EASTER OFFERINGS

PRE-EASTER THOUGHTS.

This store is full of new spring offerings for the joyful Easter time. The Millinery Department of course will attract the largest crowds. Every woman must have her new SPRING BONNET for Easter wear. We are prepared to serve you and to show a most beautiful assortment of styles newest creations in ladies hats. LARGE HATS, LITTLE HATS, MEDIUM SIZED HATS—please your own taste. Fashion is not particular about the size, whatever becomes you most. The LITTLE MISSES must also be remembered. We have a splendid stock to meet the particular demands with. A beautiful assortment of stylish little bonnets. Then there are Waists, Lingerie Waists, daintily and neatly made of filmy batiste, daintily trimmed with embroideries and laces. Some have a bit of color, coral or blue, at the neck, or worked in the front. Long and short sleeves.

SILK STOCKINGS have become more a necessity than a luxury where the pumps and low Oxfords are worn. The kind with the reinforced heels and toes of Lisle or Linen will give wear and satisfaction.

GLOVES—The best of gloves. The only kind worth store space. We have quit experimenting. Only the best makes are featured at this store. You get money's worth and satisfaction from our Glove Department. There are many other necessities such as VEILS, UNDERWEAR, NECKWEAR, CORSETS, HANDKERCHIEFS, ETC. You will find us amply prepared to show you the season's most fashionable wearing apparel. Don't let the week slip nearly by before attending to your Easter shopping.

THIS MORNING AT THE COURT HOUSE.

News from Albany's Six Early Trains.

Quite a crowd went to Brownsville to attend the Presbytery and the Presbyterial of the Presbyterian church, among them Mrs. Geselbracht, Mrs. Dr. Franklin, Mrs. George W. Simpson, Mrs. Mrs. Bouley, Mrs. Winn, Mrs. Martin, Mrs. Rev. Knotts, the Misses Pratt, and Miss Olmstead of this city, and Capt and Mrs. Crawford, Mrs. Horner and others, of Corvallis.

Also, the renowned Rev. J. R. N. Bell, of Corvallis, went to Brownsville. On account of his coming trip to Mt. Moriah Palestine, he is already becoming famous. He and Prof. Horner expect to start in May.

Hon. W. R. Bilyeu, Councilman L. C. Marshall, R. K. Ohling and George Taylor went to Corvallis to attend a session of the grand council of Royal Arch Masons. Corvallis is making big preparations for the easter service next Sunday, when several hundred Albany people will go over on a special train.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Kirk left for Brownsville on a visit with Mr. Kirk's folks. Mr. Kirk recently sold his barber shop at Hoquiam, Wash., and expects to locate somewhere in Oregon. Why not in Albany.

W. W. Ashby, the pavement man, came over from Corvallis. Mr. Geo. Loveall arrived from Lebanon.

Mr. and Mrs. T. P. Hackleman went to Lebanon for a visit with their daughter and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Ritchie left for their home in Alberta, after a visit with the former's brother, Wm. Ritchie.

Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Langdon left on a Portland trip.

A little cash will handle on of the best "BUY" of the season in Central Addition. Strictly a resident district Ask Collins & Taylor about them.
