

Public Sales.
In public sales there is a difference. Live stock auctioneers are not all alike. The better the salesman the bigger are your returns. There is profit, security and satisfaction in doing business with a good auctioneer. For dates and terms write me at Halsey, Oregon.
B. T. SUTTELL, Auctioneer.

NOTICE OF FINAL SETTLEMENT.

Notice is hereby given that the undersigned executor of the last will and testament of J. W. Cusick, deceased, has this day filed his final account as such executor with the county clerk of Linn county, Oregon, and the county court of said county has fixed Monday, the 16th day of October, 1911, at the hour of one o'clock p. m. of said day, for the hearing of objections to said final account and for the settlement thereof.
Any and all persons having objections to the same are hereby required to be present at the said time and place and make same.
Dated September 13, 1911.
EDWARD D. CUSICK,
Executor of the last will and testament of J. W. Cusick, deceased.
GALE S. HILL,
Attorney for Executor.

SUMMONS.

In the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon for Linn county.
George Pearce, plaintiff, vs. Tessie Pearce, defendant.
To Tessie Pearce, the above named defendant:
In the name of the State of Oregon, You are hereby required to appear and answer the complaint of the above named plaintiff in the above entitled cause, now on file with the Clerk of the above entitled court, within six weeks from the date of the first publication of this summons; and if you fail to appear and answer said complaint as hereby required, for want thereof the plaintiff will apply to the court for the relief demanded in his said complaint. The relief demanded in said complaint is a decree dissolving the bonds of matrimony now existing between the plaintiff and defendant, and such other relief as may be met in equity.
This summons is published once a week for six successive weeks in the Albany Democrat, a weekly newspaper published in said county, by order of Hon. J. N. Duncan, County Judge of Linn county, Oregon, made this 5th day of July, 1911, and the date of the first publication of this summons is the 7th day of July, 1911.
HEWITT & SOX,
Attorneys for Plaintiff.

REGISTRATION TITLE.

In the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon for Linn county.
In the matter of the application of Minnie Young and W. H. Young, her husband, and L. C. Alexander, to register title to the land in this application described as follows, to-wit:
Beginning at the Southeast corner of the D. L. C. of S. P. C. Fleener, Not. No. 1609, and Claim No. 66, in Tp. 10 S. R. 2 W. of the Will. Merd., Oregon, thence South 89 degrees 48 minutes West along South line of said Claim 20.72 chains, thence North 17.25 chains, more or less, to the center of the main channel of the Thomas Creek; thence Easterly up the center of the main channel of the Thomas Creek to a point due North of the place of beginning, thence South 22.45 chains, more or less, to the place of beginning, containing 46 acres, more or less, all in Linn county, Oregon.
Against J. G. Falts and Charles Falts, and all whom it may concern, defendants.
Take notice, that on the 18th day of July, 1911, an application was filed by said applicants in the Circuit Court of Linn county, Oregon, for initial registration of the title to the land above described. Now, unless you appear on or before the 21st day of August, 1911, and show cause why such application shall not be granted, the same will be taken as confessed, and a decree will be entered according to the prayer of the application, and you will be forever barred from disputing the same.
Witness my hand and the seal of said Circuit Court this 18th day of July, 1911.
W. L. MARKS,
County Clerk and ex officio Clerk of the Circuit Court of Linn county, Oregon.
By R. M. RUSSELL,
Deputy.
HEWITT & SOX,
Applicants' Attorneys.

ADMINISTRATOR'S NOTICE.

Notice is hereby given that the undersigned has been duly appointed by the County Court for Linn county, Oregon, as the Administrator of the estate of Ed Zeuss, deceased. Any and all persons having claims against said estate are hereby notified to present the same to my attorneys, Weatherford & Weatherford, at their office in Albany, Oregon, within six months from the date hereof, duly verified as by law required.
Dated this 20th day of September, 1911.
ED L. A. ZEYSS,
Administrator.
Weatherford & Weatherford,
Attys. for Admr.

NOTICE OF FINAL SETTLEMENT.

Notice is hereby given that the undersigned administrator of the estate of Katherine Miller, deceased, has filed in the county court of Linn county, Oregon, his final account as such administrator, and that said court has fixed Monday, the 9th day of October, 1911, at the hour of one o'clock in the afternoon, as the time for the hearing of objections to said final account and the settlement thereof.
H. H. HEWITT,
Administrator.

