FINAL CLEANUP

All Ladies Summer Suits, Skirts Dresses and Waists to go Regardless of Former Prices

The season is drawing to a close. We still have a few summer garments that MUST go.

30 TAILORED WHITE WAISTS, tucked and plain effects, nearly all of them this season's styles, values to $2.50 and $3.50, while they last only 85c each.

Twenty Wash Suits in White, Tan and Blue, the jackets all a little out of style but the skirts are all good. Formerly selling as high as $10.00. Your choice while they last, $1.49. Just the thing for your outing.

A few Linen, natural color, Skirts. New styles, $3.00 values. Yours for $1.85.

Several Lingerie dresses, values $4.00, for only $1.98.

A few white serge and Panama SKIRTS, JACKETS and SUITS that will be priced very low.

All the articles will be put out where you can easily see them. Surely there are several that you can use. The PRICE we ask will not stand BETWEEN you and your CHOICE. FIRST HERE gets the PICK you know. Better COME EARLY. 2nd FLOOR.

YOU MAY ADMIRE the clever advertising which draws you to a store, but you won't go again if the promises made are the "pie crust" kind. YOU MUST ADMIRE, however, the store where promises are more than fulfilled, where you get better things than you expected at a less price than you expected to pay. That's the kind of store this is.

The greatest motorcycle event that takes place in the world, was held recently in England in the form of an endurance race, known as the "Senior Tourist Trophy road event."
The importance of this event is known the world over, it is a run of five laps around a thirty-seven and one-half mile circuit; it is held once each year and is open to any and all motorcycles in the world. This year there were sixty-seven entrants.
And again the Indian motorcycle proved its superiority by winning, first, second and third places in this event.
Better stop and have a look at the wonderful Indian, at Baltimore's Bicycle Shop.

THIS MORNING

News from Albany's Six Early Trains.

Two car loads of cows and hogs came over from Corvallis on their way to the California state fair at Sacramento, the property of Domes & McCoy of McCoy, Polk county, consisting of thirty-two head of Jerseys and thirty-two of Berkshire and Hampshire hogs, a fine looking herd of prize winners.

Jack Callahan, who has had charge of the Warren Co's office at this city, went to Corvallis for friends on Friday. He made numerous friends in Albany by his pleasant ways.

President Crooks returned from a trip to Lebanon in the interest of endowment and students, and went to Portland. It is figured that $350 a day added to the endowment for a little over a year will accomplish what has been sought, and this has been done during the summer so far.

W. H. Jenkins, traveling passenger agent, went north.
Mr. and Mrs. Z. H. Rudd left for Astoria and Seaside for a summer's trip.

Mr. Sutherland, old schoolmate of J. A. Shaw, left for Portland for a visit with some more Shaws before returning to Canada.

R. L. Burton, the piano dealer, left on a Saturday trip.
E. F. Martin, the photographer went to Seio again, this time taking his gun for a deer hunt also.

Mr. and Mrs. D. C. McClung and baby left for their home at Rainier, after a visit with Mrs. McClung here and relatives elsewhere.

Miss Addie Stewart arrived from Roseburg on a visit at Ben Kirk's.

Ed. Barrett went to Portland to order a light running delivery wagon. F. G. Will asked him down.

J. Woods Smith, a prominent Portland man, went to Newport.

W. R. Hoover went up to Hoover at the end of the track.

Geo. Buhl, a leading Lebanon merchant, went to the Bay.

Miss Minerva Cook, daughter of an old eastern friend of Lawyer Van Tassel, returned to Portland after an Albany visit of several days.

Oscar Ingram, of Lebanon, went to Corvallis on a business trip.

Mrs. T. P. Hackleman went to Lebanon for a visit with her daughter and family.

Farmer Jones went down to Millers again to look after the crops.

Mrs. Julia Ringo and Miss Nora Michael went to the Bay for a few days outing.

The Weather.

Range of temperature 93-49.
That of the day before was 88-50, two warm days.
Prediction: fair tonight and Thursday. The river is down another .7 of a foot.

See Brandy about it, when you want anything in the meat line, groceries, fruit or produce, in the new market at Second and Lyon street.

APPLE FAIR PREMIUMS.

The executive board of the apple fair committee met last evening and arranged the following premiums for next November's fair, which are published early that producers may know what they are working for and prepare for big exhibits at the show:

Class A.—Grand prize for best county exhibit of twenty or more boxes of apples, not less than five varieties, first prize $50, cash and $100 cup; 2d, $30; 3d, $25. Any valley county but Linn may compete for this prize. To become the possessor of the $100 silver cup, it must be won three times by one county. Up to the present time Marion county has captured the prize once, and Lane county twice.

Class B.—A community exhibit for Linn county only, to consist of ten or more boxes of three or more varieties, first prize $50, cash and $100 cup; 2d, $30; 3d, $25. It is hoped that every community in Linn county will compete for this prize.

Class C.—This is free for all, and is to be an exhibit of five or more boxes of three or more varieties. First prize, $25; 2d prize, $15; 3d, $10.

Class D.—This is the single box exhibit, in which a first and second prize of $5.00 and $3.00 is given for each of the following varieties: Yellow Newtown, Spitzenberg, King, Baldwin, Red Cheek Spitzberg, Ben Davis, Grimes Golden, Jonathan, Wagner, Stark, Black Twig, Gano, Northern Spy, Rome Beauty, Waxen and Ortley.

Class E.—Best box of apples, commercial pack, 1st prize $15; 2d prize $10.

Class F.—Best display on plates of ten or more varieties, 1st prize $5.00; 2d prize $3.00.

Class G.—For the best plate of each of the following pears a first and second prize of $2.00 and $1.00 will be given. Comice, Clairo, Airjon, Vicar of Wakefield, Idaho and Winter Nellis.

Class H.—A first and second prize of $5.00 and $3.00 will be given for the best display of pears on plates of five or more varieties.

Class I.—For the best display of domestic fruit in glass a first and second prize of $15.00 and $10.00 will be given.

Class J.—Special premium exhibit. This is not yet completed, and will be given later.
