TOMORROW'S DOINGS.

The Sabbath should be a great day to all the people of Albany. All the churches will hold their regular morning service at the usual time, and two great union services at the armory. At 3:30 p. m. the theme will be, The Meaning of Church Membership. It will be worth while to hear this address presented by the great soul winner, Dr. Riley, who for fifteen years has enjoyed a constant revival in the First Church of Minneapolis, in addition to holding numerous revivals in many of our largest cities.

Sunday evening the subject will be The Revival of a Dead Church. There is no slang nor sensationalism in the utterances or methods of the earnest preacher, but you will feel that his soul is a flame with divine truth. The music is first class. Albany is noted for her many good singers, and Prof. Guthrie has the large chorus in splendid form, a delight and inspiration to all.

It is planned that all the people of the city may get into these services tomorrow, the first Sabbath of the series, and the armory should be filled to its utmost capacity at both afternoon and evening services.

Come thou with us and we will do thee good.

Baptist.—S. S. 10:15 a. m. Preaching by the Pastor at 11 a. m. B. Y. P. U. 6:30 p. m. Union service in the armory in the evening.

First Presbyterian.—F. H. Geselbracht, Minister. Morning service 10:30, theme: A Preparatory Theme, Our Lord and Master. S. S. 11:45 with orchestra. C. E. 6:30. Union services in the armory at 3:30 and 7:30.

Christian.—Bible School begins at 10:15 a. m. Let every teacher, officer and pupil be in good time. Communion service and morning sermon follow the Bible school. C. E. 6:30 p. m. Services at the armory at 3 and 7:30 p. m.

St. Peter's (Episcopal).—Rev. Henry H. Marsden, Minister. Morning service and sermon 11 a. m. Evening prayer 7:30. S. S. 10 a. m. Evening subject The Church of the Apostolic Age. Lenten service Friday evening at 7:30. The Rev. P. K. Hammond of Eugene will preach.

Methodist.—3rd & Ellsworth St.—Rev. W. S. Gordon, Pastor. Preaching at 10:30 by Dr. Gaylord H. Patterson, Dean of Willamette University, Salem. S. S. 11:45. E. L. will meet promptly at 6:30. Topic: "Equipage for Service," leader, Everett Willard. Evening service in the armory.

United Presbyterian.—W. P. White, Pastor. The usual morning services at 10:30 and S. S. 11:45 a. m. The great meeting of the day, for the church, will be the armory meeting at 3 o'clock in the afternoon. The Pastor desires that all the members attend the afternoon meeting, even tho they may not be able to attend any other.

St. Mary's (Catholic).—Rev. Arthur Lane, Rector. Rev. John Van Noyel, Assistant. Third Sunday in Lent. Services at 8 and 10:30 a. m. Father Lane will officiate at the First Communion services in the morning and will preach in the evening on the subject of the 19th General Council of Trent in its relation to the Reformation. The public is cordially invited.

The Event of the Season.

Special efforts are being made to make "Ship Ahoy" the event of many seasons. The participants are practically perfect in their parts now. The only thing now is to keep at rehearsals so that use will make the amateurs more like professionals. The comedy is in competent hands and will cause screams of laughter. Miss Bee Ireland and Miss Laura Taylor are the prima donnas. Miss Margaret Morteith is the soubrette. Miss Ireland is the character woman, Mrs. Jones, and will cause much hilarity. The other parts are well cast and a great show will be produced. Next Friday and Saturday are the dates.

This year is going to see a lot of improvements in Central Addition. And a big advance in values there. Better get you a lot this spring from Collins & Taylor.

Some fine offices in the new Schmitt block, steam heated, hot and cold water, modern in every respect.

If So, Look Up These Bargains and Don't Wait Too Long.

Beautiful 3-room bungalow, inside finish can not be beat; plate rail, beam building, fireplace, just the prettiest little home in West Albany. Price very reasonable.

Fine suburban home, modern throughout, small amount of acreage. Parked for chickens. Plenty of fruit and flowers. A bargain. Price $5,000.

Farm of 80 acres, 60 acres in cultivation. 2 acres in grub oak timber, balance of land in pasture, well watered by creek the year round; 12 acres in young orchard. This is all A-No-1 land, most all rolling, good drainage, buildings not large but good, situated 3 miles from Albany. A bargain. Price $7,500.00 for a short time only.

For terms upon the above places call personally at my office. No information given by phone. I have a large list of properties in farm or city property and I know it will pay intending investors to call and see what I have to offer. See the old Reliable Real Estate Dealer.

MISFITS.

Albany has taken a southward movement.

The boys are getting ready for a swim.

The Oregon hen is getting ready for easter.

Some people knock as easily as a duck swim.

Mr. Newcomer, how do you like our spring climate.

A revival in a dance hall is rather slippery business.

The absolute need of a fifth school house speaks for Albany's growth.

A banquet for Teddy Roosevelt at $10 a plate will give the Portland lions a show.

The North Bank R. R. is mortgaged for $125,000,000, but that's a small matter to Hill.

Newberg, so easily beaten by Albany, wants to play Pendleton for the championship of the state. Rats.

The whole state would like to get a rope around the neck of the brute who murdered the five year old Portland girl.

Mayor Lachmund says there shall be no more prize fights in Salem. That's right. Albany doesn't allow such fakery. Only such places as Roseburg and Marshfield permit the disgrace.

Albany College.

The tryout to select debaters for the league debate with McMinnville college will be held at the college yesterday afternoon. Professors Irvine, Fio and Franklin acted as judges and selected men for two teams as follows: Reade Dowlin, Arthur Jones, Louis Jones and Alexander McLean.

Mrs. J. K. Weatherford read a paper entitled "A Trip Thru Sicily" before the meeting of the Avant Couriers, the college girls' literary society, on Thursday, very interesting and instructive.

Mr. R. Sheldon, an attorney of Portland, and an authority on forestry, a former president of the Oregon Academy of Science, was in Albany Thursday evening arranging plans for the annual meeting of this society April 28 and 29.

Farrisburg.

Bulletin: Mrs. J. L. Norwood died Tuesday at the age of 24 years.

Warner & Coolman have opened an architect office.

The home seeker is beginning to come. As usual Farrisburg need not look for many until after they have grown tired of the high cost of living in the larger places.

The first home seekers to arrive in this vicinity with the advent of the colonist rates are Mr. and Mrs. Josh Harget and daughter, and Mr. and Mrs. Cal Watley, of Charleston, Mo. Mr. Harget is a brother of Peter Harget.

County Fruit Inspector Rumbaugh arrived today and is making things interesting for some of the fellows who have not attended to their old trees. He says the conditions here are worse than any other part of the county he has visited.

First Communion Services.

A class of twenty-three children will receive their first holy communion at St. Mary's church tomorrow. The usual procession and ceremonial will be observed and the communicants will make their profession of faith at the evening service and renew before the altar the sacred promises of their baptism. Father Lane will address the class both morning and evening. A musical program suitable to the occasion will be rendered by the choir.

In the City.