(MONDAY.)
DEATH OF W. A. DUNN.

W. A. Dunn died this morning of paralysis, after an illness of a year or two, receiving several strokes, the last two weeks ago.
He was born in Illinois, afterwards Oregon about twenty five years ago, residing in Portland, Brownsville and Aloha, here nearly ten years. He was a member of the Christian church, and leaves many warm friends to mourn the death of an excellent husband, father and citizen.
He leaves a wife and the following children: Mrs. J. B. Leatherman, of this city; Mrs. Rev. Frank Stanard of McMinnville and Mrs. R. B. Montague, of Portland.
Funeral services at J. B. Leatherman's tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 o'clock.

The New Craft Shop.

Craft & Miller have their new shop almost ready for occupancy, and will be in it in a few days. It will be one of the best in the state, splendidly equipped in every department for the business. The equipment will include a modern freezing machine, with a big meat chest. The sales room is very neat and attractive. Craft & Miller expect to be in the place before the 1st of Nov.

George Finley returned this noon from Portland.

Mrs. J. E. Bridgford returned this noon from McMinnville.
Mrs. M. J. Duryea, of Eugene, was in the city yesterday.

About $3,000,000 worth of pineapples will be shipped from Hawaii this year.

China is in a bad shape. Its warship without fuel and its rice crop exhausted.
Mrs. Connie White and son, of Portland, are visiting in the city, at the two paternal homes.

Editor D. E. Vernon, of Oakland, returned today from a visit with his daughter, of the O. A. C.

Rev. Marsden left on the early train today for Sacramento, to attend a coast convention of Episcopal ministers.

Mrs. Sifers, of Portland, formerly of Albany, passed through the city this noon for Roseburg on a visit with her folks.

An effort is being made to secure a game between Albany high and Jefferson high of Portland at this city next Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Skiving, of Bothell, Wash., are in the city on a visit at the home of their daughter, Mrs. A. E. Keith.

Portland closed the season in San Francisco by being beaten in both games, practically throwing them, which was small business and childish.

It is reported the first Oregon Electric station on the O. E. south will be on the Cline farm, and the next about a mile further, on the Hughes farm.

The Albany Cubs Saturday afternoon got even with the Corvallis Kids, beating them 21 to 5. The Albany boys played great foot ball for youngsters.

Several hundred people yesterday saw the O. E. people unload three donkey engines and a car load of dirt cars for the big fill opposite the Jewish cemetery.

Mr. and Mrs. Shupp and Mr. and Mrs. and Gertrude Bilyeu went to Philomath in Mr. Shupp's automobile yesterday, having a very nice time, visiting friends there.

A letter from J. C. Holbrook, received by the commercial club today, states that the valley exhibit is unquestionably the best in the big Omaha show, and is attracting attention.

In Oklahoma yesterday a negro was lynched, a city attorney killed in a fight and two thousand negroes got on the war path. The militia had to be called out. Coweta was the scene of the race trouble.

Lieut. Herbert H. Acheson, closed a deal Saturday for his mother Mrs. Jennie E. Acheson for the George Richards cottage cor. 9th and Maple streets, consideration $2000. The sale was made by L. J. Gray & Co.

Ralph Dimick a lawyer of Oregon City, in a game with Forest Grove, a week ago received serious injuries and was taken to St Vincent's hospital. Yesterday while in a delirium he jumped from his room on the second floor and was killed. He was playing with his alumni team when injured.

Miss Flora Mason and Mrs. R. E. Mason Saturday evening entertained at the home of D. P. Mason in honor of Mrs. Anna Flyn Hunt and Mrs. Abbe, with a large number present. The appointments were artistic and the service of refreshments a neat affair.

A second presentation of Belshazzar Saturday evening was appreciated. The attendance, at both performances, was not nearly what it deserved, a high-class performance. Prof. Robinson is a splendid trainer of choruses, and his performances have always made good.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. L. Hatfield, of Forest Grove, arrived last evening from Ashland in their auto, on their bride trip home. Saturday they got stuck in the mud and only made eleven miles, yesterday about a hundred. They are enjoying their ride over the country immensely.

