The Oregonian recently quoted Senator M. A. Miller, of Lebanon, as being a Harmon man. Mr Mil er informs the Democrat that this is a mistake, that he never expressed a preference for him as a presidential candidate for 1912. What he said was that he was willing to assist in making proper arrangements to receive and entertain him as a disringueshed guest and a representative citizen when he visits our state.

MURDER.

After it was all over D. A. Howell, who shot Mayor Folwie at Shaniko. Sahi: "Boys, I wish Fowie had shot me antead of me inhooting him." The orcumstances show that the shooting was absolutely uncalled for. Howelf was in charge of the city marshal for igning, and was on the way to the city jail, when he asked to speak to the navor, and was permitted to do so and told the mayor about his treuble when Mr. Fowlie said. "Well, Dell, I don't show snything about that, but I think that you ought to go to bed". This angeled Howell and as he repeated the words nimse I draw a revolver and fired twice, one builet brang latal.

Mr. Fowlie was taken to The Dalles in a special train, and died a few min utes after an operation.

Howell, who did the shooting, was a prominent stock man, making a comfortable fortune, then going to Portland to reside. He was once a deputy sheriff at Shaniko.
