A Danville, Ill., paper got mad and remarked "Lunatics voted for Joe Cannon."

In Nevada it is proposed to allow a man condemned to death to choose his method, a dangerous method.

Col. Roosevelt is to be presented with a $500 saddle when he gets down in Texas among the rough riders. That will be de-lightful.

Caruso got some dust in his throat the other day, and it cost him $2,000 a day. It is a big thing to have a voice in high notes.

The boast is made that Canadian laws are enforced. If that is true law reciprocity with Canada is something to be courted.

Not getting the Panama exposition New Orleans hasn't given up entirely and will give a wild-Oyster Bay show, spending $10,000 to entertain Roosevelt.

Recently a suffragette in Philadelphia advocated clubs for girls. Ice cream and spring bonnets are good enough for the Albany girl.

A big prize has been offered in San Francisco for an exposition poem. Here is an opportunity for Albany's several poets to spread themselves until their heads ache.

An Albany paper says: "A progressive is a man who wants something and then something else." In justice to Oregon it needs to be remarked that Albany, N. Y., is referred to.

Since dying some manuscripts of Mark Twain have been found in which he gave Roosevelt a regular Huckleberry Finn and Tom Sawyer slashing. If he had published them while alive there would have been some fun in it.

PEANUT POLITICS.

From Western Leader.
The Oregonian quotes the Bowerman crowd as saying that they were strong enough to prevent the governor from playing "peanut politics." This is delightful. It is like the man with a bloody nose and black eye who boasted that the other fellow broke his knuckles.

FROM JAPAN

The Democrat has received from Japan an account of the organization there of an American peace society. Resolutions passed were to the effect that the people of Japan have at all times entertained the most friendly and cordial sentiments towards the government and the people of the United States, and that there is not to be found in the Japanese empire any wish or thought other than to maintain the most friendly relations. One speaker said: "There is no cause under the sun why there should be distrust between the two countries."

THE DEMAND IS INCESSANT.

It will be only a few years before United States senators are elected directly by the people without even the assistance of the Oregon system. It is coming surely and certainly. The Lorimer case will help. It is proving an object lesson of great value. The people are incensed at such a white wash, alleged to be for a consideration. Hardly a U. S. senator is elected by the old system without a taint attached to the matter. It has filled the U. S. senate with a lot of men, many of whom are there for the graft advantages offered by the position. It is no wonder the demand is incessant for a change.

THOSE U. S. SOLDIERS.

The yellow journals have immediately discovered that the sending of troops down into Texas is all on account of the Japs. The Y. J's can see further in the dark than an owl. This is all the worst kind of guessing, and is just the kind that should be kept out of the papers, for it is merely yellow. The United States and Japan are on the closest terms, and there is nothing at all in their relationship to suggest any need of the United States to mobilize troops on the coast. These troops are undoubtedly down in Texas on account of the trouble in Mexico, and may as well be there getting some practical camp life as playing cards back in some fort along the Atlantic.

MIX-UP OF RIGS.

E. A. Easton, the Crabtree farmer who has the distinction of being sued by a school teacher for $5,000 damages, yesterday had a live runaway just out of the city. When near S. G. Talia's his horse became frightened and ran away, breaking loose from the wagon, and not stopping until they had reached Frank Propert's place, five miles away. In starting the team ran into the rig of Mrs. Geo. Richards, who was coming towards it, the bugles clashing. Mrs. Richards' buggy was tipped over and she was thrown out to the ground, for unluckily not being seriously injured, and her horse was stopped before getting away.

S. M. Douglas has sold his 400 acre farm near Springfield to B. A. Washburn and J. L. Clark for $80,000, being $150 an acre.

SATURDAY NIGHT THOUGHTS.

Attracting most attention this week has been the sending of an army of U. S. soldiers down close to the border line of Mexico, with a view of stopping the revolution there. The affair has caused all manner of talk and has made the yellow journals almost turn green. It is giving the president a good deal of power as commander in chief to take a step like this practically on his own judgment; but fortunately after all his power is limited, when it comes to actual aggressiveness. Uncle Sam is evidently playing the part of the mastiff.

This action on the part of the U. S. is liable to stir up the other nations of the world, and it is possible is ill-advised. It doesn't take much to stir up a hornet's nest.

This week there was a change in the management of the interior department. Ballinger nominally resigning, practically, it is said being ousted, Fisher succeeding him. The new man is highly spoken of as one of capacity and judgment, something apparently lacking in his predecessor.

Another big revival is approaching, this week the preliminary work being begun, an event of interest and of importance. Like other things it is well to run this along sane and sensible lines, and it is pleasing to note that this is the program. Religion and business must mix all the time or there is nothing in a man's professions, and the affairs of life must go along just the same during a revival as when there is not one. If the influence of a revival is to be lasting this fact will be appreciated.

The statements of the Albany banks this week show a healthy condition of affairs. All are run along very conservative, reliable lines. The total resources are gradually increasing. Good banks speak for a city and are a strong factor in its development.

