SPUD SHOW AT HARRISBURG.

The spud show opened in Harrisburg yesterday with a good attendance. There are spuds here galore, all kinds, a fine display according to the report. A potato pyramid 8 feet high attracted attention, erected by Douglas Love. Everything else has been done by the women. A long table of fruits is a good one and there are candies, jellies, and all manner of vegetables.
Besides there is a very striking display of relics, worth seeing; a copy of the Ulster Co. Gazette of Jan. 4, 1800, by Dr. Clark; a spinning wheel, by Miss Emma Love, one that has been in the family 150 years, brought to Oregon in 1832; a sugar bowl 100 years old, owned by Mrs. Mountain; a plate by Mrs. Wm. Ayer, in the family over a hundred years; a trunk owned by Mrs. Murdoch, made in England in 1784.
Today a good crowd of Albany people attended, among them the following going on the noon train: Manager C. H. Stewart, A. D. Hall, Mrs. E. D. Sloan, H. Bryant, Bert Crawford, G. B. Cummings, M. Senders, Dr. and Mrs. Shinn, J. L. Tomlinson, Mr. and Mrs. H. N. Bouley and son, G. T. Hooker-Smith, L. E. Blain, J. C. Irvine, W. W. Francis, D. P. Mason, Maj. C. C. Winn, G. H. Crowell and L. L. Swan.

A BIG SHOW

Telegraphs Mr. Holbrook from Omaha.
Manager Stewart, of the Commercial Club yesterday evening received the following dispatch from J. C. Holbrook, at Omaha:
"Will need more literature immediately. This is a big show. Send a lot."
Last evening a short session of the commercial club was held and several thousand pieces were ordered sent at once.
The Land Show at Omaha, it is said will bring together about 250,000 people from a section that sends many to the Northwest. The opinion is that we are reaching the most people interested in Oregon.

MARRIED.

Anderson-Burkhart. In Portland, on Wednesday evening, Oct. 18, Mr. Fred Anderson and Miss Aera Burkhart. The groom is a popular barber, a member of the firm of Bruce & Anderson, and son of T. J. Anderson, and the bride is a daughter of Mr. Ed. Burkhart, a young lady of excellent character, a native of Lynn county.

Hansard Pardoned.

After paying $850 fines imposed by Judge Harris, of Eugene, yesterday upon recommendation of Judge Harris, and Dist. Attorney Bryson, Hansard was pardoned by the Gov. from the jail sentence, the principal grounds being the man has an incurable disease.
Hansard, when the local option law went into effect, began a career of blind-pigging at Lebanon, followed by several arrests and light sentences there, when he changed his field of operation to Lane county, where the fines have been put on with a sledge hammer, and yet he has kept at it until finally corralled in these last cases, which probably ends his blind-pigging. If not the proper thing will be to send him to the asylum.
His downfall ought to be an example, but will it be?

Death of Mrs. Muehlenhoff.

Mrs. Nancy Anderson Muehlenhoff died at her home near Lyons yesterday morning, and the funeral took place at the M. E. church in this city this afternoon.

Jackson's Assessment

The total assessment of Jackson county is $4,000,000, approximately. It will take a big slice of the tax just for $75,000 interest money on the $1,500,000 bonds alone. Medford lands with $5,371,843 of the assessment, with Ashland next with $3,185,546. Then the order is Central Point, Jacksonville, Gold Hill, Phoenix, Talent, Eagle Point and Woodville, all under a million. 209 automobiles in the entire county shows how the lumber has been exaggerated.

Looking Towards Oregon.

A Mr. Wilson and his family are here from Texas, with a view to locating. He reported at least forty families who were intending to come to Oregon to live. Failure of crops there and their frequency, was causing a good deal of discouragement.
A man and his family just here from Kansas report a great shortage there and many looking this way, where crops never fail.

A Portland Tragedy.

Portland, Oct. 18.—Apparently mentally deranged by brooding over his ill health, so far as can be learned, Irving A. Siffchen, aged 32, employed as city gauger by the local branch of the Standard Oil company, shot and killed his wife, Bethel McCoy Mills, aged 25, in their rooms in the Stanley apartment, 701 Washington street, presumably some time Monday evening, and then committed suicide.

Letter List.

The following letters remain in the Albany, Ore., postoffice uncalled for Oct. 18, 1911. Persons desiring any of these letters should call for advertisement letters, giving the date:
Mrs. J. W. Armstrong, Mrs. Harry Donke, Mrs. Clara Folio, Mrs. Kellough, Mrs. L. Lettman, E. E. Mullen, Mrs. A. S. Parwer, Nettie Robbins, R. F. Seits, Henry Uhl, Felix Wagner, Charles Whistler, Hollis Williams, Wright Wilson, Warren Wilcox (2).
J. S. VAN WINNLE, P. M.

A Fine Candy Display

The display of Albany made candy at the Mission Parlors is one of the finest seen in the valley, high grade, clean up to date, dandy candy, made by the Mission's own candy maker. It covers a large variety of soft and hard confectionery, the latest in everything.

