THE WORLD.

The Register says that an analysis of the water at Eugene shows the hydrant water pure while the well water is badly contaminated.

Anna Hopper, of Spokane, has sued Long Lee, a 70 year old Chinaman of Pullman, for $50,000 damages for breach of promise!

The interstate commerce commission has ordered a cut of 20 percent on coast freight rates, something that will strike the pockets of every body on the coast.

Aberdeen, a small city in Washington has 700 policemen to look after the 1. W. W. That ought to do the business and protect the people against rebellion and anarchy.

At Lincoln Center, Kan. yesterday the jury found two men guilty of tar-ring and feathering Miss Chamberlain. They ought to be given the same dose head to feet, and ridden on a rail.

The Salem high school students last evening held a parade headed by two goats. They will think eleren goats have struck them when Albany bucks their line this afternoon.

Not content with the notoriety gained by the 11th day of the 11th month, etc., the Eugene Register now declares that on the 23rd of Nov. 23 hobos were run in by the police and all given the 23 sentence.

A big get to gether meeting is to be held at Lebanon next Tuesday night, with C. C. Chapman and other celebrities present to boost for a big advertising fund. This is in response to the suggestion of the Fore-Hill people, who have subscribed $200 to the fund.

William Waldo, a pioneer of 1843, son of the founder of the Waldo Hill community, died at Salem yesterday, at the age of 79 years. He was a prominent man in the affairs of his county, was a member of the state senate and county judge.

Things are conspiring to make Gene Simpson of Corvallis the greatest man in the world. He is not only the greatest pheasant man in America, chief of the state pheasantry, but has just filled an order for half a dozen Celestials from the great and only John L. Sullivan of Boston.

A Fine Picture

The picture film "Foul Play" shown at Dreamland last night was a decided success. The acting is above the ordinary and the different scenes are an example of high grade photography. It is an excellent photoplay and will be shown again tonight for the last time. In addition there is a fine comedy making autoette: four full reels of pictures for the usual price of 10 cents.

Empire Photoplay Theatre

TONIGHT

An all feature program is being shown, including the beautiful Biograph drama, "The Revenue Man, and the Girl," a fine Indian drama by the Pathé American, and a comedy that starts with a laugh and ends in a laugh, also a good illustrated song, "Every Little Girlie Has a Certain Little Way." Grosno and Vunk in music.

Complete change tomorrow.

All for 10 cents.

DREAMLAND THEATRE

Today

"FOUL PLAY" in three reels,

"LITTLE INDIAN" a fine comedy.

Business and social session.

Dave Lewis Will Be Here.

When Dave Lewis comes to this city next Friday in Campbell B. Casad's song farce, "Don't Lie to Your Wife," the theatergoers will see the comedian, who was responsible for the success of the humor in the "Jale of Spice," and also "The Royal Chef." In both of these plays Mr. Lewis has excelled himself, but his admirers who saw him in Mr. Casad's play during its four months run at the Whitney Opera House in Chicago last season, claim this comedian never had a play better suited for him than "Don't Lie to Your Wife."

U. S. Improvements

The U. S. engineer has made his estimate for Oregon improvements, one that generally goes. $2,300,000 in all is wanted for the coming year. Of this amount $600,000 for the mouth of the Columbia, $30,000 for the Columbia above Celilo, $194,280 to complete canal at the Cascades, Willamette above Portland and Yamhill river $20,000 with $25,522.87 for locks at Oregon City, Columbia and Lower Willamette $475,000.

Shooting Match.

On Monday, Nov. 27, there will be an all-day shooting match for turkeys and geese at the farm of C. A. Edholm, just across the Calapoois, on the Corvallis road.

BEATTIE CONFESSED.

Four hours after Henry Clay Beattie was electrocuted at Baltimore yesterday, Rev. Benjamin Dennis made public his written confession of guilt. He declared that he was at peace with God, but all his conduct indicated differently. It is said he wanted to impress the world that he had an iron nerve, and he took a pride in the widespread notoriety his case had secured for him.

His death ends a very striking case, made much of by the press, because of the wealth of his father, and the great effort made to save his life.

A sensualist and a libertine, his end is a warning to those who simply live for pleasure.

The Chicago Land Show.

The big land show at Chicago is a success. A dispatch to J. M. Scott general passenger agent state that "during the six days 43,000 people listened to the 100 lectures given, more than 40 per cent of the people attending the show hearing the lectures. Ex-nititors and delegates give praise to the Harman line for their enterprise and agree that great advantage must result to the state's service."

The turk today lit on top a covey dray, and was grabbed by O. L. Crabtree who dropped him and two kids got the prize, selling him to Nick Topolos for $2.

WHAT THE RIGHT CLOTHES MEAN TO A MAN'S SUCCESS

The young man who is dressed correctly bids for influence and the respect of others, and he GETS it.

And when he possesses those assets, he is successful. In showing that he is particular about this matter, he also shows that he will be particular about OTHERS.

IN SELECTING OUR SHOWING OF FALL AND WINTER GARMENTS this year, we have gathered the best from the world's most famous makers. Alder of Rochester, Society Brand, L. System, Michael Stern, High Art, Stein Block. ABSOLUTELY none better than the above mentioned and we show the cream of each line.
