

LINN AS A STARTER.

Corvallis G. T.— Professor Horner returned from Tangent this morning, where he gave a lecture before the high school last evening. He says that Miss Bland Beeler of this city is doing splendid work in the school, where there are already three teachers employed. There is talk of erecting a four-room grammar and high school building in the near future. All over the county the schools are advancing under the supervision of Superintendent Jackson, who is raising the educational standard as rapidly as circumstances will permit. Many of the greatest men of Oregon were educated in good old Linn. Many others got their start by teaching in that county, among whom were Senators Mitchell and Dolph, who taught under certificates issued by Hon. James K. Weatherford, president of the O. A. C. board of regents.

BUILDING PROSPECTS.

Building prospects for Albany this year look good. Considerable is in sight: the Hammell House, a two story brick business block at Chinatown, the five story First National Bank building at First and Broadalbin street, the Carnegie library at Ferry and Third streets, the brick moving picture house opposite Woodworth's, and a starter on the post office building, these will mean nearly $200,000 on improvements. Considerable will be spent on pavement, how much is speculation, owing to reports of re-nunciations. The Oregon Electric will probably spend $100,000 here this year. The city may build a city hall, and is due to invest materially in sewers. At least one new school house will have to be built. Many new residences will go up, some of them fine structures. Altogether there will be at least $500,000 in improvements, without the post office building, which will do well to get even a corner stone. The showing is decidedly a flattering one and speaks for the steady and sane manner in which the city is going ahead. Albany has never resorted to the brass band, grand stand methods of doing things, and the city's business men generally are opposed to such means of progress; but rather favor a reliable, honest, straightforward development without any balloons.

DO YOU?

Do you as a democrat want to help nominate the democratic candidate for president? Most certainly you do. How often do we hear democrats say: "Well, if I could have my choice I would nominate A. B." Now, so far as the state of Oregon is concerned, every democrat can express his preference at the primary election to be held on the 19th of April. Of course he must register or swear in his vote on the day of the primary election. The latter could not be easily done in very few precincts could six freeholders be found together to swear in a voter. The registration for the primary election will close April 9th. The very best time to register is now. Do you know that one vote in Linn county might determine who the democratic candidate for president should be? Well, it is true that it might. What an immense power to be exercised by one man. For example: If a majority of the democrats of the state of Oregon vote at the primary election for Wilson then the Oregon delegates to the National Democratic Convention will vote for Wilson. Or if a majority vote for Clark then the delegates will vote for Clark. Or so of any other candidate. Who is your candidate?

Well, then register at once and be ready to vote for him at the primary. The delegates from Oregon voting for Speaker Clark or for Governor Wilson might be the casting vote to nominate one or the other. Do your duty.

THE PHILOSOPHY OF A BREAK.

We would be better off in many matters if we kept our own counsel. Not only does the doctor and the detective and the preacher have need of being reserved and non-committal, but almost every man may profit by keeping to himself what is not necessary to tell others. There are times when confidential friends may aid us if they know our affairs, but so often when we are so thoughtful as to speak our whole mind our neighbor is just as careless in repeating and soon annoyance and even trouble results.

We are finite. The wisest and best balanced of us miss an important point now and then in the consideration of some subject. We may not admit it until long afterward, perhaps years; then the thought dawn upon us and then we wonder why it never occurred to us before. Let us not be too positive.

Most of us enjoy poetry with all that the term implies, but many of us repel "poetic license," absurdities and even fallacies under the guise of poetry.

Is there any simple remedy for mindless changeableness of disposition, or is it a natural and legitimate feature of some personalities?

It requires a great authority to alter or abolish a law or obligation as to create it.

About the time we learn to live, we die.

"Insolent" is labelled experience?

How many keep a diary? Think of the value it may be in after years and after days to have a record of weather conditions, private transactions, and even current history. Sometimes points in dispute are thereby settled. Very likely your children will prize it highly. And the discipline of the habit is worth something.

MYSTIC ROSE CAST.

In addition to the great adult chorus of the "Mystic Rose" in its various divisions, and the juvenile Flower Ballet, the opera of course has a cast of principals who either have solo or talking parts or both.

