said it was his business to help enforce the laws of the city. W. A. Barrett thought there should be leniency in first Investigating Albany Rock.

G. T.—Prof. H. M. Parks, of the O.
A. C. school of mines, has just returned from Albany, where he has been examining two rock quarries at the request of A. C. Schmitt of the First National Bank of that city. It is proposed to use the rock in the erection of the new Carnegie library, and in the superstructure of the Presbyterian church in Albany. Some of the stone has already been put into the foundations of the church. Prof. Parks has brought specimens of the rock back to the college, and will make thorough laboratory tests of it before giving his final decision as to its availability for the proposed use.

J. S. VAN WINKLE, P. M.

SECOND NIGHT.

Another large audience enjoyed the Mystic Rose, an offering that has been greatly appreciated.

Mr. Skilling has proven an efficient director, and is a composer of ability, a genuine musician. Before beginning amateur work two years ago he was a director of choruses in N. Y. for several years, training them for their work.

Altogether Miss Louise Blackwell is considered the star of the Mystic Rose.
She made the character of Akron Sue one to be remembered.

Selecting Miss Blanche Hammel for the part of San Kura was a fortunate one. She has an excellent voice, well trained, with an articulation that is clear, and has a personality that is popular.

Jack Berry as Izzy Wright and Jay Palmer as Willie Wynn surpassed many of the professionals in such characters.

The work of the little girls in the Butterfly drill will long be remembered as a bright spot in the production.

The story of the Mystic Rose was well conceived for a comic opera, snappy and interesting.

The receipts were $264 the first night and $219 the second night, $483 the two nights. After paying expenses the receipts are divided between Mr. Skilling and the civic improvement club.

A great many people in life are looking after the big Mystic Rose stones, whereas all around them are golden opportunities.

Advent of Bryan.

Portland, Feb. 28.—Great preparations are being made here for the Bryan meeting Thursday night. The speech will be of a political nature, and will be the beginning of a great democratic campaign, which already promises to be more successful than any, in recent years.

The Gipsy Smith Tabernacle has been secured for the evening; it has a seating capacity of ten thousand and judging from inquiries which are being made, many people will be turned away.

Multnomah Co. will have a full ticket this year and the members of the county committee are urging every county that has an election to do likewise.

Grants Pass and Booze.

At Grants Pass the special fight has been made against the liquor dealers holding government tax receipts, and already six of them have been closed.
Grants Pass has gotten the bull by the horns. An ordinance has been passed requiring a license for all soft drink places, and with it a pledge, sworn to, promising no government tax receipt, or the sale of any kind of intoxicants. There are different ways of getting game, where they are really after the tiger.

Corvallis' Financial Hole.

G. T.: The matter of figuring out how to make $14,771.79 do the work of $50,000 needed to run Corvallis satisfactorily each year has been giving the city council no little concern recently.
The sum available this year is slightly less than that of last year, and with a paid fire department, almost treble the amount of paved streets to clean, crosswalks needed, and other necessary improvements contemplated, the need is much greater than last year.

However the money is not available.

Died in Iowa.

Mr. Levi E. Tracy last evening received a dispatch from Brighton, Iowa, telling of the death of his next older brother, Mr. Basil Tracy, at the age of 81 years. He was in Albany last October, a visit greatly appreciated by his Albany relatives. In a family of twelve children only two now survive, Dr. Tracy of this city, and a sister.

Albany People in a Blizzard.

Mr. and Mrs. Jos. H. Ralston, natives of Albany, now in Denver, must be having the time of their lives, for there is raging there now the worst snow storm and blizzard of the winter, and the mercury is below zero. Many trains have been stalled and they are getting into Denver with difficulty, and worse weather is looked for.

The Delayed Shipment of Gage Hats Are Here

And Chambers & McCune announce the showing of these famous hats, along with the productions of their own work room, Friday and Saturday.
Watch the windows for new styles most especially the much talked of manish street hats and sailors originated by Gage Bros.

Another One.

The biggest electric sign in Albany was being put up today by the Oregon Power Co., on the St. Francis at the corner, high up. It is twenty-two feet long, a good one.

The Weather.

Range of temperature 55 90. There was a frost this morning; but is too early to do any damage to fruit.
The river is 8.1 feet.
Prediction: fair tonight and Friday

$25,000 DAMAGE SUIT

Against the Lebanon Lumber Company.