OUR'S BEST

Benton-Marion-Lane-Linn Exhibit Is Great.
Corvallis, Oct. 19.—The exhibit at the Omaha land show of the four Willamette Valley counties, Benton, Lane, Marion and Linn, is conceded to be the best exhibit at the show, so states a telegram from Frank Groves, representative of the four counties at Omaha. The people of Oregon are asked to write to friends who live in the vicinity of Omaha, urging them to see the Oregon exhibit at the Omaha land show.

Some Lane county hops yesterday sold for 40 3-8 cents.

McCourt will not be undersold in coal. Get prices and he will beat it.

Fifty aviators have been killed this year. Beats foot ball and the 4th of July.

Kid McCoy is about to have his 8th round in marriage. What a lot of fool women in the world.

The Ladies Home Journal for Nov. is out. The cover is a fine one, novel and catchy. See Riley Lough.

The bank at Philomath has been closed, at least temporarily. Too many loans is the cause of the trouble.

With the aeroplane, a new invention, one may talk through solid walls, in fact it is claimed through five miles of solid rock.

Two cleaners, who cleaned things in Albany and made a clean up, are said to have cleaned out owing one hotel $21 and another $10.

Mr. and Mrs. Emil Schultz, who have been with the Osborn at Eugene, this afternoon went to Salem to clerk for the New Marion.

It is reported that prohibition has probably carried in Maine by 734, though the official decision of the county board has yet been given.

The Elks propose a novelty at the big Elk's convention of roses and snow balls at the same time, summer and winter, bringing three car loads of snow down from Mt. Hood.

Mrs. J. P. Wallace, Mrs. J. L. Tomlinson and Mrs. J. S. Morgan returned this noon from McMinnville, and reported a good time at the convention, with plenty of chieftan thrown in.

A cannonade heard last night westward was due to the dynamiting of the old wheel of the Oregon Power Co., in order to break it up, more easily disposed of. The big new wheel is in place, an immense structure.

A new wheel has been shipped to Albany to take the place of the old flat wheel that has been making a noise like a tin of oil celebration, as the Eugene cart off car has tugged along Lyon and First streets.

Under the new system of a purchasing agency by the state, in six months the contracts amounted to over $82,000, of which only about $14,000 went to Salem concerns. This makes Salem equal; but that city is no more entitled to contracts than Portland or Albany.

Portland yesterday defeated S. F. 3 to 2 a home run by Kuhn doing the act, and winning the pennant for Portland, this game being necessary. Los Angeles defeated Vernon 10 to 6, and did not throw the game, as so many have been predicting.

News from Albany's Six Early Trains.

E. H. Rhodes went to Salem on prairie business, preparatory to disposing of his crop, about 120,000 pounds. As high as 8.6 cents has been paid, though the Portland papers have not given the quotation correctly, putting the price at less than 8 cents. This is probably the highest paid for prunes.

W. A. Ewing, the Seio banker, returned home after a short Albany trip, and reported things serene on Thomas creek. Seio some day hopes to be on the railroad map.

A. W. Blackburn arrived from Lebanon on a short business trip.
Off again: W. W. Allingham, C. L. Monson, Wolff, Goldsmith and other commercial travelers radiating around Albany.

Tom Paigeos, the Lebanon boot black, returned from a visit among the brethren at Portland.

Rev. Wm. McLeod, of Mill City, returned home after attending Presbyterian and the synod, stopping in Salem on the way home.

N. D. Conn left for Jefferson on a real estate trip.
Milt McGuire returned from an electric trip.
Mrs. Wm. Morgan went to Lebanon to visit relatives.
Miss Hannah, of Seio, left for home after a visit at S. Shupp's.

A gang of men are at work on the roof of the depot, giving it a green hue, in keeping with the new park, and adding to the good appearance of things.

A Civil Service Meeting.

A meeting of civil service employees of Albany and neighboring cities of the Willamette Valley will be held in Albany tomorrow evening at 8 p.m., at the Commercial Club rooms for the purpose of organizing a Willamette Valley Branch of the U. S. Civil Service Retirement Association.
Fred P. Holm, Sec. of the Portland branch and other prominent speakers will be present to address the meeting. All members of the Civil Service are requested to be present and the public is invited to attend.

An effort is being made to have Congressman Hawley present. The organization is in the interest of the retirement bill. It is said congress will undoubtedly pass the bill at the next session, and the men want a hand in securing one that covers their rights.

Two Amendments A-K'd

At the coming city election besides a full city ticket two measures will be voted on, an amendment providing for the appointment of a deputy city recorder, so that during the absence of the regular recorder there will be some one in the office having authority to act, and an amendment that will do away with the present 8 mill tax levy limit, giving the city council the power to raise a levy of amount desired.

The Lane County Style.

Waldo R. Huret was tried at Eugene yesterday before Justice Bryson, and prosecuted by District Attorney Bryson charged with violation of the local option law, found guilty, and fin'd by Justice Bryson $300 and 20 days in jail. That is the way things are done in Eugene.

The Weather.

Range of temperature 63-37.
The river is 1.4 feet.
Prediction: fair tonight and Saturday.
Stanley Hammel is now in a drug store at Tillamook. The Democrat has received from him a post card picture showing the arrival of the first train at Tillamook on Oct. 9. Capt. Hammel may be seen in the crowd.
The brewers association of the U. S. sends out articles regularly to the papers of the country for use as dispatches. The Oregonian gives all the dope. Just now the effort is being made to make the business a moral one, a trick that catches some.
