DOINGS OF THE WORLD

Jacob A. Ris is to lecture in Eugene April 3. He was to lecture in Albany once, but did not.

A big Red O on the butte at Eugene, St. Patrick's day morning was found to be very green. Who did the painting.

Gov. Hawley, of Idaho, has vetoed eighteen measures. That doesn't touch Gov. West's record of 72.

A Walla Walla printer came near being whipped this week. He printed a program for an Irish entertainment in orange.

The Senate Journal has at last been completed and numerous botches have been patched up. The roll call for one bill is missing. But there is enough on the Journal's pages to avoid an extra session of the legislature.

Eugene Register:—C. E. Demarest, an employe of Bylesby company who has worked in Oklahoma, came in from Belding, Michigan yesterday to take a position as accountant for the company. After a few week's work in the local office, he will go to Albany to look after the commercial part of the business.

OLIVER DAY

At Stewart & Sox Hdw. Co's Monday, March 20th.

We extend a general invitation to all to visit our store during this exhibition, and see the GREAT OLIVER PLOW AND CULTIVATOR.

Mr. Burdett and Mr. Gorman, of the Oliver Chilled Plow Works of Portland, will be with us and assist in bringing before the people the merits of Oliver goods.

The Oliver plow and cultivator need no introduction in Oregon, being now universally used over the state. Oliver plows are adapted to our soil and the farmer making the BEST crops uses the Oliver Plow to turn his soil.

We will have a full line of our machines on display.

STEWART & SOX HDW. CO.

Suspicious Surveyors

E. A.—During the past two weeks a party of railroad surveyors from Lebanon up the coast have run a line a point beyond South Santiam valley. They were not known by which company they are employed, but it is thought they are running a line for the extension of the Lebanon branch of the Southern Pacific into Eastern Oregon.

Idaho's Farms

What a difference in the western country from the east. The number of farms in Idaho in ten years increased from 17,471 to 30,741, the acreage from 3,205,000 to 5,209,000, the value per acre from $13.23 to $46.39. The number of farms free from debt is 18,113, mortgaged 8,908. The average acres per farm is 171, a decrease of 12-acres in ten years.

It Was a Good One.

Several Albany people attended the electric show at the O. A. C. last night. There was a big crowd present. The offering was a striking one and worth the trip and expense, a splendid thing for the O. A. C., a demonstration of the superior work being done there that attracted attention.

McCart's Answer.

An answer was filed today by J. K. Weatherford, in the case of Mary McCartney, Geo. McCartney, for divorce and a big alimony, in which the defendant charges that the plaintiff stated that she didn't marry him because she shined him, but for his money, and depriving most of the allegations of the plaintiff.

ALBANY

Prompt service at the Imperial. Holt again at the Holt corner. A neat place, Holt's Meat Market. Fresh herring and smelt at Holt's. Choice lunches at the Vienna Bakery. There is a lady cook at the Imperial. Have your feet attended to by Mrs. Driver 230 Lyon, both phones.

No better meals than at the Imperial, 2nd street.
 It might be well to place your order early for spring hats as the New Band Box is now and will be rished. Low prices and latest styles in millinery is what counts. All are invited to feast your eyes.

A hunters license, granted today, was to Mark O. Sullivan, aged 12, weighing 72 pounds.
 The Albany style show has been splendidly advertised in all the papers of the county, the way to reach the people.

The Oregon Power Co. has a big gas plant at Eugene. Why doesn't it put powder in her tea. Of course they both fall asleep. Watch the tramp take his turn at the wine. The laugh begins at the first and continues to the end.

An Editor on Albany.

The editor of the Brownsville Times was told the Albany city recently.
 He noticed the St. Paul street car and thought it funny for people to find fault at little things.
 He saw many new residences going up and heard of several blocks.
 He met a man who complained of the dirt on the pavement, and our streets are kept the cleanest of any of the paved towns.
 He met a man from Illinois, who was told by a bar from the state of Washington, in Portland, that men in this valley have to wear hip rubber boots almost the year round and was surprised to find none.

The Rebekas.

The district convention of Rebekas, including delegates from seven lodges, about fifty, was called to order at 2:30 this afternoon by the District president Mrs. Geo. Drinkard. Mrs. Groot, the state president, arrived this afternoon from Junction. This afternoon was devoted to lodge work, and tonight there will be a social session.

Crawford and Ralston have sold to Charles Ashton a fine Everitt 30 tonning car. They expect a good year for the Everitt also for the Fords, which are going fast.

Shoes for the whole family. Look neat. Don't develop corns and bunions. Go to Burns Shoe Store.

STETTER'S

FOR GROCERIES AND CROCKERY

THE Y.W.C.A.'S.

The Cabinet was given two fine addresses last night, by President Campbell the association in a student community from the standpoint of the institution, and by Miss Gage, the secretary, from the standpoint of the association, followed by a reception.

At the session this morning Miss Lucy Hopkins, the N. W. student secretary conducted the Bible study and there was a committee conference, Miss Gage speaking on finance and missions, Miss Anna Lee of the O. A. C. on Bible study and religious meetings, Miss Hopkins on the social and membership Mrs. Brown of the U. O., on intercollegiate and extension.

This noon there was a fine breakers luncheon at the dormitory, with some bright toasts, the O. A. C. responding to anticipations, Dallas to friendships, Pacific University to reminiscences, Willamette to the breakers' spirit and Albany to all through the year.

This afternoon Miss Hopkins led the Bible study, Miss Lee spoke on the personality of the cabinet girl Miss Laura Anderson on the Association president, Mrs. Brown on Japan and Miss Gage on message to leaders, with closing exercises.

Rebels Whipped

San Diego, March 17.—With their leader, Luis Rodriguez, and seven of his followers dead on the field of battle at Tecate, Mexico, and remnants of the band scattered to the four winds in the mountains; with Mexican federal infantry holding the passes and hamlets, the revolution on the west side of the mountains in Lower California received a severe blow today. The federal forces lost no men.

Empire Photoplay Theatre

TONIGHT

"The Girl of the Mountains."—A beautiful Vitagraph drama with pretty mountain scenery and the usual Vitagraph acting.
 "The Scarlet Letter."—This romance is very good, the scenery being exceptionally good, and the photography excellent.
 "The Water of Content."—A scenic picture of unusual beauty.
 "Sleep, Gentle Sleep."—An Edison comedy, presenting the case of a man who wants to go to a smoker, and his wife who is determined he shall not. She puts sleeping powder in his wine, and he, to get away, puts the same powder in her tea. Of course they both fall asleep. Watch the tramp take his turn at the wine. The laugh begins at the first and continues to the end.
 Complete change tomorrow.
 Admission 10 cents.

DREAMLAND THEATRE

TONIGHT

1. The Old Water Jar.—An Indian life portrayed by the Vitagraph Co., illustrating the Indian belief in divine forgiveness and a Great Spirit that controls the soul's future. One of the most profoundly magnificent pictures ever shown in Albany.
 2. Scenes—Street car strike in Philadelphia, showing actual scenes taken during the recent trouble in that city.
 3. The escape from the Tuileries.—An historical drama of intensive and lasting interest in which a king makes his escape by the aid of a friend. This picture is full of thrills and is an extra fine one, the photography being first-class.
 4. Illustrated Song—"All the world in love."
 5. The Poor Sick Men.—A comedy by the peerless Biograph Company and a good one too. The men try to fool their wives by playing sick and then going to the Club and they almost succeed until complications set in and then their troubles start and come fast. It is certainly a fine high-class comedy.
 Coming Next Week—Lassoing Wild Animals in Africa.
 Admission 10 cents.
