THE WORLD.

Portland again defeated Vernon three straight, winning 3 to 1.

The enrollment of the Harrisburg school at the beginning of the second week was 154.

The Oregon Electric has bought the property of Mrs. Emma Love, at Harrisburg, for a depot site.

Occasionally genius is recognized. Editor N. R. Moore, of Corvallis, has been elected a city father.

Eugene Guard:—Mrs. John Loper and Mrs. L. Thomas of Albany went to their home this morning after a visit with Mr. and Mrs. Jack Springer at "Home Rest."

Ty Cobb finished his year's base ball work yesterday, with the remarkable record of 417 in batting, 149 runs, 85 stolen bases. He made 247 hits, a new record for a season.

Lor'n Harris, son of Geo. W. Harris, formerly of Albany, where the young man was born, has sued the Oregon Power Co. at Eugene, for $10,000 damages, for the loss of an eye.

Vernon is the smallest place in the world to have a professional base ball team, its official population being only 70. The fact is Vernon is simply a part of Los Angeles, which has two base ball teams.

A system of lighting First street with four 60 candle power lights at each corner and two between on each side of the street has been suggested. It looks good, a project that would change the appearance of the street nights generally.

Will White, of this city, now a sophomore at Monmouth, Ill., college, this year made the college foot ball team, one of the best in Illinois, and today is playing with his team against the strong North-western University eleven.

A Freshman Reception.

The freshmen of the high school last evening were given a reception by the remainder of the students of the higher classes, and a fine time was had in games, with a short program. Floyd South, president of the student body presided. Chas. K. Ohling delivered an eloquent address of welcome to the youngsters, and short talks were made by Superintendent Boetticher and President Parker of the school board. Refreshments were served, and the freshmen know what their rights are.

"Hull" detachable handle umbrellas, have stood the test of time, and are better than ever. They cost no more than the common makes that haven't the detachable handles. F. M. French & Son, Selling Agents.

Empire Photoplay Theatre

TONIGHT

"The Tale of a Soldier's Ring."—A pretty love story of the Civil War. Thrilling situations and beautiful scenery.

"Treasure Trove."—A Vitagraph drama, telling the story of two old maids who almost lost their entire fortune, but were guided to safety through a dream. Up to the Vitagraph standard, which is enough said.

"Trading His Mother."—The dear little boy actor of the Edison company, takes the role of guardian of his widowed mother, and does some very clever work. A pretty story with a good sentiment.

"Polish and Pie."—Imagine yourself eating good pie, only to discover that it is filled with furniture polish. There is a laugh every second in this picture. Illustrated Song—"We All Fall." Admission 10 cents

SUDDEN DEATH

Of M. V. Bilyeu, a Pioneer of 1852

Martin V. Bilyeu, a prominent pioneer, was stricken with paralysis this morning at his home, during the breakfast hour, and died about three hours afterwards. He had been well, being down street yesterday evening.

He was born in Miller Co., Mo., in March, 1841, and crossed the plains to Oregon in 1852, settling about ten miles from Scio in Bilyeu's Den. He and his family afterward moved to Scio, where he engaged in the mercantile business for several years. He was married Aug. 31, 1862 to Rebecca Massey. After residing in Scio five years he moved to a farm seven miles from Scio, residing there three years, then trading for a farm on Thomas Creek, where he resided until Dec. 18, 1909, when he moved with his family to Albany.

He was a man of excellent character and reputation.

Following are the children living: W. J. S. P., Mrs. Addie DeVaney, Henry C., Mrs. Addie Beavers, Mrs. Minnie Eicher, Mrs. Alydia Young, Mrs. Louisa Richardson, and Luffy, all of whom reside here but Mrs. Richardson, of Kerby, Or. and Mrs. Young of California. He was a member of the Knights of Pythias of Scio.

Another Osteopath.

The Democrat recently in mentioning the coming here of Dr. A. P. Howells, of Corvallis, thinking he was a homeopathic physician, remarked that he was the first for several years to come here. But he is an osteopathic physician, and the words getting mixed has caused a wrong impression. Albany has two as good osteopathic physicians as can be found in the state, giving splendid satisfaction.

Dr. Howells will be in the city Monday, Wednesday, Thursday and Saturday forenoons at the Hotel Rovers. Monday, Wednesday and Friday evenings by appointment.

Something Doing.

On Saturday night Oct. 7th, Albany Tent No. 5 Knights of the Maccabees of the world will initiate a large class of candidates. All members are requested to be present. Meeting called at 8 p. m. sharp at A. O. U. W. hall cor. 1st and Washington Sts.

TO-NIGHT

The Flower of the Ranch.

Joseph E. Howard's popular western musical comedy, "The Flower of the Ranch", which captivated large audiences at the time of its production through the Eastern cities, will be the attraction at the Opera house tonight. Howard chose for his settings scenes of ranch life in California hills, and during the entire play the characters are drawn true to life, so much out of the ordinary run of plays. It is overflowing with Howard musical numbers and ever so many song hits. There are some forty people in the cast.
