THE WORLD.

U. O. defeated Pullman yesterday 6 to 0 in a hard fought battle.

The Chemawa foot ball team went to Corvallis this afternoon to play U. A. C. Probable score 30 to 0.

A meeting was held at Harrisburg recently to promote the securing of a bridge across the Willamette at that city.

The total assessment of Lane county, exclusive of the public service corporations, is $34,236,170, being $2,501,000 more than a year ago.

Eugene Matlock, once an Albany hotel clerk, has leased a room in the St. Francis block, Eugene, and will open a grocery store.

The jury in the case of Mary Pennington agt. the Eugene General Hospital for $20,000 damages, in ten minutes brought in a verdict for the defendant.

The Albany Floral Co. last evening by the frost lost a good many of the fine chrysanthemums at the Company's gardens near this city, which seems to have gone for the mums.

Chambers & McCune, of this city, have been putting Albany on the map, in the neighborhood towns, having half page ads in all the papers of Lebanon, Harrisburg, Brownsville, Scio and Junction.

Up at Cottage Grove a warm war has been begun between the Chiropractors and the Osteopaths. One of the latter, Dr. Somers, uses two columns in the Leader in an article so hot it is a wonder the paper didn't burn.

One can now leave Portland at 9:55 a. m., and will reach Bend at 8:35 p. m., will pass Madras, just the other side of the hills, at 6:10. Returning the train will leave Bend at 6:30 a. m., reach Madras at 8:39 and Portland at 6 p. m.

Philadelphia evidently likes the name Baker. Besides having Baker at third, the star performer in the race for the pennant, Philadelphia has signed Ray Baker, a former Forest Grove boy, for the battery team. Last year he pitched for Eugene, this year for Raymond, Wash., where he has made such a reputation that he has been sent for.

DREAMLAND THEATRE

Today

1. In the Shadow of the Pines.—A drama by the Selig company with the actors Ed and around the forests of Canada. A fine picture with good scenic effects.

2. Among the Japanese.—An educational subject showing Japanese life and customs in far-away Japan, showing a street in Tokio, their festivals, and numerous other views.

3. Miss Ida Young, singing "When I Met You Last Night in Dreamland."

3. The Son of the Shunammite.—A magnificent production bringing the well known story to us in all the beauty of the country in which it originated. A hand colored film and is a feature film.

4. Forgotten.—A Vitagraph, one of their late pictures, showing how the faith of a child reclaims her father's love. First class photography and beautiful stage settings.

5. Cahler and Wadsworth.—In new music.

6. Coming—November 9 and 10, the greatest feature film ever shown here, Dante's Inferno. Admission 10 cents.

AT THE COURT HOUSE

Probate:

Will of A. M. Acheson filed. It contains 38 words above the signature, with G. T. Hamill and Jay W. Blain as witnesses, dated April 22, 1890. All property is left to Mrs. Acheson, with no provision for the children, which will make the will void. Estimated value of estate, $1200 realty, $400 personal.

Deeds recorded:

Benjamin E. Burnett to Walter Junkie, 40 acres $ 10
N. C. McClain to A. M. Holt, 107 acres 11-24 W. 10
L. E. Boudet to G. N. Jewell & wife, 76 acres 1
A. J. Johnson to H. O. Wicks & wife, 10 acres 1500

C. H. Walker on Eastern Oregon.

Cyrus H. Walker has a very interesting article in the Homestead, on the Eastern Oregon Country. Of the 73 years of his life nearly 23 were spent on the mountains, the first nine 1838 to 1847 in what is now Washington, one year soldiering in Idaho in 1856, and fifteen years at Warm Springs. He took up a claim near Warm Springs and resided on it 1857-9, where Clifford was born. He owned the agency ferry. In 1892 he sold his interests and returned to the valley, getting $1000 for his place, which it is said is now worth $25,000. He says: "As an Oregonian I know no sectionalism and shall always be a booster for all parts of our peerless Oregon, and Idaho and Washington too, since in God's providence I was born in the old Oregon of which they were once a royal part."

Good Word for Father Lane.

