ANOTHER FINE GIFT.

Albany's third big and very liberal gift is offered today, reported with pleasure a block in the Central addition, to the city of Albany for a new school building proposed by the district. It is bounded by Washington, 13th, Calapooia and fourteenth streets, a good site. Only this morning $450 was offered for a single lot. Messrs. Weatherford and Shaw this morning presented their offer, without any strings, except that a suitable building is erected upon the place. It is said it will probably be accepted.

The Royal Sons Won.

Recently the Royal Sons, of the Christian church, with J. C. Holbrook, as teacher and leader, had a contest with the Philatheas, Mrs. Helen Perry teacher, for new members, attendance, etc., which was won after a successful campaign by the Royal Sons. The losers had to give the winners a banquet, and this was done last night in the new dining room of the church, with about eighty members of the two classes present, besides Rev. and Mrs. Esson, Superintendent and Mrs. Powell. The spread was a good one, followed by toasts, with Mr. Holbrook as toastmaster. The speakers were Rev. Esson, Mrs. Perry and Mr. Powell. It was one of the best affairs ever held in the church and was greatly enjoyed.

FORMERLY OF ALBANY

It transpires that the Inez Peterson, nee Mrs. Farrelly, arrested at Oakland, charged with attempting a $10,000 real estate swindle, is undoubtedly the Inez Peterson, who at one time resided in this city several years, in the Young residence at Ferry and Third streets, and whose mother now resides at Tangent. She has other relatives here. Her maiden name was Davidson. The descriptions confirm this, and Tuesday's Examiner, which gives her picture, leaves no doubt of the fact. The name of the son, Raymond, who went to school here, is the same, and the age corresponds.

The affair has caused quite a sensation, and the outcome will be watched with interest.

According to the Examiner she has been a stenographer, actress, medium and fortune-teller. She denied her identity.

News From Albany's Six Early Trains.

Jack Leonard returned to Woodburn, after an Albany visit. He owns a one hundred acre farm five miles from there. About twenty years ago he took the place mostly on debt, and now it is worth eight or ten times what it cost. Mr. Leonard has been doing bridge work for a good many years; but too much rheumatism made it necessary to stop that kind of business. Not being used to farming he will probably sell his place and retire from that too.

Willis Peery, of the O. A. C., came over to make arrangements for the excursion tomorrow night to the big electrical display at the O. A. C., which he declares an exhibit worth any one's attention, and Albany people who go will be well repaid for the trip. The train will leave here at 6:30, returning at 11:30.

The commandery having accepted the invitation recently extended by Dr. J. R. N. Bell to worship here on that date. There is a large contingent of Sir Knights in this city and the plans they are now making for the coming devotional exercises include not only a large attendance from Albany, but all here.

It Will Take

"Ship Ahoj" the High School extravaganza is without a doubt the most ambitious undertaking ever attempted by thespians. With the assistance of some of the alumni, several members of the faculty and singers outside of high school affairs, the cast is the strongest ever brought together. The choruses are catchy and exceedingly pretty; the dialogue brisk. The comedy is very clever and the ensembles a credit to a professional organization. Friday and Saturday, March 24th and 25th are the dates and a grand success is predicted.

Up-to-Date Pictures.

A set of moving pictures that will be unique has been secured recently through the efforts of the Harriman Trust for presentation in the East. The pictures show the harvest of the crop of smelt in the Cowitz river when the recent run of fish was at its height. Fishermen dipping the small fish from the water in countless thousands and weighing them in big nets are shown in the moving picture films.

ELECTRIC SHOW EX.

Not being satisfied with the attendance of a thousand students and three times as many Corvallisites, the managers of the second annual O. A. C. electrical show have invaded Albany with such flashing posters, and so many tales of the electrical doings, that a special train has been arranged for to carry the crowd to Corvallis tomorrow night, leaving Albany at 7 p. m. and Corvallis at 11 p. m.

The show last year was a great success. This year's show will be the result of a year's plans, and the expenditure of a considerable sum of money.

It was instituted to let the people of the N. W. know of the first-class engineering school at the O. A. C. It is no stage show, but covers the entire floor space of the mechanical hall and college power plant. Most of the N. W. electrical houses will also have displays.

There will be a good roads demonstration, a flying machine exhibition, automatic telephone, wireless telegraph, moving pictures, a St. Patrick's day transformer, steel cutting, mercury vapor lamp display, electric fortune telling, electric bucking broncho, farm lighting, general phase electric fountain, Edison shocking machine, meter reading, civil engineering, mining engineering, etc.

Wilson Peery is here selling tickets and reports prospects of a big crowd.

W. C. T. U. at Halsey.

The Woman's Christian Temperance Unions of Shedd, Halsey and Plainview held an all day institute at Shedd March 10, to discuss plans and methods of work. Why the mothers and young women should belong to the W. C. T. U.; Why the boys and girls should belong to the L. T. L.; What department can be worked best in our own section; and Finance—how raise money to carry on our work—were the subjects discussed with profit. "The Local Union a Factor in Municipal Affairs" and "Organized Temperance Work a Necessity" were ably presented by the Shedd pastors, Revs. Acheson and Hocking.

A resolution was passed to buy literature concerning doctrine and principles of the W. C. T. U. and to canvass the towns and distribute literature. A silver medal contest was held in the evening, Miss Ella Stockton winning the medal.