The Democrat has received a copy of a South Bend, Ind., paper, with a write-up of some big meetings being held there by Biederwolf and others. A feature was the opening parade with over five thousand in line. This was in charge of J. E. Altmatt, chairman of the publicity commission, a former Albany young man.

Rev. A. J. Honsaker left this morning for his home at Stayton, Oregon, after visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Rufus Thompson. Dr. F. H. Thompson and wife of Salem, returned home on last night's train, after visiting here, in company with Judge Hill of Seattle and Dr. J. L. Hill of Albany brothers of Mrs. Thompson, at the Thompson home.

News from Albany's Six Early Trains

General Will Crawford went to Portland for a couple of days. He has housed his flying machine for the season; but expects to make some more trials next year, with several months for studying the business.

E. C. Roberts, the fruit expert, who has charge of the collection of an exhibit for the apple fair, arrived from Lebanon. He reports prospects of the largest display yet at this coming fair, notwithstanding a somewhat short crop.

Doug Hamilton, after seeing the pictures, left for home. He says you have to see a thing to learn. It gets into your brain then and stays—sometimes.

Mrs. Irwin, at the St. Charles a couple of weeks, left for her home at Sheridan.

Rev. Knott left on a Portland trip. J. C. Devine, the Lebanon hotel man, left for home.

J. R. Wyatt returned to Portland. Prof. Hudson returned from a couple days visit with Mrs. Hudson, in Corvallis.

C. O. Lee, the engineer, left for Portland and the Sound on engineering business.

Chas. Sternberg returned to Portland with a basket of grapes.

Mrs. Robert Shaw returned to Mill City. Mr. Shaw left last night on a Meadford trip.

Robert Frömm, a former Albany boy, son of Mrs. Wm. Frömm, returned to Mt. Angel, where he is operating for a couple of months for the regular agent.

R. Edson, the miner, returned to Anidum.

John Bryant returned to Willamette after his regular Sunday visit home.

Lawyers Newport and Garland came down from Lebanon to attend court.

Miss Grace Needham, of Corvallis, was an arrival.

Rev. Hunsaker returned to Stayton, after a valley trip.

Commissioner Butler and daughter returned to Stayton and the big bridge work.

Dr. Maek Denny, after a Sunday visit with his folks, returned to Portland.

Com. F. J. Miller returned to Salem. Lawyer Guy Lewelling returned from a visit with his folks at Tangent.

The Coming Institute

The annual institute of Linn and Benton counties will be held at this city next week, Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, with an elaborate program, and a list of instructors of rare merit, as follows: State Supt. Alderman, President Ackerman of Monmouth, Prof. Bennett of the U. O., Prof. Montana Hastings of the U. O., Prof. Ressler of the O. A. C., Olive Davis the critic teacher of Monmouth, Helen Kennedy of the library commission, E. F. Carlton assistant state superintendent, President Crooke, Miss Maud Lauthender in primary work, Supt. Boetticher, Supt. Kirk of the Corvallis schools, Supt. Gooding of the Scio schools, Prof. Gilchrist of the Oakville schools, and Supervisors Bolin and Benner. The evening sessions will be popular affairs, the first evening a reception at the high school, and Tuesday evening an address by Supt. Alderman. All the sessions, though, will be interesting.

Daily Store News.

It is impossible to tell you about all the new things arriving daily through our display ads, as we will notify you with "daily store news" regularly.

Another express shipment of High Cut Tan shoes for women and misses was received today, also a new lot of Suede, Velvet, Corduroy, Gun Metal and Patent.

We are also in receipt of the most beautiful line of neckwear, wide frills and wide end jabots ever displayed in Albany. Don't fail to see them. We will continue our sale of $1.25 velvet, satin, leather and tapestry hand bags all this week.

Watch our windows, they are always in the lead and you can always see something new and interesting.
CHAMBERS & McCUNE.

Former Albany People.

Albany people are always interested in the doings of former residents of the city. One family that is prospering are Dr. C. U. Chamberlain's. The Dr. and Mrs. Chamberlain are at Los Gatos, Calif., where the former has a good practice as an homeopathic physician.

Allan is now an editor at Campbell, five miles from Los Gatos, and Miss Winnie is teacher of drawing and manual training in the high school at Campbell.

Married.

Mr. Chas. Herbert Sanders, a young man highly spoken of, and Miss Hazel Kyle, a worthy young lady, daughter of A. Kyle, were married Saturday evening at the home of the bride's father.

