HANDBAG SPECIALS

For a few days you will have the opportunity of buying handbags at reduced prices. We find that with new bags coming in and business in that department not so awfully rushing the last two weeks, there are too many of them. In order to cut down the stock and at the same time get rid of a few bags that are going out of style, we offer this special. $1.10 is the price of any in the LOT. MANY OF THEM ARE NEW STYLISH BAGS that arrived only a little over a week ago. Black Velvet, Tan Suede, and Imitation Leather with the LONG CORDS or straps that are so in demand.

The Genuine Leather with Leather Lining and the Alligator Bags receive the big cut in price. We want to get rid of them. One number, a large, white metal trimmed bag of Imitation Leather, just in, is marked regular $1.25. The others are all reduced, and we feel that we are offering very good values for the money. The entire lot is on display in the window. Look them over and choose the one you like best. $1.10 is the small price asked.

THIS MORNING

News from Albany's Six Early Trains.

Mrs. F. N. Wood left for Seattle to meet Mr. Wood, who will arrive there tomorrow from Nemo, not waiting for the last boat cut. He has been in charge of a dredge for several months during the mining season, now closed for this kind of work. Nemo during the winter has dwindled to a town of a thousand or less, for a good many of them are people who can't afford to come out.

Judge Bushy, of Marion county and Judge Duncan of Lyon went up to Station together to see the wind-up of the work on the piers of the new bridge for the winter and figuring on next year's work.

A number came down on the Lebanon train: Phil Swank on his way to Newport to catch a salmon for his wife, with whom he has been living 64 years, Mrs. Pio, who has a class at Albany, A. I. Crandall, Lawyer Newport, J. G. Perkins, Tom Psigeos, Prof. Hargrove, and Mrs. M. P. Briggs and daughter.

Mrs. D. W. Rumbaugh and daughter went up to Lyons to look after the Rumbaugh farm.

William Ritchie left for the east on a business trip. How far he will go was not certain, perhaps only to Chicago.

H. C. Moran and A. W. Blackburn, grand jurors, returned to Lebanon.

Mrs. F. E. Ruins, of Lucomb, returned home.

Fred Veal, of Oregon's biggest chair factory, went to Portland.

Mrs. Frank Reiner, of Portland, returned home accompanied by her mother-in-law, Mrs. Chas. Wagner.

Assessor McKnight went out to Tallman.

M. Winter left again.
Rev. Leach returned from Harrisburg.

Tom Paine, of Geoch, returned home after an Albany trip.

Earl Brandebery left for points north on lumber business.

The Tuesday Club

The Tuesday Club met yesterday afternoon at the home of Levi Hulbert in a very interesting and enjoyable session. The meeting of humorous quotations elicited much interest. In guessing the number of beans in a small bottle Mrs. G. H. Crowell carried off the honors, guessing within a few. Some were several hundred off. The refreshments were appreciated.

Dog Killed by an Auto.

Rio, the valuable home dog of Mary Parker, yesterday evening was killed by an auto down near Pennywinkle, while Mrs. Parker was on her way home from her aunt's, Mrs. Wheeler. The auto was going pretty fast, and did not stop to learn of results. Mary's heart was just about broken in two. The dog was born in Rio Janeiro, South America and was valued at least at $50, a pet that had been presented her by an aunt.

Tongue Bitten Off.

Rsy Barriger, a ten year old boy in the eastern part of the city bit the end of his tongue off, and all kinds of reports have been made about how it happened. Even with the aid of John Catlin and the chief of police it is not known for certain; but it is probably was just a plain case of bite, an accident.

CIRCUIT COURT

The evidence in the case of C. H. Lindeman, agt. E. A. Easton, for damages for slander, went to the jury last night, after long arguments by the attorneys, and the jury promptly brought in a verdict of not guilty, which also seemed to be the verdict of the audience hearing the case. It looked somewhat like a community row, always viewed with disfavor.

This morning the important condemnation case of the Oregon Electric against D. M. Cooper was begun. The defendant claims damages to his property on account of certain water power advantages alleged as operating on the premises.

The following jury was drawn: O. L. Baltimore, A. Barnes, H. S. Bliss, P. Briggs, J. C. Davis, A. J. Lightie, John Wors, J. Schiagel, Jos. Strickler, J. K. P. Tate, J. P. Wrightman, R. A. Marsh.

The case was stated to the jury, which then adjourned, with the attorneys to the Cooper farm to inspect the situation personally.

While the jury were gone the following jury was drawn for the case of W. H. Davis, F. N. Ballinger, J. Johns, W. A. Cox, A. I. Crandall, L. Scaeton, Jas. Nanney, John Leary, T. C. Cummings, Henry Nolan, R. Thompson, Jas. Darcy, J. Deit...

After several efforts to get rid of the indictment against Miss E. Merrill, charged with the larceny of about $55 from Francis McQuilian, a lumber man from up the C. & E., the trial of the case was set for Friday at 9 a.m.

Following the Oregon Electric case will be that of H. Miller agt. W. H. Davis for the recovery of personal property and damages.

THE WRONG IDEA

Many people have the idea that the medicine they have taken for their stomach, liver, kidneys, etc., is the cause of bad teeth.

THIS IS NOT SO

It is an excuse for neglect of your teeth, and on the other hand the neglect of your teeth, in many cases, is the cause of the diseases which require medicine. Best to have your teeth attended to before they cause any disease.
