The Five Left.

Brownsville Times: Because of the death and burial of Elisha G. Sperry, which brought Mrs. Phoebe Collins, a sister, from Red Bluff, Calif., to Brownsville, and because of a visit made by Marshall Hill of Hood River, Oregon, to his sister, Mrs. A. W. Stannard; the five remaining charter members of the First Baptist church of this city were brought together. These five honored old people got together Wednesday morning and had their pictures taken. The five are A. W. Stannard, Mrs. A. W. Stannard, and Mrs. Ship, of Brownsville; Marshall Hill, of Hood River, Oregon, and Mrs. Phoebe Collins, of Red Bluff, Calif.

MISFITS.

Do your best and keep at it.
Don't be a sucker on April 1st.
Excuses are a good thing to bury.
Never be a kicker on April fool's day.
Keep a stiff upper lip through thick and thin.
That ground hog theory was knocked into a jelly fish.
It is a dull day that doesn't see some French aviator take a fall.
April fool's day, but some people don't wait that long to be fools.
March beat the record for good weather. Will April be a walker.
Never be discouraged in a righteous cause. Or if you are, don't show it.

The Portland Telegram is busy these days making the asylum scandal grow.

A Portland saloon keeper debases himself by having an open Bible in his show window, with some passages marked: "One drink no longer water, but use a little wine for thy stomach's sake and thine often infirmities." Just before, not marked, are the words: "Keep thyself pure," and the modern liquor business is the essence of impurity. Just after: "Some men's sins are open before hand, going before to judgment." In another chapter: "Not given to wine, no striker, not greedy of filthy lucre, but patient, not a brawler, no covetous." The average saloon is the center of the brawling business.

To Milk Customer.

After the 1st of April milk customers taking 1 pint of milk per day will have to pay 5 cts. a pint. Quarts and over will be the same price as before.