These are locally assigned as follows: San Kura, a geisha girl... Miss Hammell Alkon Sue... Miss Blackwell... Mrs. P. R. Kelly... Miss B. Ireland... Frank Watson Okama, priest of Shaman... Ray Cleaver Bun Jan, a fisherman... LeRoy Wood Izzy Wright, adventurer... Jack Berry Willie Wynn, adventurer... Jay Palmer Percy Carish, tourist... J. C. Irvine Spots, a detective... Park Stainaker Gin Riki, tea-house proprietor...

The principals meet tonight at 8 in the W. C. T. U. hall, and all adults are called for general rehearsal tomorrow, Wednesday, night at 8 o'clock in same place.

Last night's rehearsal showed good results. The voices blend well and will do justice to the beautiful opera.

For the benefit of singers who have been prevented from attending the first two rehearsals, it has been decided to receive more new voices Wednesday night. Adult singers of any voice are invited to join at that time, especially altos and tenors.

Although the opera as a whole is not yet plain to the participants, all who have interested themselves in it realize that nothing similar to it has been attempted in Albany for many years.

The performances are to be Feb. 27 and 28. The ensemble of the juvenile ballet is completed and includes over a hundred children. This feature, as testified by the people of Corvallis, is in no way at all similar to the ordinary children's performances.

Not in the opera as a whole at all similar to some of the theatrical performances occasionally turned upon the public.

Great enthusiasm prevails among those identified with it.

WEDNESDAY.

THE WORLD

During January at Portland there were 265 marriages and 62 divorces.

Postal savings banks will be opened at Philomath and Toledo on the 7th of March.

Next Saturday will be Chinese New Year, but the only celebration will be that in honor of the United States of China, the new republic.

Judge J. H. Knowles, of Midland, Tex., yesterday adjourned court long enough to whip a man who had called him a liar.

W. Cooper Morris, the banker, after a visit in Portland of several weeks, yesterday returned to Salem, where he now has a suburban home, under lock and key.

A. J. Biehl, H. H. Humphrey, J. T. Conway and H. H. Riddell, of the Columbia Orchard Co. and the Inland Development Co., were arrested at Portland yesterday for fraudulent use of the mails. There are other big and little concerns in the N. W. that need looking into.

COUNTY BEATEN.

The supreme court yesterday presented its decision in the case of Linn County, appellant, agt. the Calapoia Lumber Co., respondent, in favor of the defendant. The suit was brought to restrain the defendant from maintaining a dam, which it was claimed overflowed the highway at a certain place. The court held that the overflow of the highway was but temporary and the injury not material.

5 Educational Rallies.

Educational rallies will be held this week as follows:

Harrisburg, Thursday at 2 p. m.

Halsey, same day at 7:30 p. m.

Brownsville, Friday 2 p. m., with $800 promised.

Crawfordsville, in evening, 7:15.

Holly, Saturday at 10.

At all of the meetings Supt. Jackson will make an issue of the proposed industrial work, and State Supt. Alderman and Prof. Corley, will speak, besides others, with special features.

A Trip for the College.

Mrs. Crook, Mrs. Flo, and Misses Irvine and Anderson, of the college, left this noon for Southern Oregon in the interest of the college. They will be at a reception tonight at Cottage Grove, tomorrow night at Medford, and then at Grants Pass and Roseburg. On the trip they expect to meet friends of the college and show them the advantages of the college for study, with Christian influence.

A Great American Play.

In recent years a few plays have made such big hits that two or three companies have been sent out in them, and in one instance four organizations were started, but the number lasted only a short time. This play was not big enough or popular enough to win public support, for four companies, yet it was one of the biggest successes of the time.

In this fact lies the proof that Eugene Walter's "Paid in Full" is the greatest and best play ever produced in America. Begun in August, 1912, and continuing until May, five companies appeared in "Paid in Full" all over the United States. This adds a chapter to theatrical history never before written.

At Albany Friday night.

Genuine affection is not heralded on the house-tops.

SECURED FOR ALBANY

The Dallas Stock of Fine Pianos.

