There is certainly a field for improvement in our tax laws; but what is needed most is a legislature that appreciates the rights of the people.

A Welch, one of the most prominent railroad men in the state, president of the Portland, Eugene and Eastern, after spending the night in the city, went to Corvallis to look after the Corvallis and Alsea road, owned by the Company. Father Hennessy is in charge of it. He has been here a number of times and has many friends in the city, who will be glad to have him back.

The Mystic Rose.

Tonight there will be another general rehearsal for the "Mystic Rose" at the W. C. T. U. hall at 8 o'clock. This will be for all adults, chorus and principals.

All those who have previously attended are asked to come at that time. Also the director would like to have a few more singers like these to add strength to the ensemble of the beautiful opera, provided they can join tonight.

Alto and tenors are especially desirable.
The principals rehearsed the talking lines last night, and made a good start.

Tonight the work will be on the singing.
All departments of this great benefit production are proceeding satisfactorily.

Those identified with it will derive much pleasure in being factors in its great success.

The Albany Gun Club Organized.

At the commercial club rooms last night the Albany Gun Club was formally organized, with fifteen members on the spot, and as many more promised.

The interstate trap rules and bylaws and a constitution, prepared by the committee, Messrs. Baltimore, Leininger and Lewelling were adopted to govern the Club.

The following officers were elected:
Grant Froman, president.
W. G. Ballock, vice president.
F. P. Tracy, secretary.
Neil Bain, treasurer.
W. E. Parker, field manager.

W. G. Ballock, F. H. Pfeiffer and J. M. French were appointed a committee on membership. The fee is $5, with no regular dues.

It is proposed to have tournaments, but principally work together in the interest of a great sport.

Over at Philomath.

H. E. Morton of the Oregon Power Co. was in Philomath this week, looking over the field, with a view of improving the lighting system of the city, something that always speaks for a town. He reports numerous improvements there, several new residences, a fine new school house, prospects of an ax handle factory and the Benton saw mill getting ready to start up on March 1st.

Elks Attention.

All members desiring to attend the "Married Men's Banquet" Feb. 17, are requested to secure tickets before the evening of Feb. 14, as the sale of tickets must close on that date, that the committee may know just how many to prepare for. Tickets can be secured at the Elks Club, Dawson's drug store, Burkhart & Lee's, McAlpin's cigar store or Collins & Taylor's.