Jefferson Review:—Father Lane came down from Albany Monday morning to conduct some special exercises at the Catholic church. While all cannot, or will not, be Catholics, all who have a personal acquaintance with Father Lane hold him in the highest esteem for his quiet, unostentatious work and never-ceasing efforts to do good to everyone. His church here is rapidly increasing in membership.

Two Deer in Albany.

R. A. Murphy and Charles Cline returned this morning from their deer hunt in the hills near Riddles, bringing back a couple of fine fellows, one a five point buck, the other a spike. They also got two or three others, which they ate or jerked for the coming winter. It was a busy, interesting trip, about the best ever in the world is jerked venison, for which it is said editors have a responsive tongue.

A U of O. Band.

EUGENE, Oct. 27.—Under the leadership of Burns Powell a band has been organized among the University of Oregon students in which Rolla Ralston, of Albany, is playing a cornet. This band will attend all rallies, foot ball games and other student body functions. They will be taken to Portland at the student bodies expense to furnish music for the Oregon Washington game.

OREGON DAY AT OMAHA.

Tuesday was Oregon Day at the Omaha show. In a letter written after the rush of the day Mr. Holbrook, our representative, writes it was a great success, with about 10,000 people present, and the Willamette exhibit was the center of attraction. Oregon badges were distributed, and there was an immense demand for literature. The men talked themselves hoarse, and went to bed about exhausted. The Oregon exhibit is being greatly appreciated, and Albany, Corvallis, Eugene and Salem made no mistake when they promoted it.

Meet the Teachers.

Supt. Jackson informs us that a large number of the teachers and nearly all the high school principals throughout Linn Co. are new teachers from the east.

An informal public reception will be tendered the three hundred or more teachers from Linn and Benton counties next Monday evening at the High school building. The most prominent educators of the state will be present, and a short literary program rendered. All citizens of Albany, especially the business men and commercial club, should avail themselves of the opportunity of meeting these good people and extending to them a cordial welcome and hand shake. Let nothing prevent. Take them into your homes, see the institute program and attend some session.

COMMERCIAL CLUB COM.

Stole a Gun.

Lebanon E. A.—Tony Fort, who pleaded guilty of stealing a gun from I. E. Steingrandt near Sweet Home a couple of days ago before Justice W. H. Daugherty of Albany was sentenced to twenty-five days in the county jail. Fort was taken to Albany Wednesday by Constable H. R. Slavens. He is about 20 years old and a "floater," who had been working near Sweet Home.

Empire Photoplay Theatre

TONIGHT

"The Sheriff's Friend."—(Vitagraph)—A diversion from the usual pictures by this company, showing a good bunch of new people in a cowboy story. Excellent acting and beautiful scenery.

"In Paris Slums."—(Pathe)—A very peculiar story of the circus life in Paris, also the slums, where a fight with a tiger in a cage makes things lively. The rescue of the man, by a young woman, being very realistic.

"Extracting Palm Juice in the Forest."—An enjoyable scenic and educational picture by the Pathe company.

"Vienna, Austria."—(Pathe)—The various famous churches and cathedrals of Vienna, are beautifully portrayed in this picture. Also some of the fountains, streets, etc.

"The Romance of Round Cove."—(Lubin)—This extra fine picture by the Lubin company, seems almost to terminate in tragedy, but our ever-popular Florence Lawrence saves the day, and the story ends happily.

Illustrated Song "Louie's Sentence." Music by Empire Orchestra. Admission 10 cents

WHAT THE RIGHT CLOTHES MEAN TO A MAN'S SUCCESS

The young man who is dressed correctly bids for influence and the respect of others, and he GETS it. And when he possesses those assets, he is successful. In showing that he is particular about this matter, he also shows that he will be particular about OTHERS.

IN SELECTING OUR SHOWING OF FALL AND WINTER GARMENTS this year, we have gathered the best from the world's most famous makers. Alder of Rochester, Society Brand, L. System, Michael Stern, High Art, Stein Block. ABSOLUTELY none better than the above mentioned and we show the cream of each line.