A state oratorical contest was held this week. These are not days of Demosthenes; but there is fire, left and up-to-date ideas are given that speak for training and the modern mind. The average contest is an interesting one, particularly when one goes behind the scene and observes the reasons of some of the judges for their markings, often incapable of rising above their personal preferences.

(FRIDAY.)

Science Convention in Albany.

Arrangements are being made for holding the convention of the Oregon State Academy of Science, at this city, some in April. Last year it was held in Portland. This Association of scientific men considers a wide range of topics, such as irrigation, electricity, geology, geology, the weather, divorce, etc., in a practical way, applied to modern needs. Some of the prominent educators of the state and men interested in modern affairs will be here. J. D. Lee, of Portland, is president, and Frank W. Power, of Salem, a graduate of Albany College, secretary and treasurer.

State Oratorical Contest.

A crowd left this afternoon for Eugene to attend the state oratorical contest and convention tonight. Those going were: A. C. Schmitt, Judge, Miss Laura Anderson chaperone, Arthur Hodge secretary state association, Grover Birchtot orator, Kenneth McLenann, Winifred Root, Fannie Chase, Lucille Hart, Kate Stewart, Lena Heinrichs, Amy Olmstead, Ruth Smith, delegates; A. and L. Jones, Lester Osburn, Harold Hooser, Myrtle Hodge, Magdolna White, Jennie Pettibone, Gertrude and Hazel Young, Ina Hanson, Ruth Jones, Eva Cushman and Neta Senzitz.

First Rehearsal.

An excellent cast is being arranged for the extravaganza Ship Ahoj, to be presented by the High School students on Thursday and Friday, March 23 and 24. The first rehearsal was held last night with a good chorus present. Miss Ireland of the high school faculty and her sister, will both be excellent additions to the cast and there is a fine lot of students to select from.

The Oregon state board of health proposes to get busy.

The Willamette Glee Club is ambitious. It is contemplating a trip east as far as Chicago. They will need a big pocket book.

There is talk of a real aviation meet by some Curtis flyers, the first meet in the northwest.

Powder mills exploded at Pleasant Prairie, near Chicago, yesterday and it is said forty people were killed and the little town wiped out.

A bill has been presented in the Ill. legislature putting a ban on Haron skirts and limiting the hobble skirts. A little good sense with women will do more than laws.

Thinking it was something else Mrs. L. E. Davis and Mrs. Engdahl, of Salem opened a box of dynamite with an axe. They are alive, fortunately not hitting any of the dynamite.

There was a big banquet at Portland last night, a dollar a plate affair. The cow came near kicking the bucket over due to the prevailing feeling over the state food commission, whom the legislature tried to put out of office.

The announcement is made that the U. S. is sending troops to the border under the Monroe doctrine. A limited number of national guard soldiers from each state are to be permitted to go to study tactics.

A fine program is out for the educational meeting at Lebanon March 17 and 18. Prominent speakers will be Prof. H. D. Sheldon, Director A. M. Reeves, Supt. Aldermann, Prof. Winfield S. Smith, Prof. Finerty, Prof. Benne, Prof. Bolin Supt. Briggs, Prof. Sprague, Prof. Bradley and Prof. Stotter.

THE McCARTS

Live Divorce Suit Begun at this City.

A sensational divorce suit was brought last evening by Lee M. Travis, of Eugene, Mary McCart agt. Geo. McCart, of Harrisburg, formerly of near Brownsville. An attempt was made to have the case tried in Lane county, but it was quashed because the plaintiff resided in this county. Mr. and Mrs. McCart were married at Albany, June 13, 1910. Mrs. McCart was formerly Mary Hunt, of Brownsville, and has two children. She charges the plaintiff with being cross, crabbed and cranky, trying to make her life unbearable, of false accusations, and that he finally got her to sign with him a deed to a $30,000 farm, so as to get his property where the plaintiff could not get her one-third share; that defendant snook plaintiff, made false accusations against her and shook his fist at her with threats. That he is worth $35,000, having $25,000 loaned and $10,000 in the bank. The plaintiff asks to have her name changed back to Hunt, for $1,000 temporary alimony and for $100 for attorney's fees.

Peach Leaf Curl.

To control this disease spray early in spring before buds open, carefully covering all parts of tree.
Formula—Commercial lime-sulphur 30 degrees Baume dilute 1-15, one gallon lime-sulphur to fifteen water, and apply just before or while the buds are swelling, BUT BEFORE ANY OF THE BUDS show any GREEN. If any of the buds show even the green tips of the leaves they may become infected. Lime-sulphur being an insecticide controls scale when thoroughly applied to all parts of the tree.
How about your orchard? Is it pruned yet and ready for spraying?
D. W. RUMBAUGH,
County Fruit Inspector.

THIS YEAR THE OR. E.

"We have planned to build the road from Salem to Eugene this year, and expect to do so" said John F. Stevens, at Portland, yesterday. "We don't know how soon we will put our men to work, but it will be in plenty time to finish the work within the required time."