Mr. Kyle being seriously ill the marriage was private, at his bedside. Rev. Douglass officiating.

They have the best wishes of many friends.

A Big buy

A big deal here recently was the purchase of the well known Hughes farm by the Pirith-Wieder Land Co., 230 acres. It is said it will be cut up into small tracts and sold. The O. E. cuts it in two, making it an ideal place for a home, only 6 minutes by the O. E. to the Albany station.

The Weather.

Range of temperature 57-41. The river is 15 feet. Prediction: occasional rain tonight and Tuesday.

CIVIL SERVICE MEN MET.

Seventeen government employes from different parts of the valley met at the commercial club rooms Saturday evening, and organized under the Civil Service Retirement Association, with J. H. Goins, of Albany, as chairman and L. P. Bennett, of Salem, secretary.

Postmaster J. S. Van Winkle opened the meeting with a welcome to those from other places, giving the object of the meeting.

Frederic P. Holm, secretary of the Portland branch of the Association, was present and addressed the meeting in reference to the object of the Association, the improvement of the conditions in civil service, and just now the securing through congress of a suitable retirement law that shall be a justice to the men in the service.

Instead of forming a separate Association in the valley it was decided to affiliate with the Portland branch.

Congressman Hawley sent his regrets at not being able to be present.

Others to speak were A. C. Baker of the railway mail service, W. W. Henderson of Salem, J. B. Cummings of Corvallis, R. F. D., who never has gotten stuck very badly; M. W. Bower of Corvallis, Walter Corbett of Corvallis, and others, all practically being in favor of joining with Portland.

The following at once applied for membership: J. H. Goins, A. C. Baker, J. R. Doughton, J. E. Warner and E. B. Corbett of Albany; L. P. Bennett and Wm. Henderson of Salem; and M. W. Bower of Corvallis.

Besides those mentioned those present were: W. B. Harlan Corvallis, David Shearer Tangent, Roy Houser and Geo. M. Robinson of Albany, Jay Cooper of Corvallis.

North Benton.

On account of the presidential train arriving 25 minutes early, a goodly number of our people failed to get a glimpse of William.

Frank Hadley, who has been running the W. D. Morris place for the past two years, will leave shortly for Springfield to reside.

Farmers have about completed their fall work and are now turning their attention to fall seeding.

Mr. Muckley, of Portland, was a business visitor Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Author Hinkins, who have been spending the past month with relatives at Wells will leave Sunday for their home at Riverton, Neb.

Mr. Bingham is getting the material on the ground for his new residence.

Mr. Oscar Philbrick, who has been spending the most of the summer with his sister Mrs. L. W. Delancey, left Wednesday for Wyoming, where he resides.

William Bailey, of Palestine, closed a deal this week whereby he becomes the owner of the E. Glenn 20 acre farm. He paid $2000 dollars for the tract, and intends setting it all to fruit, prunes and peaches.

Ray Hyatt after visiting his parents a few days, left Saturday morning for Gridley, Cal., where he owns an alfalfa tract.

An Editor Made the Pyramid

The Democrat, upon information of others, gave Douglas Love the credit of making the big potato pyramid at the Harrisburg potato show, whereas, the secretary of the show writes that Editor Morgan worked all day Monday and Tuesday on the pyramid and should have credit, while the Democrat is mighty glad to give. The average editor does a world of work without getting any credit, and certainly is entitled to it every time.

A Moose in Town.

M. P. Sherman is in the city organizing a lodge of Moose for Albany Howdy Pap. All for one and one for all and all together. Purity, and progress its watchwords. Only good men wanted. There are now 300,000 in the U. S. The obligations are simple with no horse play. Athletics a specialty.

TUESDAY.

Rev. Leech went south this afternoon. The Bon Ton restaurant has changed hands.

A. C. Schmitt has gone to Southern Oregon on a deer hunt.

Lawyer Harrison Allen, of the O. E. came up this noon.

P. A. Young went to Portland this morning on a short business trip.

William Sproule the new S. P. president, passed through the valley seeing his life.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Baker went to Cottage Grove this afternoon for a week's visit.

Miss Laura Flett, scenographer for Judge W. S. McFadden, of Corvallis, was in the city today.

