THURSDAY.
ROLLED
And $66 Secured of a Man from Hoover.

Upon complaint of Frank McQuillam W. F. Migrard was placed in the city jail this forenoon pending an investigation of an experience of McQuillam, who recently came down from Hoover, where he has been working. According to the version of McQuillam he met a fancy woman named Merrill, and was taken to a room in the California rooming house for the night. They had with them some beer, which Chief of Police Munkers was informed was gotten at the Franklin. This morning when McQuillam awoke the woman was gone. It was learned that she went to the depot in an auto with Migrard and left on the 4:18 for Portland. Migrard asserts that he had nothing to do with the rolling of McQuillam.

At press time the case had not been disposed of.

It is also said a man at Independence was rolled for $130 and that the same woman was mixed up in the affair.

H. R. Schultz left this afternoon on a business trip to Forest Grove.

Dennis Merrill has gone down the west side in his auto on a business trip. 79 1/2 cents is the Portland price of wheat, which means about 70 cents here.

W. B. Potts, of Raymond, Ill., is here on a visit with L. L. Potts and father.

Mr. and Mrs. John Thomas returned this morning from a visit in Lane county.

Miss May Montgomery returned this noon from a west side trip and went to Eugene.

George Clark and family, of Lebanon, returned this noon from their Newport outing.

Dr. and Mrs. Leeper, of Waldport, arrived this noon to look after the Dr.'s North Albany property.

The first auto ever at Fort Blanco, the most western point in the U. S., reached the lighthouse yesterday.

Leslie M. Scott, son of the late Harvey Scott yesterday began his duties as U. S. marshal at Portland.

Scott Ward and family are taking their summer's outing at Cascadia, on Lion county's most popular summer resort.

Mrs. Aldrich, of Roseburg, left for home this afternoon after a visit with her sister, Mrs. A. L. Ryder, of North Albany.

Register B. F. Jones and wife, of Roseburg, were in the city this noon on their way home from an outing at Newport.

Supt. Jackson is just sending out 500 copies of the school law to all the officers of the county, who will now be informed of the latest laws.

Elias Truax, who has been working on the Deschutes road a year and over, has returned to Linn county, most of the men having been laid off.

Rockey Willis is getting ready to have a couple of cottages built on his property on Fifth street near Jackson, to be used for rental, a chance for some one in a few weeks getting a fine place for a home.

An Albany lady has a couple of shamrocks with four leaves, and is wondering if that is a rarity in Ireland's favorite, which usually, like our clovers has only three leaves. Anyway it ought to bring good luck.

There was a fire alarm last night awhile after 9 o'clock. It was sounded in the box at Jackson and Fifth street, and the fellow who did it was seen to run up street at full speed. It looks as if it was a case of trouble.

Hon. F. J. Miller, who was threatened with typhoid fever, is gradually improving at the Foley springs, where he has been for a couple weeks. He had a fall, bruising one of his sides some, but is up and around part of the day.

County Clerk Willard Marks and wife arrived home yesterday afternoon from their Cascadia outing, where they had a great time. Mr. Marks made a reputation as end man and Mrs. Marks in fighting yellow jackets.

Miss Lucille Hart left this noon for Palo Alto, where she will finish her college course the coming year at Stanford. She was to be joined at Eugene by Miss Evah Cushman, of Acme, also a former Albany College student.

Mrs. F. W. Strickland, wife of an S. P. brakeman, attempted to commit suicide at Roseburg by taking poison, but it failed. She then left for The Dalles, her husband accompanying her to the train. It was said they had quarrelled, but he said he was only teasing his wife.

Hon. P. H. D'Aacy and sister, of Salem were in the city last evening on their way home from Cascadia, where Mr. D'Aacy was the life of the crowd for a few weeks, splendid as a Shakespearean reader, and equal to a professional as an interlocutor in a minstrel show, a wit and a statesman.

J. W. Dickover on his way to Albany last evening from the Ideal Fruit Farm had a puncture of his tire. He had another tube put in and there was another puncture and a ruined rim. While waiting for a new one from Portland Mr. Dickover is spending the day in Albany.

