THE DEVIL IN DIVORCES

'Somebody Knows,' 'Glory for Me,' 'Showers of Blessings' and other hymns were sung with feeling, led by Prof. Guthrie. Rev. Gordon, who has been kept at home by illness, was present and gave the scripture reading. Rev. Douglas offered the prayer of the evening. Special music was that of a male chorus.

Dr. Riley spoke with judgment on the subject of the Devil in the Easy Divorce, a matter of every day concern. This was treated under three heads: the Devil's plan, the divine way, and possibilities. Most divorces are begun by women. The devil wants people to marry and separate as often as they like.

Under the divine appointment man and woman are made one upon marriage, equal, and they love the other as themselves. There is only one cause that justifies divorce.

A good many apt illustrations were given upon the subject to establish the fact that the devil is at the bottom of most of the divorces.

More of God's love is needed in married life, making the interest of the home supreme.

Unless divorced on scriptural grounds marriage should not be performed by a Christian minister.

This afternoon the subject was the Resurrection of Saints. Tonight it will be Is the Devil in the Modern Doubt. Tomorrow there will be meetings at 12:00, 3 p. m. and 7:30 p. m.

ALBANY

Prompt service at the Imperial. Bolt again at the Holt corner. A neat place, Holt's Meat Market. Fresh herring and smelt at Holt's. Choice lunches at the Vienna Bakery. Have your feet attended to by Mrs. Driver 230 Lyon, both phones.

Prof. Jackson has set July 10 to Aug. 19 for the regular summer review term. There was a runaway on Lyon street yesterday afternoon just as the Riley meetings were closing.

H. F. Meader and wife, of Medford, have been in the city on a visit with S. G. Sizena.

Miss Reasia Shepherd, of the Carlton school, arrived this noon on a visit with Miss Eakin of the Albany schools.

Mrs. Allan B. Seavey arrived this morning from California to attend the funeral of her father, W. B. Shannon.

A silver watch was stolen this week out of the building of the Greek section men near the railroad track, and the police are after the thief.

R. Rogoway & Sons have leased the new building of Chas. Fox, across from the Wigwam, for a second hand store, and it will be opened in a few days.

The window at Chambers & McCune's is undoubtedly the finest ever put up in this part of the state. The Portland store that equals it will have to get a hump on.

The police are after a man who attempted a criminal assault on Frank Bussard, son of M. Bussard. The man on a bicycle, asked the boy to ride with him, when the attempt was made, the man using a revolver, according to the story of the boy.

Shoes for the whole family. Look neat. Don't develop corns and bunions. Go to Burns Shoe Store.

Empire Photoplay Theatre

TONIGHT

'By the King's Order.'—A picture of medieval France, with the men at arms, the castles, and all the ancient things of interest with a thrilling story.

'A Sin Unpardonable.'—The scene of this play is laid in the Canadian lumber camps. A strong story that appeals to all.

'The Misses Finch and Billy.'—Billy is a second 'Peck's Bad Boy,' and his aunts are all old maids. There are many complications, of course, and lots of laugh.

Miss Croso, singing 'By the Old Mill Stream.'

Admission 10 cents.

DREAMLAND THEATRE

TONIGHT

1. The Sophomore's Romance.—This is a comedy by the Essany Chicago Company, and is the best of their recent comedy productions.

2. Scenes—Home, Sweet Home. 3. In the Days of Chivalry.—A sumptuous production dealing with the time of brave knights and lovely, but hapless, maidens.

4. Illustrated Song—'I Like You Just Because.'

5. Sea Birds in Their Haunts.—This is an exceptionally fine hand-colored film and one that was taken at a great risk to the photographers. The birds are all shown at close quarters with scenes of bird life that very few people have the privilege of seeing.

6. The Tables are Turned.—A comedy in which Betty for once gets the best of her dad. You can't help but laugh—it's funny.

Admission 10c.

LEBANON

Will Have New Hotel and Another Brick.