Mrs. M. Paulson and daughter, of Salem, this afternoon went out to see to visit with relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Watson and Mr. Wheeler, of Portland, went to Corvallis this afternoon in the interest of the Woodland property.

Frank Hanny, of Corvallis, was in the city today. He met with a serious accident by a gasoline explosion, badly burning his face, and his neck, arm and hand.

A man who arrived here recently from the east after reading Albany literature sent by the Commercial club, yesterday said: "It is a good deal better than you state, and I am glad to stay."

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel West and daughters, of Pittsburg, after a visit with their cousin, Rev. W. P. White, greatly appreciated by Albany people, returned in meeting time, left last night for Pasadena, Calif., where they expect to spend the winter. They liked Albany.

BLOCK OFFERED

For a School House Beyond Pennywinkle.

At the meeting of the school board last evening Burkhardt Brothers offered the district a block in the new Burnhart Park Addition for a school house, and it is said it will probably be accepted when that section is taken into the city. Another school house at the east end has become a necessity. The major building is full and running over, and there is big field for one beyond Pennywinkle.

The gift of a block in Central addition is also under consideration, and it is said will probably be accepted. There is a suggestion that the present site of the central building be erected for a city park and a building be erected on the Central Addition block.

News From Albany's Six Early Trains.

The St. Charles overland arrived in a dense fog, that hung umbrageously, like a pall, covering the finest valley in the world, creeping silently up the street, with a new wheel in the place of the flat one that has been keeping the people awake for several months. Now, if the Co. will put in seven more new ones and another top the car will be fixed.

Hon. C. L. Shaw went to Portland to attend a meeting of creamery men, the butter makers of the valley, Mr. Shaw representing the Albany Creamery Association, with which he has been identified for many years.

Two of Albany's piano men left, N. Sorenson for Scio with some deals in view, and Prof. Head for Corvallis, where he is conducting a big sale.

Mr. and Mrs. Clair Baker and two children left for Portland on a few days' visit.

Geo. DeVaney went down Jefferson way after his team of horses.

Lawyer S. M. Garland, A. W. Blackburn and H. C. Moran, recent foreman of the grand jury arrived on the Lebanon train.

Wayne Stuart, one of Albany's thirty drummers, left again.

Appoints Standing Committees for Work.

The regular meeting of the Albany Commercial Club was held last night, with the following present: President Eastburn, Mr. Stewart, and directors Hammer, Gilbert, Stewart, Van Winkle, Shinn, Nutting, Collins.

A letter was read from J. C. Holbrook telling of the show and emphasizing the value of the valley show, the best there according to general opinion.

A letter from Spokane asked cooperation in securing the National grange in 1912 and that applies from the Albany fair to Columbus as a N. W. booster, the National grange meeting here Nov. 16-25. The endorsement of Spokane's invitation to the National grange was ordered. Apple part referred to the Linn County Council P. of H.

Manager Stewart reported the Harrisburg potato show a fine thing. Standing committees were reported as follows:

Finance.—J. S. Van Winkle, A. C. Schmitt, F. M. French.

Conventions and public entertainment.—Dr. Shinn, D. O. Woodworth, J. P. Wallace, H. M. Crooks, J. M. Hawkins, D. C. Green, W. H. Marvin.

Transportation and excursions.—C. B. Winn, F. P. Nutting, R. L. Tracey, Geo. Taylor, Wm. Bain, D. C. Green, C. C. Bryant.

R. R. relations.—Chas. Stewart, Owen Beam, A. A. Mickel, J. H. Ralston, G. A. Flood.

Municipal affairs.—P. D. Gilbert, Dr. Davis, P. A. Young, W. G. Ball, L. E. Hamilton, G. T. Hockensmith, J. J. Collins.

Good roads.—C. H. Stewart, C. L. Shaw, J. J. Collins, Dr. Davis, D. D. Haeleman, W. B. Stevens, Dr. Litter, Manufacturing.—A. M. Hammer, M. Sanders, E. H. McCune, J. A. Shaw, C. W. Tebault, G. H. Crowell, H. G. Fisher.

There will be two more, membership and civic improvement.

Eugene is to have an apple show Nov. 2 and 3, just before the Albany now.

Three members of the Army of Nazam arrived this noon, a man, woman and a darkey attendant.

The Brownville Times says the decent people of Albany owe it to the rest of the county to clean the blind pigs out of the city.