J. R. Wyatt and Weatherford & Weatherford today filed complaint in the case of Nellie McDaniel agt. the Lebanon Lumber Co., asking for $25,000 damages, caused by the death of her husband, on Jan. 4, 1912, in the mill of the defendant. The twelve page complaint alleges that the defendant employed an incompetent sawyer, Ed Hardy, that it had a defective, unsafe and insufficient canting gear, and that by reason of the defective machinery, lack of proper rules, the incompetency of the sawyer, and also the failure to properly instruct the deceased, the machinery was started up, while the deceased was at work on the carriage, and a log was jerked, by reason of the defects stated, striking the deceased, crushing him, and extinguishing his life instantly.

Hotel Hammel Meeting.

A meeting of the stockholders of the Hotel Hammel will be held tomorrow night to prepare for the erection of the new hotel at as early a date as possible.

FRIDAY.

Robert Shinn has gone to Hood River to take charge of an apple orchard the coming season.

Ladies! have you seen Gage's Manish Hats and Sailors in Chambers & Mc-Cune's windows?

Dr. Leininger, after being confined to his home a week or two, is now able to be out, and will be at his office as usual in the morning.

The high school has elected a boy's glee club with Clark Canfield as president, and Leland Cowan as secretary and treasurer.

John Houseweart and family have returned from Woodburn, where they have been for several months, and will now be at their home in the suburbs, on R. D. 5.

The Albany Gun Club began shooting yesterday afternoon, and there was more this afternoon, with a good crowd out, fine sport. Friday will be the regular day.

Miss Winnie Austin last night entertained the Alpha Omega girls in a delightful session, with a menu of refreshments pronounced the best ever.
500 was played and a social session enjoyed.

There are now four former clerks of the big Meier-Frank store of Portland at Chambers & McCune's, including Miss Elsie Locke, who has returned to Albany, and her many friends here will be glad to know to remain.

Born in Portland on Feb. 27, to Dr. and Mrs. W. A. Trimble, a girl, Carolyn Virginia, their first child. Dr. and Mrs.
Trimble, who formerly resided in Albany, will have the best wishes and congratulations of their many friends here.

Hillis, the crack shot after shooting at Albany and neighboring towns, with Ben Clelan as chaprone, last evening went to Eugene for an exhibition. From there he will go up into Alaska, to be gone several months, pretty well covering that territory, a good one for hunters.

Edward Smith, a merchant at Lowell in Lane county yesterday morning at 5:30 o'clock dangerously shot Joshua Caine, the mail carrier. Caine, who had a key to the store, went to the store after the mail inside. Smith thought he was a burglar and fired, hitting Caine, who is in a critical condition.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Parker entertained Wednesday evening at a five course dinner, a number of their friends.
Those enjoying Mr. and Mrs. Parker's hospitality were Mr. and Mrs. C. C.
Cameron, Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Churchill, Mr. and Mrs. Olin Stainaker, Mr. and Mrs. G. T. Hoekensmith, Mr. and Mrs.
C. C. Bryant, Mr. and Mrs. David Froman jr., Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Bur-hart, Miss Laura Chambers and Mr.
H. A. Hull.

BRICKS TO SUCCEED SHACKS.

Plans have been drawn for a new brick on the site of Chinatown, one that will be universally welcome to Albany people, anxious to see Chinatown disappear. It will be two stories, with two stores, and is to be ready for occupancy on the 1st of August, when the stores will be occupied by W. M.
Parker, grocer and baker, and F. W.
Schultz, meat market. Their leases on their present stores will expire at that time, when Carter & Robson will at once begin the erection of a brick on the site, already having two walls for the building, and two more old-time buildings will disappear and give place to a modern structure.

News from Albany's Six Early Trains.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Wells, of Corvallis, pioneer residents of that city, returned from San Diego, Calif., where they spent the winter, greatly pleased with their stay in that delightful city.
It has been dry but always pleasant.
Great preparations are being made for San Diego's Panama fair in 1915.

Rev. McLeod, of Mill City, returned home after being at Turner, where he conducted the funeral of Mrs. Richey, who died at the age of 77 years. She had resided there 57 years. One of her sons was O. C. Richey, who recently died.

A committee consisting of H. F.
Buckman, Dr. Mendenhall and T. C.
Johnson, of Coburg, and four from Springfield, arrived and went to Portland to confer with the S. P. officials and protest against the taking of the motor of the run beyond Brownsville.
It is needed all the way through, and Albany will be asked to help keep it on the entire run.

vallis, went to Portland.

Ed. Holloway went to Salem.
C. B. Irvine left for Mill City.