Cottage Grove Lender: Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Locke and son of Corvallis, and Mr. and Mrs. S. R. Willis and daughter, of Albany, have been guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Willis for the past few days. The Willis family made the trip from Albany in their fine new Cadillac touring car, and the whole party spent Sunday at London Springs.

The actual cost of paving a running foot along the property of the Democrat man on Washington street, was $5.45. This may vary slightly, according to amount of excavation, alleys, etc., but represents about the average at present prices, and means an expense of a little over $600, where one has property reaching half way along a block,

News from Albany's Six Early Trains.

Dr. Olive K. Beers left for Chicago to assume her work as superintendent of one of the Eleanor Clubs, this time being at the head of No. 2. Mrs. Beers assists Miss Robertson also in the general work of the Clubs, a splendid work in Chicago, giving girls homes under the right influence, something that has attracted a good deal of favorable attention. During the summer Mrs. Beers was the guest of her sister, Mrs. H. Bryant, who accompanied her to Salem to spend the day, and for several weeks was a leader in the good times of the Albany colony at Cascadia. Her many friends here hope to see her return to Albany to remain.

Geo. E. Sanders, of the Pacific Telephone Co. left for Brownsville and other places with the new directories, which he is personally delivering and looking after the work in his district. The Pacific was a pioneer in reaching out into the foot hills, and now there is hardly a farm house that is not in connection with the rest of the world.

Dr. Ferguson left for Corvallis in the interest of Albany College. Some of the best endowment support has come from other college towns, where prominent members of the Presbyterian church wish to assist in keeping the Albany college an important factor in the work of education.

Mrs. C. A. Curran went to Shelburn on a visit with the Blatchford boys.

Mrs. Pittman left for Woodburn.

Albany Men in Eugene's Lock Up

Register—Judge Bryson, of the municipal court, held a little seance yesterday morning with seven drunks who were gathered in by the night police Tuesday evening. They report that almost all of them got off the 11:30 car and were too drunk to get anywhere and a good bed was found for them at the city jail. George Kelley, M. N. Miller, Mike Bush and James Lanto pleaded guilty and a fine of $10 each. Frank Adams pleaded guilty but had no money and is in jail for five days. Ham Wyatt and W. Burns pleaded not guilty and their cases has not been disposed of. They may fight the legality of the arrest as they claim they were not drunk. Four of the young men live in Albany and came up to have a time at Springfield and they found quarters in the Eugene lockup.

Junctions' Punks

The Democrat appreciates a ticket to the Junction punkin show Sept. 28, 29 and 30. The Secretary says: "We are going to have a fine exhibit and we want you to see it." Great Jack-o'-lantern, but we would like to. If there is a weak spot around us it is punkin pie, and our mouth waters at the mention of it.

Going East.

Rolla Bruce and Darwin Carnegie leave tonight for the east together, as far as Omaha, where Rolla will take the train north for Luverne, Minn., where he will reside with his grand father and go to school for a year. He has been one of the high school's best foot ball and base ball players. Darwin goes to Schenectady, N. Y., to spend a year in the headquarters of electrical engineering in the U. S. Both fine young men.

The Weather.

Range of temperature 44-49.
The river is 7 of a foot.

Ordinances were passed providing for surpluses on pavement on Ferry, Washington and Third streets.

A second cleanup cart was ordered, and another man will be employed to assist in keeping the streets clean, the one in use being very satisfactory.

Four Features.

The Empire Photoplay Theatre has an all-feature program, showing the big "Fire at Coney Island," the "Elysian Convention Parade" at Atlantic City, besides a fine Vitagraph drama "Ends of the Earth," and a roaring comedy by the Lubin company, "Higgins vs. Judson." The illustrated song is the new Indian song "Sparkling Eyes." The admission remains the same, only 10 cts.

A Long Editorial Hike.

Editors Shewman and Brown, of the Oregon City Courier, the former formerly of the Albany Herald, were in the city last evening, in walking togetery, after a long hike from Oregon City down the foot hills to Gates, just for the experience. At Gates they took the train, reaching here in time for the local.

Case of Non-Support.

Arthur E. Allen, upon complaint of his wife Bertha, was arrested by Sheriff Smith, on the charge of non support. The complaint charges it since July 1, when he went over to Lincoln county, where his grandfather lives. Hearing that there was talk of the action he came to Albany. He is about 22 years of age and belongs to an excellent family. M. V. Weatherford was employed, and the case was being heard this afternoon before a jury, called by Judge Duncan.