Next Sunday at Eugene the new $50,000 Christian church will be dedicated, when Charles Reign Scoville, one of the best known evangelists in the country, will begin a series of meetings.

Eugene Register.—Dr. Gesellbach, of the First Presbyterian church at Albany, who filed the pulp of the Gen. of the First Presbyterian church of Eugene acceptably, returned home Sunday noon.

Wyatt Brothers today completed the work of their interest in the Albany steam laundry to Mr. Herman Otto. Otto has been in the business with them some time, a reliable, experienced laundryman.

J. V. He has two acres of pop. etc. in his place over the river as fine as anything ever seen. Young men think of popping the question should see this a supply, guaranteed to pop.

New Saturday evening Post out to-morrow, with second installment of the Old Woman and New One in the Old World, and other good things. See Edley Lehigh in his chair and get in.

The first college course next Thursday night at the M. E. church, at 8 p. m. Single tickets 50 cents. So tickets $1, with reserve $1.50. The sale at Woodworth's and Rawlings, 1,000 people wanted to go.

ONLY $1 FOR 6 SHOWS.

The reserved seat sale for the college lecture course began at Woodworth's today.

There are six big attractions in the course. The course ticket, good for all six of them, is sold for only one dollar. If you wish, you can select the seat that you wish to occupy for the entire course and reserve it once for all, at Woodworth's Drug Store, by paying fifty cents extra.

The first number will be given by the Trier Concert and Opera Quintet, at the M. E. church, Thursday night at 8:30. Single tickets for this number are fifty cents, including a reserved seat.

You can buy season tickets at Woodworth's Drug Store and at Rawlings. Only a part of the town has been canvassed yet. Professors Flo and White may not find you, but you can find the tickets. You cannot afford to miss these splendid attractions. They are not cheap, but you get them cheap. It is planned to accommodate close to 1,000 people. If 1,000 people will come we can furnish the best talent in the land at one dollar for the course.

5 TO 2

Was the way Philadelphia did up N. Y. this afternoon at Philadelphia, after waiting several days for good weather. One more game and Philadelphia will cinch the pennant, a pretty sure thing.

In The Mail.

The Northwest Fruit Exchange weekly market report, showing a demand for fancy fruit of large sizes, and none for off-grades.

Some clippings from the Missouri Democratic League declaring Folk first choice for democratic nomination, his name in history, farmers admire Folk and Folk strong in Nebraska.

A note from the O. A. C. telling how J. F. Middlestead, of Crabtree, has declared the winter short course to be fine, and he will go again. This year is going to be better than ever, with a number of changes.

One from the Pacific Highway Association telling of the appreciation for the big work started all along the line, endorsed everywhere.

Rubber.

The most interesting lecture ever delivered on the subject of rubber will be given at the opera house tonight, under the auspices of the B. F. Goodrich Rubber Co. of Akron, O., with it 4,000 feet of moving picture films will be shown, covering the history of rubber from the time it is taken from the tree in its crude form by the South American Indians until it is made into automobile tires at the factory at Akron, O.

F. M. Tillisch, who has travelled for two years all over the U. S. giving these lectures wherever [the] automobile is used, will do the talking.

The lecture is free and tickets may be secured of any automobile dealer. It is an education.

The lecture is given in three parts.

The Work Completed.

Walter H. Abbett and family will return east in a few days after a residence in Albany of several months. Mr. Abbett has been here to investigate the resources of the valley in the interest of bond holders considering the purchase of Albany Interurban bonds. He is said to be one of the most competent men in this line in the world, and his report in this case, a full complete report in its nature, is said to be a marvel in research, comprehensive and reliable. Mr. and Mrs. Abbett are also appreciated personally, and many will regret they cannot make Albany their home permanently.

Liliec Taylor.

The Elite has secured the services of Liliec Taylor, the far famed candy maker, who has for several seasons past been at Newport.

Mr. Taylor is an expert in his line and is turning out a line of candies that are not excelled any place in the U. S. A glance at the Elite windows clearly demonstrates this fact. His bonbons, dainty cream rolls, rich nut britches and delicious chocolates are known from San Francisco to Nome, Alaska.

The Weather.

Range of temperature 61-41. The river is down to 1 foot. Prediction: fair tonight and Wednesday.