P. M. Scroggin, S. M. Garland, S. P. Bach, J. C. Mayer and Alex Power are back of a project for a new hotel, to be three stories, concrete, 60 by 140 feet and have 60 rooms, modern throughout. The county Sunday School convention was held this week, 25 schools being represented. Good programs were rendered and reports showed the county work prosperous. The following officers were elected: J. H. Mears, Shedd, president; M. W. Williams, Lacomb, vice president; Clara Weber, Brownsville, secretary and treasurer. The next convention will be held at Brownsville.

J. C. Devine has contracted to sell the old St. Charles corner, 66 by 159 feet, to Dennis Cormier, a well known drummer, for $12,000. A deposit has been made on it, and all when submitted to Mr. Cormier's attorney. He proposes to erect a fine brick building on it, believing in Lebanon's future.

The Col Made a Hit.

Col. Mercer, a Eugene man, lectured in Corvallis Thursday night, and got it in the head. The G.-T. says that about two hundred people attended and were repaid by the singing of Hallie Parrish Hinges, that 'unless Col. Mercer needs the money, unless a matter of bread and butter with him, there can be no good reason for his continuing on the lecture platform.' He principally excited sympathy according to the G.-T.

Same Old Game.

St. Petersburg, March 24.—Russia is on the point of addressing to China an ultimatum fixing the date for entire satisfaction of her demands. The Chinese replies to Russia's successive notes dealing with the demands of Russia in Mongolia have described by the Russian government as conciliatory, but the text in each case has been unsatisfactory.

The Weather.

Range of temperature 51-39. Rainfall .08 inch. The river has continued to rise and is 5.2 feet. Prediction: fair tonight, with frosts Sunday morning.

The Student Engineer.

Leroy C. Rulifson, of the O. A. C., has been in the city today in the interest of the Student Engineer, issued by the school. This is a very creditable periodical, speaking for the splendid work of this department. It is issued regularly in large numbers at a cost of 18 cents a copy, selling for 15c, or $1 a year. The extra expense is made up in advertisements, and Mr. Rulifson was here securing some from general advertisement.

The funeral of W. B. Shannon will be held Sunday at 2 p. m. at the Fortmiller undertaking parlors, instead of tomorrow.

BIG PIANO DEAL CLOSED

With Woodworth Drug Co Ten Year Contract.

One of the largest factory contracts ever consummated in the Willamette Valley was closed last evening, when the factory traveler representing the S. W. Miller Piano Co. of Sheboygan, Wis., quietly stepped off the 6:40 train, walked into Woodworth's department drug store and closed a deal that represents hundreds of pianos and a sum of money running well up into six figures. Albany will be made a distributing point for a large territory by Mr. Woodworth's securing exclusive control of this well known piano and player piano, his contract dating ahead ten years, to 1921.

With a tone as pure as the voice of the lark, the artistic S. W. Miller piano has conquered the entire coast territory.

Less than two years ago the S. W. Miller Piano Co. enlarged their factory at Sheboygan, Wis., to more than double its former capacity; and to help take care of this increased output, opened up the Pacific coast territory, placing their excellent line of pianos and player pianos with the best known and best rated business men of this section. The success of the S. W. Miller Piano Co. has been so great that even with their enlarged plant they have found it a big task to fill the orders they are constantly receiving. A large shipment of the well known S. W. Miller pianos and player pianos has just been received by the Woodworth Drug Co.

IS SPRING SEWING A BURDEN

Most women prefer to plan and do their own sewing.

The task of operating a sewing machine by foot soon grows wearisome—sometimes dangerous—even to robust women.

A small electric motor may be placed on any sewing machine—the power and speed is controlled by the foot, leaving both hands free.

The cost of operation is about equal to that of an ordinary lamp, but the sewing can be done in half the time it would take by foot power.

The Electric Sewing Machine Motor makes the Sewing Burden a Pleasant Occupation.