The Seven Mile Fire.

A fire up on Seven Mile hill is going over some old burned off stumps, causing some smoke, as well as fire. It was reported that traffic over the road had been stopped, but County Ranger T. H. Watkins thinks automobiles can pass all right.

This morning some men were sent up from Cascadia to help keep the fire from spreading.

A telephone message this afternoon stated that the Seven Mile hill fire had struck some of the tops of the green trees, with danger of spreading. Ranger Knowles is in charge of the fight against it.

Died in Portland.

Cleo Waive, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Organ, died in Portland yesterday, at the age of 8 months, and will be brought to Albany on the noon train tomorrow, for burial, with services at the cemetery. A big rock crusher has been installed and things will be pushed on a large scale.

5 KILLED

By Bridge Falling Near Roseburg.

Five men were instantly killed, and five others injured, four of them seriously, by a wooden bridge in Coles Valley, over the Umpqua, going down last night. The men were repairing the bridge, members of the gang. The killed were Gary Brown, Peter McFarland, William Accuata, Charles Gardiner and William Belieu. The injured, Kl. Thornton, Ray and Glen Wilson, Henry Van Hynning and Frank Gilliam, all residents of the county.

The men were removing the false work of one end of the bridge when the span quivered and dropped. The noise brought some farmers, and assistance was telegraphed from Roseburg, eight-een miles away, several physicians responding at once. Gary Brown, the foreman, Gardiner and Belieu were Roseburg men, well known there, and the accident caused immense excitement in the city.

News from Albany's Six Early Trains.

Prof. Kent, one of the O.A.C.'s best men, left for the Humboldt country, in Northern California, on the coast, to judge stock at the Ferndale fair, his third successive season there. He went to Portland and thence down the coast in a steamer.

Prof. F. L. Griffith, another O.A.C. man, a student in one of the departments, left for Boise, Idaho, where he has a position in the high school. There has been a big call for available talent at the school for high school teachers, particularly in specialties. The high school has made marvelous advancement in special work, some of the schools coming close to college work.

Senator M. A. Miller, prominently mentioned for U. S. senator, and brother W. A. Miller, of Portland, left for Portland. The Miller Brothers have just returned from Cascadia, where they assisted in making things lively, the Senator, like Pete D'Arcy, taking a hand in minstrelsy.

W. B. Pratt, of Burt, Iowa, left for home after a visit with his brother N. D. Pratt. He is a mighty good brother, for he comes out here to see his Oregon brother every year or two, having made a good many trips here.

Miss Lottie Morgan, of the Albany schools, came down from the Morgan farm and left for the west side for Seaside on the ocean, being joined at McMinnville, by Miss Letha McCullough, also of the Albany schools.

Prof. Ferguson, of the college, left for Portland.

Mrs. Burns, of Bloomington, Iowa, left for home after a week's visit at Owen Beams, being accompanied to Portland by Mr. Beam.

Mrs. Beam and daughter Elizabeth left for Newport for an outing. Mr. Gaston will run the Beam house for awhile.

Roy Yates left on a Brownsville business trip.

Several crowds of fire fighters left on the different spokes of the Hub.

By the Man About Town.

The new Rhodes block is up about two stories. An agreeable report is that it will be a four story hotel. The first floor to be for the office, with a long plate glass front, dining room and kitchen, the second floor for parlor and suites of rooms, and the two top floors for bed rooms, with a court on the inside. This accounts for the nine foot ceilings, the regular height for living rooms, and the height of the first floor, proper for hotel purposes. The location is a good one, and there will be no trouble to secure a renter.

J. T. Wentworth, with a good force of men already has a big hole at the site of the new filtration plant, with more to dig. It is said 2,000 or 3,000 barrels of cement will be required for the concrete work.

Woodworth continues to spread out, and is now getting ready for a piano department in the rooms recently vacated by the Oregon Power Co. The front will correspond with the front of the Woodworth Drug store, outlining the entire front of the Woodworth store, one of the most complete in its lines in the valley.