After a good deal of delay and correspondence Mr. J. C. Gallagher, district manager of Eilers Music House, induced his firm to ship the entire stock of pianos to Albany.

Piano dealer in Dallas makes a failure of the piano business—Pianos were nearly half paid for.

We sold the pianos to the Dallas dealer. They are brand new and the finest pianos we carry and while we received nearly one-half the cost we are willing to sell them plus freight from Dallas and cost of handling for the difference—that is, we will give you (the customer) the advantage of the almost one-half cost received on these pianos.

Watch tomorrow's papers for prices. You will have to act quickly as the sale will only last two days, Friday, Feb. 16, and Saturday, the 17th. Store open evenings.

Don't stay away on account of ready money. Easy payments; a little now and a little each month will secure one of the bargains.

No finer pianos obtainable, even a Chickering, Kimball, Smith & Barnes, a Sohmer, a Whitney and many others. Nothing reserved, all must go.

The name Eilers is the greatest guarantee of piano quality in the west. The representation of only the best pianos and the giving of liberal values has made Eilers Music House the nation's largest piano dealers.

This is an opportunity of a life time to secure a brand new high grade piano, and to purchase it for about one-half its real value. We positively give up the store here Saturday night, Feb. 17th.

Every piano fully guaranteed as represented or money back.

There are also two pianos that were taken in exchange as part payment for Antipianos—they are both good—one of them a Cable, was purchased in Eugene less than two years ago for $400.00. Take it for $200.00 on easy payments. Another piano, been used six years, an upright, but a cheaper make, though the parties paid $300.00 for it—take this one for $135.00. Then there are a number of organs that we have taken in trade. Make us an offer for one of these.

Remember, only two days—Friday and Saturday next.

It is the quality of the instruments offered in this sale that makes the price so startling. All are well known makes—pianos that have been selling here for 20 years and like your neighbor paid twice the price for.

A large crowd enjoyed the splendid chicken pie dinner at the M. E. church this noon.

F. H. Pfeiffer is being mentioned for sheriff of the democratic ticket, well qualified for the place.

Remember the big feed and entertainment tomorrow night at the armory, 6 to 7:30 p. m., given by G. Co. Turn out, turn in, and go.

The basketball game announced for the armory tonight between the Ales and H. S. teams will not be played until later. The Ales had too many engagements for tonight.

Everybody going through Albany on the Electric will pass along Fifth street, calling for every house and lot on the street being kept up in its best clothes. With pavement setting it off it will be the banner street of the city.

Don't fail to come and eat a good chicken dinner to be given in the dining room of the Christian church by the ladies on February 22. The menu will be appetizing and the price will be reasonable.

Fred T. Holman, of Portland is a candidate for delegate to the national democratic convention. He wants after his name. Democrats should nominate a man who can be elected president. Evidently a Wilson man.

The office is now busy doling teen. Half the men who want office are not wanted by the office.

A new course at the O. A. C. is denology, applying to plant materials. Must have theologies about exhausted there.

FIGHTING A CORVALLIS BRIDGE

Corvallis G. T.— A meeting was held yesterday at Wells by the people in the north end of Benton county, the object of which was to prevent the building of the bridge across the Willamette at Corvallis, the contract for which has already been let by the county court.

The only definite action taken was the appointment of a committee to confer with an Albany attorney to ascertain what legal rights were to be had in the premises, with the understanding that those interested in the matter would be guided by the advice thus received.

From parties who attended the meeting it has been learned that there would be an attempt made to lay an injunction against the building of the bridge and that if this could not be made permanent the recall would then be invoked against the entire county court.

The Democrat can say emphatically that Albany people are not opposed to the bridge at Corvallis; but on the contrary will be glad to see one erected, and our people will not in any way obstruct the very commendable move to secure a bridge.

The Oregon City Locks. A settlement of the Oregon City locks question was made at Washington yesterday by an agreement for the sale of the Oregon Electric property at a satisfactory price, without a condemnation suit. This it is declared means early work on the improvements contemplated, to result in the state owning and operating the locks. Maj. McAdoo left Washington yesterday for home with instructions to close negotiations on terms proposed.

