WILLIAMS' JUBILEE SINGERS AT CHAUTAUQUA.

This company is composed of a double quartette—a Ladies' Quartette and a Male Quartette, and their songs vary from the opera to the Negro boat and cabin songs. They possess highly cultivated voices of great natural richness of tone, and they add to their music the fascination of graceful motion and changing facial expression. They do not sing like "wooden images," as is so often said of singers of other races, but are keenly alive to their finger tips; the gesture, pose and pantomime being executed with a harmony and decision which furnishes a feast to the eye, while the music delights the ear. To years of constant devotion to their life work in the United States and Canada, this company have added a year of travel and study in England, Scotland, Wales, Holland, Belgium, Germany and France, giving 130 performances in London, and singing in many of its best known theatres, among which was the world famous Coliseum.

THE GLORIOUS 4TH.

The 4th of July is an event that deserves to be generally celebrated, and along same lines. It speaks for a great event in the history of the world. Every loyal citizen of the U. S. needs to appreciate its significance. It celebrates the making of a free nation, untrammelled by royalty, a government by the people. Our forefathers builded well, and for 125 years we have been adding to the structure. It is true that many mistakes have been made; but the building altogether has been well done, when the heterogeneous character of our people is considered, and we have a strong nation, the greatest on the earth. Annually we celebrate the day of its starting. While the celebrations may have become greatly commercial there is nevertheless behind it all a spirit of loyalty that is excelled nowhere in the world, and there is not an American citizen who is not ready at a moment's call to go to the front, more than that, to punish even an insult to the flag at the instant it is made.

It is not well to get cranky because celebrations are not run just to suit every individual, but to get in and have a good time, in just as clean and sensible a way as possible.
