DOINGS OF THE WORLD

Seattle's great Potlach is to hatch out on July 17 and last over the 22nd. The receipts of the Corvallis post office for the past year were $18,320.84. Seattle has a bid of $1.45 for asphalt paving, the lowest yet made for that kind of pavement.

The Brownsville Times whacks the county court because it does not make a fill-in for the bridge at that city.

D. E. Vernon has gotten back into the Oakland Owl, and there will be some more hooting, for Dave knows how.

The man arrested at Corvallis as a suspect of the Yoncalla hold-up was released. Johnny Myers faced him and said he was not one of the men.

Jay McCormick and two other Eugene men yesterday up the McKenzie caught a 16 pound Dolly Varden trout, work up two hours before landing it.

The Santa Rosa, a coast steamer, was stranded near Surf, Calif., yesterday and four of the officers and crew drowned in attempting to get a line to the beach.

President Taft, the Unitarian president yesterday delivered an address to the International Christian Endeavor Convention at Atlantic City. He spoke along peace lines and the promotion of relationships that will work for peace.

Numerous new potatoes at 3 cents a bushel, which is $1.80 a bushel, good eating, though golden.

The finest blackberries of the season, with a few strawberries, lagging behind, and raspberries, and black caps between.

Johnny Goin's Chautauqua rig. He has established a concession at the Chautauqua grounds, which he calls Goin' and Comin'. It moves any old or new things to and from the grounds and will take care of packages there.

The Lebanon-Foster Road.

A. A. White, who is running two auto stages and two auto trucks between Lebanon and Foster was before the county court this week urging the court to fix the road between Lebanon and Foster. Among other things a gasoline roller costing about $3,000 is asked for. The road should be made a good one. The travel is big in the summer.

"The Sheriff's Chum."—A wild west story, full of life and excellent acting. Good scenery.

"The Buried Past."—Two convicts leave prison at the same time. One goes the right road, the other the wrong road. The interest is intense throughout, with high dramatic work portrayed. An excellent sermon well portrayed.

"In the Province of Quang Tong."—Showing the people of China at their various occupations, and their habits.

"Solving the Servant Problem."—One of those roaring comedies by the Eclipse company, where a lot of trick photography is seen.

FLOYD RAMP AN ORATOR.

Floyd Ramp, of Salem, state organizer for the Socialists, delivered an address in the streets of Brownsville Friday evening. Mr. Ramp is a brilliant speaker and of course presented strong argument for the cause he represents.

Mr. Ramp, who got his start in the world carry the Democrat, is making socialism his life work. After graduating from the U. O. at Eugene he went deep into the subject, and those who have talked with him say he is chuck full of the subject, and that you can't talk ten seconds with him without the subject coming to the top. While lecturing at Salem recently he was arrested for selling his literature on the streets, without a license, but that of course did not disturb him, and he is out in the open hustling for his cause.

An N. G. Co. at Lebanon.

The E. A.—Colonel G. O. Yoran of Eugene and Major C. B. Winn of Albany were in Lebanon a few days ago interviewing some of our citizens in regard to organizing a state militia company at this place. It is said the gentlemen met with some encouragement in regard to forming a company in Lebanon. It will take 75 members to organize a company.

Down at Jefferson.

Review:—W. O. Sheppard was down from Lebanon Friday. He will move back to Jefferson as soon as he can get possession of his residence property. They all come back.

G. E. Metzger came down from Albany Thursday to do the plumbing in a new farm house north of town. Gus is a good workman in that line.

PARK GIFT WITHDRAWN.

The following was filed with Recorder Redfield at 11 a. m. today:

To the honorable city council of the city of Albany in Linn county, Oregon: WHEREAS, the city of Albany, Oregon, is in great need of a city park for the accommodation of its citizens, its guests and the public, and

WHEREAS, we recognize that the energy, push and wisdom of the citizens of Albany in building up the city has added no little to the increased valuation of our property, and recognizing this obligation and wishing to further the interest of the city and benefit its people to the extent of our ability, we, on the 8th day of March, 1911, offered to convey to the city about forty-four acres of ground adjoining the city at the West end of First street, known as Bryant Park, as a free gift to be used by said city as a city park, and

WHEREAS, the property was our own, we thought we were entitled to state the conditions upon which said gift should be made, and did therefore append to said offer certain conditions intended to remove the said park from the politics of the city, to insure its orderly use and occupancy, and to aid in the upbuilding of morality and good citizenship in the city, and

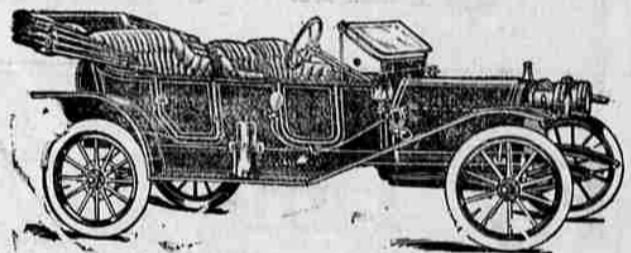

WHEREAS, this Honorable Council has differed with us as to the conditions of said gift, and hesitates to accept it and place the city in a position to comply with its conditions and desiring not to further embarrass the Honorable Council of the city,

We, Now, Therefore, thank the council for bearing with us and given us the opportunity to state our reasons for withdrawing our said proposal from the further consideration of the Council, and will put the said premises to other uses.

Dated July 8th, 1911.

YOU THINK YOU CAN'T AFFORD A CAR

And so deny your family the happiness they so much deserve.

But the ride the man takes in his Hupmobile does not cost him a cent more than the cigars one smokes. 7500 owners say the cost of running a Hupmobile will not average 25 cents per day. And when you consider that the Hupmobile Touring Car costs but $1000 in the first place there's no excuse for not getting one now.

that it is to your own best interest to buy your clothing of whose methods are legitimate, whose prices are in keeping with the season.

Just at present we are making reductions on our summer and medium weights. The quotation of prices in an advertisement conveys no meaning, as any old price might be placed on a piece of underwear, clothing, shirt, or anything else, and without you see the goods for yourself, how can you tell what we are talking about in the advertisement?

No one coming to us will be allowed to be disappointed in the price of our merchandise at the present sale of any of our goods offered.

See our materials and ask us the price. We will be pleased to tell you, as we are here to serve you.
