A Hint to the Wise Is Sufficient

There are circumstances that arise that make it advisable for merchants to dispose of their stocks at greatly reduced prices. A given time to close out a stock means that prices must be put so low that it will move regardless of former cost. People who are anxious to take advantage of such savings will hold off their buying a short time and profit by closing out prices. Watch this space for later announcements. You will be interested in what we will have to say.

THIS MORNING

News from Albany's Six Easy Trains

J. R. Metzgar, who has charge of the big log drive of the Spaulding Lumber Co., returned to Waterloo and beyond, where the drive of about ten million feet is getting a start. Mr. Metzgar has thirty men with him, and they make from a mile to two miles a day down the narrow stream. They are near Foster.

Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Shaw and son and Mrs. Royal Shaw and son, returned to Mill City, where Mr. Shaw is at the head of the big Curtis Lumber Co's. business during the absence of his father. Four hundred men are employed in all, about two hundred at the mill, where an immense lumber making business is done.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Pollak went to Portland on the early train, taking their blooded Coolie shepherd dog, Duke, which they will enter in the big dog show, and find out just how he points.

Mrs. Dollie Houck Waggoner, of Lebanon, came down to see her aunt, Mrs. Burmester, in the hospital receiving treatment. Mrs. Waggoner was a former Albany "girl," thirty years ago a member of the famous Ladies Band.

Superintendent Fields and party after spending the night at Albany left on an early freight train in their special car, while on a trip seeing the road at close quarters.

W. A. Cox, the brick mason, left for Brownsville, where he has a flue and fireplace, his specialties, to build. He reports a good deal of work ahead in Albany, among others some fine fireplaces for Dr. R. B. Wallace and Chas. Pfeiffer.

Mrs. Prof. L. L. Gilbert, of Sweet Home, returned home after a visit with Mrs. Wm. Morgan.

J. D. Guiss, the drug drummer, formerly of this city, went up the C. & E. H. N. Cockerline, went up into the hills on insurance business.

X. Y. Boom and daughter went to Corvallis.

Mrs. Lindsey, of Seattle, after a trip through California, and a visit with her cousin, Mrs. S. S. Gilbert left for home Mrs. Roy Yates went to Corvallis. Lawyer C. E. Sox went to Portland. Prof. Wilson went to Portland to hear Elmon, the famous Russian violinist.

Rev. S. A. Douglas went to Salem. Rev. Lacey of Lebanon, went to Salem.

S. A. Dawson left on a Scio trip. Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Fisher and Earl Fisher, went to Portland to attend the funeral of Mrs. Claud Fisher, a daughter-in-law of Ralph Fisher, who died this week.

BASE BALL

High School Beat the S. P.

It looked like a close game in the beginning of the contest between the high school and S. P. last evening while before dark. Walter Birtchet pitched a shut out game for a couple of innings, very effective, but the wiry students got onto the trick in the third and piled up three runs quickly. Smith pitched the remainder of the game. The other three runs were made in one inning. Douglas pitched for the high school a strong game, with nothing doing until the last inning. The high school team has developed several tricks that work well, and are now strong both in batting and fielding at every point. The lineup were:

High School.—C. Bigbee c, Douglas p, Ryalls, Noland, M. Bigbee basemen, Kennard ss, L. Bigbee, Bruce and Hecktor fielders.
S. P.—Cox c, Birtchet and Smith pitchers, Marquam 1b, Smith and Birtchet 2d, Stalnaker 3b, Baker ss, Mickel, Birtchet and Newlin fielders.
The S. P. made 3 errors, did not steal a base and 4 hits, Marquam getting 2, W. and H. Birtchet each 1. The high school boys made 4 errors, stole 8 bases and made 5 hits, Douglas leading with 2, Bruce, Noland and L. Bigbee each 1. Umpires Bain and Myers.

The next game will be played tomorrow night between the merchants and P. B. It is said all the Colt players will withdraw from these Twilight games, which will take out the Patterson brothers, Baker, Mickel, Carter Lee and Wynia; but the games will go on the same. They give Albany people an opportunity to see week-day games, and are an encouragement to the best game played.

A Fine Concert.

The sacred concert given by the Presbyterian choir under the direction of Mrs. Flo was a complete success. The good sized audience was highly entertained and inspired. The selections rendered by the orchestra and Mr. Wilson were excellent. The rendering of the "Crucifixion" by the 35 voices clearly shows what efficient training and persistent practice will accomplish. Mrs. Flo is to be congratulated.

Reddy Rupert Coming.

Manager Schultz has at last closed terms for Rupert's Rubes of Portland on Sunday next Reddy Rupert with his famous bunch of ball tossers will appear on the Albany diamond. Red has the fastest semi professional team in Portland and his reputation is state wide.

THE 4TH AT ALBANY.

A meeting was held at the commercial club rooms last night to begin arrangements for a 4th of July celebration here this year. The opinion was that the city should have a celebration annually, keeping the money at home, as people are bound to go somewhere. J. N. Chambers was elected chairman.

The following committee was appointed on securing subscriptions for the event and will soon name the time for seeing our business men: George Rolfe, Claire Dawson, Owen Beam, J. O. Lee, D. C. Burkhardt and Frank Whitaker. If there is a celebration the men benefited the most financially should put up liberally, not leave it for others.

The Academy of Science.

Prof. David Torbet says his subject at the Academy of Science, to begin here Friday at 10 a. m., is just straight mathematics, not hypotheses, as reported. This convention of scholars promises to be an interesting one, and Albany people should take a live interest in it. Following are the officers: J. D. Lee president, W. N. Ferrin, John F. Bovard, H. S. Jackson, vice-presidents, F. W. Power secretary, A. E. Yoder treasurer, A. W. Miller curator and librarian. Executive council: J. D. Lee, F. W. Power, A. L. Kniesly and A. E. Yoder.

Program committee: A. L. Kniesly, W. N. Ferrin, A. W. Miller and H. S. Jackson.

Committee on resolutions: A. W. Miller, Jane Stearns and M. E. Peck.

Capital and Labor.

The interest at the S. D. A. church, where a series of lectures are being held, is on the increase. "War between Capital and Labor," last night was listened to with a marked interest. It is evident that the controversy will not be settled by human effort, but by Him with whom we all have tederal, described in Jas. 5:18.

"The Greatest Coming Event" will be the subject tonight, one that should be heard by all who may have an interest to look into the future.

Lecture.

Friday afternoon at 3 p. m. at the home of Mrs. Garrett, Miss Brown of Washington, will give a lecture on Social Purity, followed by a social hour. Free will offering. You are invited.
