albany; but Albany had the speed and the long hard passes of the boys were too much for the Portlanders. Caron Bigbee played a star game for Albany at guard, the fastest high school player in the state, circling his man, and then down to the Albany goal for a try, succeeding several times, while Lyle Bigbee, like a watch dog, guarded the Columbia basket, and the expert forwards of that team could do nothing. Beeson and Kennard did great work at forward, and Maurice Bigbee held his own against a much taller man at center.

The first half was 8 to 7 in favor of Albany, the second 14 to 5, with the best basket in front.

The new intercollegiate rules, not familiar to the Albany boys, were used. Ross Cooper of the O. A. C. referred impartially, calling only one foul on Columbia and three on Albany. Columbia throwing two of them. Altogether it was a clean game.

The Columbia lineup was Fitzgerald capt. and Kirkland forwards, Reed center, Finnegan and Kelleher guards.

At the close the enthusiasm was great, as it made the Albany high school champions of Western Oregon. A game is wanted with Penleton for the state champions.

After the game there was a social session at the gym with a dance.

Will Have 3,000 Birds.

The poultry of Jas. A. Hoag and son brought here from Petaluma, Calif., has attracted a good deal of attention this week. Mr. Hoag has an Albany yard at Water and Ellsworth street; but his poultry business will be carried on in Sunrise on the property recently bought of John Bray, in charge of his son. They expect to have three thousand birds there within a year or two, the biggest hennery in this part of the state.

Congress has adjourned now for No. 62.

If the Oregonian is missed report to Ben Oelan at once and you will get it.
