MYSTIC ROSE MADE A HIT.

A Big Audience Appreciated the Jap-American Comic Opera.

A large audience, at the opera house, last night plainly showed their appreciation of the Mystic Rose, presented by Albany young people, under the direction of the able composer, Robert P. Skilling, also a very competent director and manager of details.

The stage settings were Japanese and pretty, and the cast was generally excellent. Miss Blanche Hammel is a lovely San Kura, a Geisha girl, and sang with fine effect. Mr. Harkins, an American tourist, a part well carried out by Frank Watson, falls in love with her, and protects her at a critical time. Percy Carish, presented by J. C. Irvine, also has a love affair with a young American tourist, Miss Brant, with Miss Zona Haight in the cast, which ends happily. The romance supreme, though, is that of Akron Sue, by Miss Louise Blackwell, who made a great hit, doing some star work, who while hunting for her fellow, finds him, but goes back on him for an American detective, Spots, which Parke Stalnaker held down in good shape. The jilted man was Izzy Wright, an adventurer, who with his companion Willie Wynn, were seeing the world, the comedians of the opera, sustained splendidly by Jack Berry and Jay Palmer, doing great amateur work.

Roy Cleaver as Okama, the priest of Shaman, deserves special mention. He has a fine voice, well sustained. Ray Wood was a good Bun Jan, the fisherman who found the Mystic Rose, a stone, in a fish, which caused all the troubles of the story, but being a wishing stone, brought things to an end happily.

Mrs. P. K. Kelly and Miss Beatrice Ireland made good tea girls in their neat Japanese costumes. Arthur Leininger was well well made up and did his part well as Gin Riki a tea merchant, and Herbert Fortmiller was on the spot as the genii.

The dance of the tea girls was a pretty feature, well carried out by Misses Hackleman, Hall, Roberts, White and Burnett. And likewise the tourists' double quartet, with Messrs. Torbet, Bain, Lowlin, Abraham, Dooley and South, and Misses Schultz, Young, Pipe, Olmstead, Wright and Wright sustaining the parts.

Perhaps nothing made a greater hit than the Flower and Butterfly ballet in the last act, a beautiful thing in which nearly a hundred children took part, in bright costumes, carefully trained and well sustained.

The chorus work was excellent, a mass of good voices. The whole was a decided success, an enjoyable affair and will long be remembered as a bright spot in the amateur performances of the Hub.

The Mystic Rose will be repeated to-night.

Readings by Miss Hemenway.

Miss Hemenway, of Cottage Grove, a teacher of elocution with an excellent reputation, will give a reading at the Christian church on the evening of March 4, with a good program and a dramatic treat in prospect. Besides a reading from Jas. Whitcomb Riley and character sketches she will present a monologue from the Merchant of Venice, the whole an offering deserving a good hearing.

THIS MORNING.

News From Albany's Six Early Trains.

Jack Sellers and family left on the early train for Portland to reside. Mr. Sellers will run a motor between there and Newberg. They resided here for about eighteen years, and will leave many warm friends at the Hub. Eighteen years, though, in one city, is a long time for a railroad man, who is generally changed around a good deal.

Hon. M. A. Miller, of Lebanon, went to Portland to meet his friend of many years, W. J. Bryan. Once Mr. Miller was mentioned for vice president with Bryan. Just now, though, he is hustling for U.S. senator, a bigger position than vice president, and says he will at least get the nomination.

Miss Emma B. Crosno, who returned last evening from Portland, where she had been to see her sister, who is ill, went to Springfield to attend the funeral of a nephew.

Fred Kerr returned from Lebanon. John Donaca, of Lebanon, after being down to see the Mystic Rose.

J. A. Archibald, the monument man, left.

J. R. Flynn and C. L. Monson, the paper drummers, left northward.

Deputy District Attorney Gail S. Hill left for Salem. He is a candidate for district attorney, and will probably file notice of candidacy this week. The only other candidate for the place on the republican ticket is Deputy District Attorney Winslow, of Salem.

Traded Places.

Frank Kitchen, the brick mason, has traded his property, at 1227 East Second street, with R. B. Miller, former county treasurer, for his small tract near Jefferson. Mr. Kitchen and family will move there, while Mr. Miller will come to Albany to again make his home. One daughter is Mrs. Omer Mitchell, of this city.

While Mr. Kitchen's home will be on his new place he will work in Albany during the summer at his trade, a very competent mason.

If you don't find us at the old stand come around to the green front, on Baker street, near the skating rink.

Adjourned for term.

Looking for Three Cars of Goods.

In the freight department at the depot the men are looking for three car loads of goods for the new Young Store, about due, under orders placed by Mr. P. A. Young while in the east.

A new metropolitan feature in the new store will be two auto delivery wagons, one for each end of town, which will be kept running, covering the city and suburbs.

The finishing touches are being put in the store, but it will probably be close to the first of April before the business will be done in the new building.

Another $10 fine this morning for drunkenness. Over $300 has been collected this month for fines, under the new system of attacking the business from all sides.

Mel, the saw filer, will be found at the green front on Baker street, near the skating rink.
DAWSON & BUTZLAFF.

FOR SALE.—An Oliver typewriter, nearly new, easy terms. See Conrad Meyer Jr.

THE BAYNE'S VARIETY STORE

Here Is a Chance.

I have associated with me one of the most expert platemakers in the Northwest, and I am going to give people of Albany and surrounding country the benefit of his knowledge and experience for the next 31 days, beginning Friday, March 1st.

NOW LISTEN

Maybe you are wearing one and possibly two plates which are giving you satisfaction, but it is policy to have a set in reserve in case of an accident. Possibly you are wearing an ill-fitting plate, which drops down when you eat or try to laugh, or it might be that your mouth shrunk after you had your plate made. If so, you cannot afford to miss this offer.

Many persons have had their teeth extracted and gummed it ever since. If this is the case, it is time for you to get busy while this special offer is on.

During the 31 days beginning March 1st I will make the special price of $5.00 and $7.50, but this price does not include extracting. Here are the terms—One-half to be paid when the impression is taken, and the other half when the work is finished.

No credit to any one.

You can see a sample of the plates before you buy.
