

We Want to Show You the Newest Styles in Footwear

Everybody must be interested in Shoes at this time of the year. The sun-shiny days call for low shoes. Ladies who want the best in shoes call at our store. Mr. Stalnaker who has charge of the shoe department has made a special effort this season to have the newest shapes and most fashionable leathers for your choosing. The style man says the strap effects are good. We are prepared to show you several numbers of these. For example a four-strap all-patent with a six-strap effect, a neat shapely last and a spike heel that puts style in your walk. Or an all Suede with two straps and a neat little bow of suede; you will like this one—$4.00. The suedes and velvets have been very popular in high shoes and will also be very popular with well dressed ladies in the low shoes this spring and summer. This one will appeal to you: An all velvet with a single strap and a small corded silk bow with a stylish spike heel—$4.00. Also a patent oxford with a velvet top, 3-button effect, good stylish heel. We expect this shoe to please many who want the oxford styles.

There are many more that we cannot go into detail about. Many of them come in the welt soles, also a few turns. Tans, suedes, velvets, patents, kids, etc., as you desire. You are insured a fit and satisfaction at this store. Any prices you may care to pay.
Shoes for Everybody.

THIS MORNING

News From Albany's Six Early Trains.

Mr. Joe Howard, of Corvallis, arrived on his way to Portland. Thirty years ago Mr. Howard was an Albany drayman, working for Perry Swinks. He moved from here to Portland, where he resided until two years ago, when he moved to Corvallis, to send his four boys to the O.A.C.

W. K. Newell, former president of the state horticultural association, left for home. Yesterday he was out to Linnhaven with the crowd of Minnesota people, who examined the property there and were very much pleased with the situation and outlook, and it is probable most of them will stay and settle here.

Hon. M. A. Miller, of Lebanon, left for Salem. A member of the Senate for twelve years he is familiar with the doings in it, and was not surprised at the jumble of the senate journal. Too much politics in selecting clerks.

Mrs. H. K. Luger and daughter, Mrs. Dr. Kavanaugh, went to Portland for a visit at Neil Curry's.

Miss Helen Crawford, of Bonnie Doon, and Miss Reed, of Lebanon, came down this morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Cyrus Whitney went to Lebanon.

J. H. Scott returned to Portland. J. A. McCain returned to Salem.

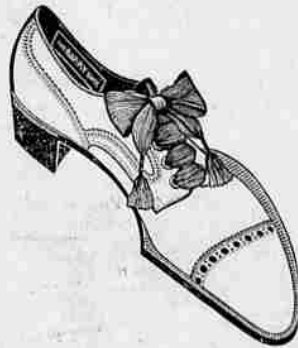

J. S. H. Mathews, the directory compiler, went to Lebanon.

Sheriff Smith left for Salem with Walter Spruance, who goes there for a couple of years residence for helping himself to property of other people.

Walking to Medford.

Godfried Rodrigues, the pedestrian arrived in Albany yesterday afternoon and left early this morning on his trip to Medford. Previous to the present trip Rodrigues was at Medford doing vaudeville work. This trip is made under the auspices of the Portland Telegram, Rodrigues to have 83 hours to make the distance of 329 miles. He is traveling on a regular schedule and is bound to be on time approximately. Rodrigues is a good walker all right, and his reputation in walking contests is a good one. He is preceded by an E. M. F. Car, which is making the trip on some rough roads.

MEDAL WON BY MISS CURRY

An interesting medal contest, under the auspices of the W. C. T. U., took place at the high school auditorium last night, with a large crowd present.

Mrs. Blain, president of the Union, presided.

Superintendent Briggs read the scripture and offered prayer.

Miss Clara Morgan recited Old Soapy and Marguerite Hammer, A Terrible Crime.

Then Miss Rhoda, of Eugene, was heard in a vocal solo, showing a very sweet and pleasing voice.

Ruth Lyons recited A Little Child Shall Lead Them, and Myrtle Curry The Result of Preaching.

Miss Worrell sang with good effect. Beulah Hinkleley recited The Parting of the Ways and Cora Curry The Development of Citizenship.

Prof. Fizzerty and Mrs. Bigbee were heard in a duet, well presented and Miss Bailey in an interesting reading.

The decision of the judges was announced in favor of Miss Cora Curry. Rev. Marchel making the announcing speech and the audience adjourned pleased with the entertaining program, and as well taking home some excellent lessons in temperance given by some bright young ladies.

A Business Change.

W. A. Eastburn has bought the interest of Frank Caldwell in the Albany Supply Co., and the business will now be run by Messrs. Austin & Eastburn. Mr. Eastburn is one of Albany's best business men, and will make a splendid addition to the business. The Albany Supply Co. has built up a fine trade in this part of the valley, a fine thing for the grocers of Albany and the central Willamette Valley. Reliable and prompt the company deserves a big patronage.

City Has Some Money.

Recorder Redfield this morning received a neat payment from the county treasurer, for city purposes, as follows: $6,495.36 for general purposes, $1221.94 for road work, $1623.84 for the armory, $527.70 for the city library. It will all be needed, though the last has not yet been settled by Mr. Carnegie.

Just look at the beautiful creations in Ladies Hats at the New Band Box.

A GOOD CORNER.

Some Interesting Facts About the Depot Corner.

The Oregon Electric will occupy 88 by 88 feet at the corner of Lyon and Fifth streets, just enough for a modern depot building of good architecture, for passengers alone. The rest of the three lots bought will be owned by Messrs. Taylor & Collins, representatives of the Company here, 22 feet on Lyon street, when the alley is done away with, as it is said will be done, just enough for a lunch room or store, and 110 feet on Fifth street, which will be valuable property for business purposes. The half lot bought of W. H. Hogan on the corner opposite, is entirely private, and the Oregon Electric has nothing to do with it, as some have anticipated.

SINGER ARRIVED.

Prof. Guthrie, who is to lead the singing in the evangelistic meetings, to begin at the meeting at the armory tomorrow, Thursday, night, at 7:30 o'clock, arrived last night accompanied by Mrs. Guthrie, and will have rooms at Rev. White's, where Dr. Riley will also be located. The latter will come tomorrow.

Preparations have been completed for the important event in the interest of righteousness, and there is no question as to the beneficial results of the meetings. Those in charge are after permanent things, not a mere showing of numbers, under excitement. Brass band methods will not be used, and it is not intended to shove people into the churches of the city before they are ready. The person really converted doesn't have to be urged by a posse of scolded workers.

Prof. Guthrie wishes to meet the singers of the city tonight immediately after the prayer meeting at the Presbyterian church.