Chief Engineer Wickersham was in Salem yesterday looking over the city. There is trouble in the Salem council over the granting of the franchise, but it will be given all right, when a route will be selected from the limits of the city south, one of four surveys. It is said that the company will probably do its own work instead of letting the contractor.

Rights of way south of Salem have been generally provided for. It is a big thing to have the road come, a community builder and people generally appreciate it.

Albany people are watching closely for every bit of news in connection with the big project.

News from Albanys Six Early Trains.

The Misses Ireland and Evelyn Marshall left for Portland to attend the ordination of Rev. Marsden, by Bishop Scadding, at the Episcopal church tomorrow. Several others from Albany will also be present. Miss Beatrice Ireland will sing a solo on the occasion.

C. F. Bigbee left for Sweet Home to give a talk at a big Grange meeting today. He was to be met at Lebanon and taken both ways. Sweet Home was the home of the Bigbees for a good many years.

Prof. J. B. Horner, already famous for the proposed Mt. Moriah trip, left for Crofton, near Bondville, where he was to give at a Grange meeting today. While here he took legal advice from J. R. Wyatt, a prominent Portland lawyer about whether he could hold a claim on Moriah.

Edwin Fortmiller, Clyde Roberts, Neil and Clayton Bain left for Portland to see the famous Midnight Sun play tonight, and previously take in the village.

Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Monteith left for Eastern Oregon, the former to sell neckties, the latter to visit her brother at Wasco.

Wm. Saxton, of Tangent, arrived for the day.

Prof. Schmitt returned from Eugene, where he was one of the judges in the contest last night.

Raymond Burkhardt arrived from Lebanon.

V. S. Wennerstein, with the Reeves Department Store, Lebanon, returned to that city.

Mr. and Mrs. F. G. Warner returned to their home at Garfield, Wash. They have been in Portland a couple months.

Father Van Navel went to Brownsville to conduct services tomorrow.

L. M. Curl left for Hood River to attend a district convention of Knights of Pythias.

Finest lot of latest style of men's hats ever brought to Albany may be seen in the show window of the Blain Clothing Co. Take a look at them and then step inside.

Something doing all the time at the New Band Box on Ferry St. why? Because there is the very latest Paris styles in millinery and then the prices are so reasonable.

A little cash will handle one of the best "BUS" of the season in Central Addition. Strictly a resident district. Ask Collins & Taylor about them.

MISFITS.

Oregon beats them all.
The Mich. girls are all right.

This Mexican revolution is liable to spread.

Albany needs a complete council all the time.

We never forget the place of our childhood.

Albany people want the park without any delay.

Uncle Sam may get his fingers burned down in Mexico.

Lyon street is getting on the map. Pavement gave it a name.

Diaz is about the same as a king. What's in a name anyway.

Some great states are good ones to leave when there is an Or.

Pavement has made smooth sailing for Albany on the up-grade.

More consistency is needed in the lives of all the other fellows.

Albany will set the pace in affairs of style. Come and see March 23-5.

Don't drink out of public cups that everybody else has slobbered over.

Eugene claims a harem skirt. Show the goods before we can believe it.

The recall is proving a power in city affairs. It is a good thing to keep harnessed.

It is easy to see why W. J. Fisher has been appointed secretary of the interior. He plays golf. Roosevelt was all tennis.

Why not use some of Albany's new office space for house keeping rooms, which are going to be needed when the colonists get here.

Bryant Park is the best located for convenience of any park in Oregon, right at our doors, not an adjunct of street cars and steamboats.

The red tape required to get a paving ordinance through is laborious, almost ridiculous. Instead of three or four months it should be done in at least a month.

Mareus Johnson of New York state bet $500 that sixty of his hens would lay 1000 eggs during February. They laid 1009 and he won. Fifty hens of A. S. Hart of this city at the rate of 1965 for sixty hens.

A shoe shiner in Pendleton talks eight languages and has a smattering of six others. That's nothing. Nightwatch John Callin of this city can talk eight or ten languages and has a smattering of hundreds of others.

It is easy to see who is meant in the following editorial in the Examiner. Just now San Francisco is infested by an unmitigated nuisance in the shape of an irremediable automobile scorcher who happens to have made money and notoriety by his dexterity in smashing the faces of other men. He defies the police here as he has in most big cities. Six months on the rock pile might cure his mania for endangering the lives of pedestrians by his reckless driving. The mere fact that he is black should not deter the authorities from putting him where he belongs on the rock pile.

Dr. B. R. Wallace is preparing plans for a new and up-to-date residence on the property of Dr. Wallace at the corner of Ellsworth and Seventh streets.

W. H. Lyon has sold half a lot at the corner of Hagan and Fifth street, opposite the proposed Oregon Electric depot to the agents of the road. What it is to be used for is being guessed at.

The Man about Town appreciates a box of very sweet and choice oranges from Pomona Calif. The giver is entitled to a place at the head of the orange class.