Fiesel Won Out. After winning the championship in indoor base ball in Portland last Sunday the Eschels played a professional team of stars, beating them 12 to 6. Harry Fiesel, of this city, again pitched for the Eschels, and to him more than any one is due the great record made by the club during the season. This closes the season.

Pickel's Enterprises. Elsworth Pickel, of Marion, has been in the city in the interest of the Automatic Clock Co., selling stock in a $250,000 factory. It is intended to erect upon it. Mr. Pickel is himself the inventor of an automatic clock, which is being extensively manufactured and sold to hotels, specially arranged and built for public places, and is said to have made a fortune from it.

W. o. k. of boys. Boys along the line of the Oregon Power Co's power line between Albany and Corvallis have been in the habit of shooting off the glass insulators, a dangerous thing to do, as the wires carry 11,500 volts of electricity. Besides it might cause a great deal of trouble at Corvallis. More than that it is awfully small business.

$100 PER PLATE was paid at a banquet to Henry Clay, in New Orleans in 1842. Might cost for those with stomach trouble or indigestion. Today people everywhere use Dr. King's New Life Pills for these troubles as well as liver, kidney and bowel disorders. Easy, safe, sure. Only 25 cts. at Fred Dawson's.

MISFITS.

Great Feb. weather so far. This age needs men of the Lincoln calibre. It takes the moving pictures to draw the crowds. Really there isn't very much real music in a mandolin. This is an age of hustle. Even the egg scrambles sometimes. What can be more obstreperous than a pig, particularly if it is blind. The spirit of revenge is a relic of barbarism, not a part of civilization. A newspaper has to give the news, letting the result take care of itself. Those who tell us about our faults may be good friends; but it doesn't last. Five senses may be the rule; but some people certainly act as if they hadn't any. Sunday was a day of prayer for colleges. Most of them need it double quick. President Taft in his speeches breathes defiance to the democrats. Isn't that awful? Fortunately after a divorce both never go to heaven. The other always goes to the other place. The saloon city not only has the wide-open saloon, with its stench, but also the blind pig. In San Francisco there are almost as many blind pigs as saloons.

A man down in Portland was charged $1400 by a surgeon for removing a little bone from an ear, a small operation. That may be professional; but there is another word some people would use for it.

Whenever one of West's honor men goes wrong one would think the whole country was going to smash and that our homes were all in danger from their villainy. As a matter of fact the proportion isn't very much more than those outside, and the real danger in Oregon is from other law-breakers.

A big eastern artist has selected the ten prettiest women in the world. They are all prominent wealthy people. As a matter of fact Albany has just as many pretty the artist never saw. The really finest looking women in the world are not the millionairesses, with their vapidity.

"Every house has a skeleton in its closet." We think, believe, suppose, presume an awful lot, but know a precious little. Who does not use some slang? And just where is the dividing line between slang and pure language?

Lord Byron wrote:—"Man! Thou pendulum betwixt a smile and tear." Yes, many of us constantly sway back and forth between hope and fear, faith and doubt, cheer and gloom. A BREAK.

Albany is quite a city of retired men, having money enough to take things easy. Real love does not have a brass band accompaniment. Setting a good example and setting a bad one are both hard jobs. Paving costs, but what an old mud-hole a street is without it. It is easy enough to write like a philosopher, but to act like one is the rub. T. R. will not run, he is not even a candidate, he is simply playing a game. St. Valentine's day is here. Bad habits and misery go together. The republic of China has an odd sound. A GIRL'S WILD MIDNIGHT RIDE To warn people of a fearful forest fire in the Catskills a young girl rode horseback at midnight and saved many lives. Her deed was glorious, but lives are often saved by Dr. King's New Discovery in curing lung trouble, coughs and colds, which might have ended in consumption or pneumonia. "It cured me of a dreadful cough and lung disease," writes W. R. Patterson, Wellington, Tex. "after four in our family had died with consumption, and I gained 87 pounds." Nothing so sure and safe for all throat and lung troubles. Price 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free. Guaranteed by Fred Dawson.