The Riley Evangelistic Meetings.

At 7:30 o'clock to-night the long anticipated evangelistic meetings under Dr. Riley, Minneapolis, will begin in the armory, especially arranged for the occasion.

Dr. Riley is here ready for a four week's campaign for righteousness. Prof. Guthrie and wife made their first appearance last night in the prayer meeting. Prof. Guthrie leading the singing, Mrs. Guthrie performing on the piano, capable people in the important part of the work. A large chorus will assist.

Rev. Douglas has conducted the preliminary work in an effective manner, and our people are prepared for the actual campaign.

Rev. W. P. White will have charge of the personal work. L. E. Hamilton will be head usher and J. L. Tomlinson will look after the finances.

Dr. Riley is a speaker of rare ability, and Albany people who hear him will be given a season of profit.

The city is ripe for a revival and the people of Albany should come to the front, in advancing the interests of this effort.

Likes the Neighborhood.

John Clelen is bound to retain his residence in the neighborhood in which he has resided for so many years, and yesterday bought the residence of Mrs. Winn, which she has owned for a great many years, in the next block north, which he and his family will make their home. There is one lot and two houses on it, and Mr. Clelen owns the adjoining lot.

Big Log Drive.

J. R. Metzger left yesterday, with his outfit, for the South fork of the Santiam, for a big log drive, with 12-000,000 feet. It will take him from 100 to 120 days. The logs are the property of the Spaulding Logging Co. and will be used in their different mills down the river.

Mr. and Mrs. Ira Gibson and little son, accompanied by Mr. Gibson's mother and brother, arrived in the city last night. They are guests of their cousin, J. G. Gibson of North Albany.

The wildcat business is reported good. Last night O. L. Gulien brought four scraps down from the Sweet Home country, and today A. D. Ames ten of the relics of the varmints, getting $2 a scrap.

THE FIRST MEETING.

A large audience gathered at the armory last night, taking seats in some new chairs made in Albany of Oregon wood, as clean as water from a spring.

A large platform, built for the occasion, held a chorus choir, led by Prof. Guthrie, and the ministers of the city, able to be present, Revs. Douglas, Esson, Gell, Goselbracht and Mochel.

Many songs were sung under the direction of the able leader, who has a way of his own; but Dr. Riley came not. Finally it was announced that he would probably not reach Albany until about 9:30 and the meeting adjourned after an hour's song service, certainly a good beginning.

It transpired that there was a wreck between Portland and Salem, stopping the trains, whereupon Dr. Riley came to Salem by the Oregon Electric, reaching there at 5, being met by J. B. Ralston and Rev. White in the Ralston automobile, hastening to Albany for the meeting. Near Jefferson a tire blew up, causing a delay in fixing things so the trip could be completed.

Dr. Riley is here now, for sure, and tonight at 7:30 there will be a meeting and every afternoon and evening afterwards for a month.

News from Albany's Six Early Trains.

Ex-State Treasurer Phil Metschan, now of the Imperial, Portland, returned from a visit at his home yard at Corvallis. He is just back from a trip to Los Angeles. Metschan is always conspicuous because of his portly appearance and prominent beard.

Dr. C. W. Lowe, the oculist, went to Lebanon.

Dr. Sheldon, of the U. O., arrived on his way to Lebanon to speak at the educational meeting.

Mrs. Tom Riley came over from Corvallis.

There was no wreck between Albany and Portland, as reported, but one up the Columbia.

William B. Turner, of Portland, yesterday in Wisconsin, paid $1000 for a neighborhood fancy cow, which he will bring to Oregon.

OBSERVED

By the Man About Town,

Work has begun on the second bunkers of the Albany Sand and Gravel Co., made necessary by the increasing business. The Company are kept busy delivering gravel and sand, both of which have proven a great thing for the cement and concrete work of the city.

The Pomona left down stream this morning about 10 o'clock. Among the shipments were the auto of J. B. Harrison, recently in the picture show business here, going to Portland.

An occasional talk about the proposed new eighty room hotel; but it has not assumed a shape that means business.

There is said to be another hotel proposition that is decidedly interesting, one at the Rhodes corner, First and Ferry streets. The plan is to put it on the corner, three or four stories high, and reaching west over the present Hulbert-Obling block and Dreamland, giving plenty of room for sleeping apartments, with all the modern conveniences of hot and cold water, baths, etc. It is a good location and promises plenty of backing.

Heard a man tell about an acre in Sunrise selling for $1,000. A popular suburban section all right.

The Colts are having the base ball ground beyond the depot rearranged, with all the seats in the grand stand, well covered. They expect some fast games the coming season.

Roy McClallen, of Roseburg, who killed Mahan, has been released on $7500 bail. The prosecution admits he was justified in firing the first shot, but not the last, a ridiculous contention. If the first was justifiable the last was also. It was all one act practically.

In a trout for an orator to represent the U. O. in the triangular state contest, between Or., Wash. and Idaho, Chas. Robinson was given the place, though Carlton Spencer was a tie ahead on percentage. Spencer has protested and there will be another tryout. It has caused considerable feeling.

Dr. Roland D. Grant, formerly of Portland, passed through the city from San Francisco to Portland on a visit, coming from the Atlantic. This was his 54th trip across the continent. Grant has lectured in Albany a number of times, once on the Yellowstone Park.