A good deal of amove around, which means that there is really some fire in the hills.

W. S. Weaver has just completed a new walk in front of the property at Ferry and Third street, following that in front of the Marks and Fisher property, making a complete line of cement walk on both sides of the street, from Ninth to First street, excepting in front of the Sternberg property.

The Weather.

The range of temperature was 83 yesterday, down to 51 this morning. The day before it reached 91, and the day before that 88, three warm days.

Mike Bush was fined $10 at Eugene for being drunk on Wednesday and $20 for being drunk on Thursday.

The salmon pack this year has been an immense one, $5,000,000, a large gain, meaning prosperity for cannery and fishermen.

President Lovett, of the Harriman lines, it is reported will resign, and Julius Kruttschnitt will probably be elected.

Fred Templeton, a former prominent U. O. student and leading foot ball player, died at Seattle yesterday morning. He leaves a wife and one son.

Born, on Friday morning, to Mr. and Mrs. Mentzer, of the third ward, a girl. The parents recently came here from Nebraska, and are visiting at Mr. Miller's.

There was a big time at Grange 10 last night, with a fine program, and a good feed. Among those from Albany were Supt. Jackson, who had a talk, and Treasurer Francis.

How easy to make mistakes. The Eugene Register said: "The supervisor reports 20 fires in the Siuslaw forest." Instead of 20 it should have been no fires. Some difference.

A big Southern Pacific R. R. strike is said to be imminent on account of a refusal of the management to treat with the Federation of Mechanical Trades. Another conference may avert it, and should.

Atwood, who is flying from Chicago to New York, last evening was eight miles south of Albany, 1131 miles from the start. He flew only 66 miles yesterday, and proposed to reach New York today.

The case of Arthur Allen, tried yesterday afternoon before Judge Duncan and a jury resulted in a verdict of guilty, and an order of the court that the defendant pay his wife $4 a week, under $250 bonds.

Prof. I. M. Glen passed through the city this afternoon with his goods and chattels for Seattle, his future home. Wash. U. is fortunate in securing him, one of the most popular as well as accomplished college men in the N. W.

Mayor Rushlight says a good many men in the employment of the city do not earn their salt. Ship them there, just the name to private employers would be. As they are under civil service rules this is said to be difficult.

Eugene's $133,000 refunding bonds were sold to Morris Bros. of Portland at $101.50 premium, being for the year at 5 per cent interest. There were 1,400 bonds, at $100 light, power and water bonds, to run 15 years, at 4 per cent. The highest premium was $1,250. This was referred to N. Rollins of Seaside, who got the Albany bonds at $110 premium on the refunding bonds.

In an auto accident near Marshfield yesterday Mrs. E. A. Stevenson was injured. Mrs. Stevenson was in a car, which was driven by her son, who was injured, the chauffeur hurt internally. Mrs. W. R. Courtwright, wife and three children, also in the big car, were practically uninjured though hurled some distance. It was an auto stuck on the way to Marshfield with passengers, and for some reason plunged down a side road.

Rattle Snake at Jefferson.

Editor Tip Humphrey of the Jefferson Review was in the city this afternoon, after getting out the issue of his paper for the week.

Here are two interesting items from the paper:

While cutting cabbage in her garden a few days ago Mrs. W. H. Sherman seen a small snake and despatched it with the butcher knife. Then she got scared, for it proved to be a small rattlesnake, the first so far as can be ascertained, ever found in this city, and where the "warmint" came from is a mystery. It was this year's product, for it had no rattles, only a button, so it is most probable there is a nest of them near where it was found.

It is reported that State Senator John A. Carson will be a candidate for representative to succeed Hawley. If the voters take the ability of the two men into consideration, Carson will have a walkover.

Needle in Finger.

Dorothy, the little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Salisbury, yesterday in some way dove a sewing machine needle through a finger, going through a bone and nail. Dr. Kavanaugh was called and extracted the needle, broken to pieces, with the thread in the eye, a delicate operation.

Case of Non-Support.

Arthur E. Allen, upon complaint of his wife Bertha, was arrested by Sheriff Smith, on the charge of non support. The complaint charges it since July 1, when he went over to Lincoln county, where his grandfather lives. Hearing that there was talk of the action he came to Albany.
